

FALL OPENING

Remember our Clothing Department.

We carry Up-to Date Goods. Good honest made Suits, From $5.00 to $25.00.

Sheep Lined Coats in Duck and Corduroy with large collars Long in Skirt, Just the thing for Cold weather,

FUR LINED CAPS

Mittens, Gloves, Woolen Socks, Overalls, in all Styles and Prices

Heavy Sole, Pat. Corona Colt, Kid Top Cuban Heel $3.50

Light Sole, Pat. Corona Colt, Kid Top Cuban Heel $3.50

OVERCOATS All Styles and Grades, $7.50 to $25.00

Sweaters, Shirts, Collars, Neck Wear, Handkerchiefs, Trunks Suit Cases, Bags of all Kinds.

J. M. Wilson, The Shoe and Clothing Man, Minot, N. D.

CORRESPONDENCE

THE HAYS AND DISHAYS OF THE PEOPLE IN THIS PART OF THE STATE, BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

WATER-FORD

Sam Overline is hauling hay to mot.
Howan Bailey is breaking stubble this week.
John Leinze is breaking at stubble this week.
Mr. Armstrong was a business caller at Minot Thursday.
J. P. Bailey and H. M. Bailey threshed their grain Tuesday.
Frank Eddy is selling out and going to move to Indian Territory in a few days.
It is understood that there will be a wedding in this neighborhood in the near future, but any how we dare not tell.
O. H. Hathaway has moved into his shack again. He now says he is going to stay until he freezes out and then he will go farther south where the sun shines.

PRESCOTT LOCALS.

Who says this isn't fine weather?
The wedding bells will soon ring in town.
Adolph Peterson, on section 15, has been looking after his interests here for a couple of weeks.
Elmer Oyseth is holding down his claim in proper shape, preparatory to proving up soon.
Prescott town board met with the town board last week and laid out a road between the two townships.
Weston others are putting up a house and barn on section 19 and will move here soon from near Bottineau.
Jerry O'Leary is building a house on his farm, 16x24, with 14 ft. posts. He is hauling his lumber from Deering.

GLENBURN NEWS.

There was a number of visitors in town last Sunday.
Sweedberg's threshing rig was threshing along the Hoosier trail last week.
Rev. Harris delivered a sermon in the school-house last Sunday afternoon.
The construction of Mr. Ernie's hardware and furniture building is well under way.
Adolph Adolphson, who has a claim southwest of town, is proving up. Adolph intends to return to Iowa to spend the winter.
The postoffice was moved to town last Saturday. Mr. Walter is endeavoring to get a daily mail service. A petition is being circulated for this purpose.
Miss Mary Rollins, who has a valuable claim southwest of town, is proving up and expects to spend the winter in Minnesota, returning in the spring, when the May flowers bloom again.
Bert Hadfield and Mr. Moses and sons expect to take a trip up into Canada the first of next week with a view of filing on a quarter section of King Edward's domain. Hasn't Uncle Sam been good enough to you, boys.
Last Friday and Saturday evenings the northern light could be seen very plainly. This electrical phenomena seemed to extend from far north to nearly directly overhead, beautifying the sky with many brilliant colors, which was as beautiful to look at as some Fourth of July fire works.

Rudolph Holmes is down from Cando.
Miss D. M. Stobhasbeen quit sick for several days.
D. S. Petry finished his season on threshing last Wednesday.
Miss Mamie Bray ate Sunday dinner with Miss Flossie Cole.
Miss Ethel Burns took dinner Sunday with Miss Eera Smith.
Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Perry, Sunday evening, a son.
Miss Dakota Walgus took dinner Sunday with Mrs. Lulu Pearson.
Miss Bertha Stener returned to her home at Defiance, Ohio, last Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. McGibbon and family of Burlington visited at Wm. Allen's Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Culbertson were entertained over Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brey.
Geo. Wetmore and son Harry returned to their claims at Malouin Canada, last Wednesday.
Arthur Engler was down from Cando over Sunday attending the council meeting at the church.
Mr. and Mrs. Halderman, of Minot, visited over Sunday with her brother, Paul Norton and wife.
Miss Julia Thompson came down from Rugby Monday and will spend a few days on her claim.
John Dinsmore, David Robinson and Chas. Holmes took dinner Sunday with J. E. Smith and family.
Quinn Cole has accepted a position on the Great Northern as carpenter and left Saturday for Niagara.
John Dinsmore is having a neat cottage of four rooms built on his claim north of town. Robinson and Holmes will do the carpenter work.

Conley Burns is down from Cando.
Sib of ...
The quarterly district council meeting of the Lutheran People's church was held at the Burns church on Saturday.
The meeting last Wednesday ...
Chas. Drecher is now having the soil turned over at a lively rate. Charley Holmes and Roy Cole are doing the plowing.
John Burns, our south side blacksmith, is moving his house and family to his claim northwest of town. May success go with them.
Jacob Dinsmore and daughters, Bertha and Leatha were down from Burlington over Sunday attending council meeting and visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Smith.
Mrs. John Vandervels and children left Tuesday evening for St. Paul where they will spend the winter, returning to Minot in the spring to spend the rest of the year.
Rev. Geo. Drecher preached quite an interesting missionary sermon at the G. B. church Sunday morning, after which a collection of $114.43 was taken for the home missionary work.
Next Sunday there will be held at the G. B. church what they call a "harvest meeting." Elder D. M. Shorb will deliver the sermon which promises to be very entertaining. All are cordially invited to attend the service.
Fred Nagles and J. E. Smith have opened a new meat market at the old stand in Surrey. We wish them unlimited success in the business, as Surrey needs a

Major Richards' House Burns
Major Richards' residence at Hiddenwood caught fire early Sunday morning and burned. Very little of the household furniture was saved. Mark Murphy was there and saw the fire. The house was a very good structure. With hard work his hay was saved.

Toujours La Femme.
"Remember," we say to the woman, "in business correspondence a short note is important and most favored." ...
Not a Stem Winder.
Little Willie, who is a Philadelphia boy, had been watching a dog chasing his tail for three minutes. "Papa," he asked, "what kind of a dog is that?" "That," said the father, "is a watch dog." Willie was silent a moment. "Well," he finally said, "from the time he takes to wind himself up, I guess he must be a Waterbury watch dog."

G. P. Hyndman, M. D.
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
Office over Lee & Larson's.
MINOT, N. DAK