The Independent has been able to learn more concerning the sad drowning of little Lillie, the twenty-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Heinze, who reside about nine miles northeast of this city, a week ago last Wednesday. The little girl was out in the barn yard assisting her mother feed the chickens, and a few moments later was missed. The parents instituted a search and in a shallow water-hole, a short distance away, her little body was found. The wind was blowing very hard and it is believed that she fell into the pond which had but eight inches of water, and was drowned.

Those who noticed J. A. Roell's float in the firemen's parade last week, saw one of the best things ever gotten up in Minot, and which was arranged at a cost of a good many dollars. Across the rear was a display of the celebrated Quick Meal stoves and a line of gasoline stoves. The Lion B and House paint was advertised in a most unique manner, a huge mastiff dog, representing the lion, and a little trainer, being confined in a cage. Corbin locks, sporting goods, Wonder ice cream freezers, and Star Caster wagons were arranged neatly. The float was hauled by four horses.
