The firm whose advertisement is on this page asks a share of the business of the community. We believe there is ample room here in Minot for them and take this opportunity to extend them a hearty welcome to the best city in North Dakota.

Mr. C. F. Weiland is not a stranger to us having for a period of four months had charge of the Kent Realty & Investment Co. as manager. Mr. Weiland has won many warm friends by his open and honest business methods and we bespeak for him a bright and prosperous future in his new enterprise. Mr. Weiland will have charge of the Real Estate and Loan business more particularly and a general supervision of the entire business.

Mr. Charles F. Wheeler is well and favorably known as the hustling insurance man. Mr. Wheeler has charge of the Insurance department, is district manager for the Manhattan Life Insurance Co. of New York and will devote his time to the writing of good insurance and will be sure to add his share to the income of the office.

Then there is L. W. Torgeson the lawyer of the firm who will have charge of all the legal business entrusted to them as well as the business before the U. S. land office. Mr. Torgeson is a lawyer of some experience and will give his prompt attention to all business entrusted to him. He is in the prime of life, willing to work and capable of attending to all legal matters that be undertaken. Mr. Torgeson talks Norwegian and is ready and willing to assist those who are not sufficiently versed in the English language to transact important business without a little assistance in that line.

Call on them and get acquainted, you will find them each and all courteous and gentlemanly.

MARKILLIE.

Mr. Littler went to Minot Monday on business.

Sunday morning a stranger came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Deck Clark through the severe cold to stay for years. It was a daughter. Both mother and child are doing nicely.

Everything in general seems to be on a stand still on account of the cold weather.

Miss Jennie Wilson is visiting in Burlington with her sister, Mrs. McDonald.

Miss Lula Care has been visiting several days with Mrs. Warn.

There is to be a social Dec. 17, at the home of Mrs. Jennie Warn. Everybody is invited. A picnic supper will be served and a crazy quilt will be disposed of.

Holiday Excursions

From Dec. 1st to 31st inclusive the Great Northern Ry. will sell round trip excursion tickets to Eastern Canada at the extremely low rate of $40.00. This rate applies to Montreal and west through Ontario. For point east of Montreal one fare for the round trip from Montreal to destination is added to the $40.00.

For full particulars apply to your local ticket agent or Fred A. Hillis, Traveling Passenger Agent, Grand Forks; or F. I. Whitney, General Passenger Agent, St. Paul.

Strayed from my home in Section 32, Township 156-82, Dec. 5, a horse, weight 1100 or 1200, color black, white spot in face, blind in left eye. Will pay for information leading to the recovery of said animal.

SCANDINAVIAN PIANO TUNER

Tellef Melland Is in Minot. Piano and Organ owners should give him an opportunity to tune their instruments before Christmas. They will sound like new and you will be satisfied. Leave orders at the Scandinavian Hotel. Harps will be tuned for 25c. Leave at Hotel.

Here is his certificate from the factory from which he graduated at Drammen, Norway:

This is to certify that Melland has worked in music store for me as a piano tuner for four years. It is a pleasure for me to say that I was exceedingly well satisfied with his work, therefore I gladly recommend him to any who need their pianos tuned.

L. ERICKSON, Drammen, Norway.
