CONTEST NOTICE

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Minot, N. D.

July 8, 1909.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Rose M. Smith contestant, against Homestead Entry No. 34522 Serial No. 06503 made July 10, 1905, for SW 1-4 Section 9, Township 163, Range 94, by Scott E. Smith, contestee, in which it is alleged that said entryman has wholly abandoned said tract of land for a period of more than one year last past and that he has not cultivated or improved said land during said time, and in fact for about three years last past; that during all of said time said land has lived on said land and is the deserted wife of contestee, and has cultivated said land and made her home thereon. Absence not due to military or naval services.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on Sept. 2, 1909, before Robert Field, a notary public at his office in the village of Columbus, Ward Co. N. D. and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on Sept. 9, 1909, before the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office in Minot, North Dakota.

The said contestant having in a proper affidavit, filed July 19, 1909, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

L. D. McGahan, Register.

Good Advice in Banking

can be given by shrewd old business men to their juniors, and the best advice is to bank in an institution which is cautious in its loans and investments. We are known as a very conservative bank and enjoy the implicit confidence of the best commercial men of the community for that very reason. We are anxious to enlarge the list of our depositors and promise you good treatment.
