WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH CARPIO?

What's the matter with Carpio on the Soo? Nothing, she's eminently all O. K., and is getting her share of the trade of the surrounding country. Carpio at her birth fell into good hands and she has been a most thrifty damsel ever since the first shack was planted upon her soil. By hustle push and a rustle this berg is in the front rank of live towns of Ward county. Her people never step over a dollar to grab at a nickel, she sleeps not, but is up and doing every day of the week and on Sunday goes to church. Carpio was not killed by her founders asking two or three prices for town lots when she started. Every worthy enterprise was given the glad hand and they usually stayed.

The public schools of Carpio are under the efficient management of Prof. W. I. Meyer who is doing good work for the schools. Mr. Meyer is careful and thorough in his methods and is a success in the school room.

Dr. Wm. P. Thelen is the only physician in town and he enjoys a splendid practice as well as a fine reputation as a man. He is a graduate of Minnesota University and was for two years hospital surgeon. He has unusual success in handling typhoid, and cases of pneumonia. He is a fine surgeon also.

Jasper & Hanson are the leading dealers in real estate. They attend promptly to all phases of the land business and are hustlers as well as careful and reliable in their transactions.

C. B. Best & Co., began business in Carpio last June. Their stock comprises of dry goods, boots, shoes, groceries and provisions. The firm occupy a pleasant room on the east side of North Main street. By careful attention to business the company are building up a good trade. The firm take measurements for suits of clothing for the Tailor Made Clothing Co., of Chicago, and guarantee a fit every time. The prices are phenomenally low in these suits.

The Carpio State Bank is one of the solidest institutions of the city. The bank is capitalized for $10,000 and is officered as follows: Mr. S. M. Due, president; O. V. Eckert, vice-president and Mr. Ed. Christensen cashier. The Carpio Land Co., have their office in the bank. This company is prepared to make final proofs and to loan money on real estate.

Miss Sophia Ringstad is proprietor of a fine bakery and confectionary store. She can supply the trade with fresh bread and pastry of all varieties. Call on her for everything in the bakery line.

Paul Frank operates a fine restaurant on Main street. You can get a fine meal for a quarter. When in Carpio and are hungry drop in and be served by this eating house.

F. A. Leavitt has a complete stock of dry goods, clothing, full line of groceries, boots and shoes, and gent's furnishings. The firm also handles crockery and queensware. Mr. J. L. Sundahl is head clerk and is a very competent salesman.

H. L. Hanson is proprietor of the only meat market in town. He keeps on hand a complete supply and salted meats and also runs a wagon and is prepared to furnish meats on short notice.

Geo. A. Dahle proprietor of one of the hardware stores of Carpio was for some time head clerk for Martin Jacobson at Minot. This is enough to insure Mr. Dahle's success in the hardware trade. Mr. Dahle's stock includes harness and furniture. He is a hustler and has done exceedingly well.

S. H. Russell has opened a general flour and feed store. The stock occupies a brand new room on Main street and is a valuable addition to the business of Carpio. Mr. Russell is a young man and a hustler and will surely make a success of his business.

S. T. Torgenson conducts a general merchandise store near the postoffice in Carpio. He sells clothing, groceries, boots and shoes and the champion harvester. Mr. Torgenson has been in business about two years and has had good success in his line.

M. E. Jackson runs a general bicycle repair shop and is prepared to repair all damages to wheels and also repairs shoes, harness, watches, guns and all other lines of work that may fall into his hands.

K. Christenson & Co., have sold goods in Carpio for a year and a half. The stock comprises of dry goods boots and shoes, clothing, gent's furnishing goods and groceries. The firm will have the largest and most up-to-date stock between Kenmare and Minot. It will pay you to call before making your purchases for fall and winter needs. Mr. Christensen formerly sold goods at Kenmare with O. A. Olson & Co.

One of the largest hardware firms in Carpio is Rushfelt & Daniels. They have been in business in their present location about one year. The store room is 65x24 with 12 foot ceiling. The firm carries a fine harness stock. They also handle a complete line of farm machinery, Milwaukee binders and Garr Scott & Company threshers. The firm were the pioneer merchants of the place and it is largely due to their enterprise that Carpio is where it is today.

Around the State.

The Lansford Times last week had sixty-two final proofs.

The Palermo Standard says a lawyer should locate in its town.

The Carpio Footprints looks as if a good printer might improve the appearance of that paper.

The Palermo Standard hopes that the coal question there will not be as serious as it was last winter.

Sidney Robson, the Towner cashier, drove 100 miles in the country one day last week on business.

Grain is coming into Towner in such quantities that it is almost impossible for the elevators to handle it.

A Lakota grain buyer took in 96 loads of wheat in one day. Very good considering that North Dakota is the Areti regions.

Thieves broke into a car at Williston Friday night and stole $500 worth of silks which were consigned to a firm in Chinoock, Mont.

Reiny, editor of the Plaindealer at Grand Forks was arrested for stealing a march on his friends. He just got married. He was fined a box of cigars.

A calf was born near Akra with two heads and eight legs. The farmers of the state have made two resolutions: to sow less flax and stack their grain earlier.

F. H. Stoltz opened the sale of lots at Lansford Thursday and forty-five lots were sold in one day, nearly all the business men had selected their lots and the sales were fast.

The Ray Pioneer says the Homeseekers Guide which N. J. Coddington recently got out, appears as if some blacksmith had been working on it. Marshall McClure of the Optic, will you be thus insulted?

The Towner News thinks that true Christian charity is not all stamped out in this cruel world of ours, as a number of Towner young ladies were helped in an hour of need.

The Towner News says that if people are not more careful with their drinking water, an epidemic of typhoid fever will prevail. People of Towner haul water from sink holes and place it in barrels in the back yards, using it as required.

Editor and Mrs. M. O. Hall, of Mohall, had a bad runaway at Gainsboro, Can., last week. The lines broke letting Mr. Hall fall backwards. The buggy was overturned and Mrs. Hall was dragged for a long distance in the back of the top. She was badly bruised but will recover.

The Deep river school trouble has been settled in favor of the old school board and is considered a victory for the Rand McNally book Co. The old board purchased $1,200 worth of books and it now seems as though they had a right to do so. The board consisted of B. E. Cory, Ed. E. Johnson, C. H. Sommers and P. J. Ebersole.

State's Oldest Travelling Man.

Julius Fauchald reports having seen an interesting man at Tioga one day last week who is remarkably well preserved for his age. He is 91 years old and is holding down a claim four miles north of Ray. He looks like he is but sixty years old and says he feels like it. He was born in 1818 and served in the Mexican war.
