The Prescription Store

This store has become known all over the Northwest as Minot's Prescription Drug Store. Our work has been turned out so promptly and at such reasonable prices, that we seldom have to disappoint our customers.

If you live in the city, phone this store; and if it is not convenient for you to call, we will deliver your order free of charge.

The farmer will always find a good line of stock foods, stock dips, etc., and stock remedies that he can rely upon.

Our drugs are not procured in such large quantities that they lose their strength, but we re-order frequently and the patrons are always sure of getting full strength—just what the doctor orders.

We want your business and, if you have not yet tried us, we will both be pleased with a trial.

The case of Geo. W. Swords, Receiver of the Minot National bank vs. E. B. Page, of Leeds, was suddenly concluded at Fargo, when Judge Amidon instructed the jury to render a verdict for the defendant. The plaintiff had rested and the defense had not put on a witness.

Mr. Swords was suing to recover $2500 which was paid to Mr. Page by J. A. Erickson, then president of the bank, for bank stock. Mr. Page claimed that he sold the stock in good faith.
