College of Commerce

We offer the young people of the Northwest an occupation above the sordid drudgeries

"I'm going to do it---to-morrow."

The national word of Spain is "to-morrow"—manana—and Spain is the dearest nation of the world. Let us write on its tombstone the epitaph: "Died of 'manana' and—'cigarettes.'"

It requires an effort of the brain to say: "I will enter a business training school to-day, and improve my condition NOW." If you never had a chance before, you now have opportunity to put on the first and last touch; to go the whole length and breadth of a finished, modern business course.

The difference between the man or woman who makes from three to ten thousand dollars a year and one who makes from three to eight dollars per week is—TRAINING.

At the College of Commerce you will find the best of everything—course of study, teachers, splendid quarters, elegant equipment, electric light, steam heat, thousands of feet of floor space, modern conveniences, etc. We teach actual business from start to finish in all departments. Here you will find new typewriters of the best make (with blank keys for touch typewriting); the neostyle, the dictaphone, Burroughs Adding Machine, etc. We offer five hundred dollars for the name of ONE graduate who did not get a position.

Send for elegant catalogue. It is free.
