FRENCH OUT-DO ITALIANS.

That is in respect to producing Olive Oil. Italian Oil is greasy and not much better than lard as far as health properties are counted. French Olive Oil, Beri Brand—particularly is a fine olive color—thin, limpid and of an agreeable taste. It never thickens or becomes rancid and is rich in nutritive properties besides having a particularly rich flavor.

BERI BRAND.

French Olive is the kind doctors prescribe when they want a flesh-producing oil.

C. A. Johnson, republican nominee for Governor of North Dakota, and undoubtedly our next governor, returned Tuesday morning from a two week's tour of the eastern part of the state where he met hundreds of warm supporters everywhere he stopped.

Mr. Johnson will be kept on the move getting over the state between now and election, for he's bound to receive a good safe majority.
