MINOR TOPICS

Dan Johnson is plowing 250 acres with two rigs.

Messrs Cole and Fox were down from Kenmare Monday.

A farm sold a mile from Bert-hold last week for $25 per acre.

Chas. Wellman is building an addition to his house near Glen-burn.

Sam Arntz went to Ross Monday where he sold his relinquishment for $700.

David Wolford, who has a valuable claim near Kenmare, was down on business Monday.

The bottom dropped out of the flax market this week. It has been selling for 75 cents a bushel.

Spriggs Bros. the plumbers, have four men at work. They are doing some good work at Williston.

John Bradley announces that No. 98 drew the cow at his dance recently, but no one has come for the critter yet.

Sam Small came up from Devils Lake Monday evening to be present at the opening play given by the Crows.

L. F. Allen will be here Monday and anyone wishing to see him about the positions which he is offering can see him then.

Anton Jensen completed drilling the well at the mill Monday. It is 98 feet deep and cannot be lowered much with a steam pump.

Harvey Gates finished threshing and was delighted to learn that his flax averaged 17 bushels per acre. He lives ten miles down the river.

John McJannet and John Bradley, two of the jolliest Johns in the state, returned from Fargo Sunday, where they sat on the United States jury three weeks.

C. B. Goodrich has moved the Glenburn Tribune to Deering. Glenburn still has a news paper, the continuation of the Carpio Footprints, which was moved there.

McKone Bros. now occupy E. D. Kelley's new building and have their stock of groceries nearly placed. They have a floor space of 24x78 feet besides the basement.

The Great Northern is offering round trip tickets to St. Paul from Minot Thursday and Friday, Oct. 29 and 30 for ten dollars good returning Nov. 2. This is on account of the football game.

Neil McDougall moved 5 buildings at Glenburn, 9 at Lansford and 8 at Richburg. The latter town is being moved a mile and a half east to the new townsite. Seventy-five buildings are being moved there.

L. A. Corey spent last week driving over the Northern country in the interest of the H. E. Wheeler concern. He reports some good stores going up in the new towns and says there is a great deal of grain yet to thresh.

The Minot papers are quarreling about their circulation. Boys stop the scrap. There are some things the public don't need to be informed about, and are no wiser when found out. Keep cool. Keep the press going and say nothing.—Devils Lake News.

A number of changes took place last week at the Great Northern depot in the employes. Wm. Pierow resigned as bill clerk. Harry Ray of Grand Forks is filling the vacancy. A. D. Hagenstein and J. E. Harmon traded jobs as ticket sellers, the former on days now. Geo. Morrow, Jr., the night baggage-man is now day freight clerk.

L. C. Van Exie was called to Denbigh Tuesday to take twenty views of the crossing where a man was killed several months ago. The Great Northern is being sued and the pictures will be used in the case. Mr. Van Exie is being employed by the company. He has done considerable work for them and his work has always been very satisfactory.

W. G. Roach, who accompanied Shelly B. Miller here from Pendleton, Ore., is a brother-in-law of the governor of Oregon and has $100,000 worth of property in Seattle, Wash. He and Mr. Miller are taking a trip through the east on business. Mr. Roach has a number of important patents concerning a printing office which he is about to sell to eastern capitalists and he and Mr. Miller have formed a partnership in this business.

WHEELER'S

Busy Department Store

We are so busy in our Department Store that we have no time to "dilly dally" through the press and over our counters, that we are going to give you goods at less than cost and cheaper than can be bought elsewhere; but we just keep on wrapping up FIRST CLASS GOODS at straight legitimate profits and the result is, A GREAT LONG LIST OF SATISFIED CUSTOMERS. We are anxious to add more. Will you not be one of them
