THE BOSTON STORE has a note of $1500 which it is compelled to meet by March 1, 1910, and the bank informs us that the money must be paid by that time. Times have been a little slow, Minot has too many clothing stores, and, to use plain English, we must meet this obligation as we will be sadly up against it. To raise this amount, we are willing to sacrifice our stock, and, in fact, this is about the only way that we can succeed in meeting the obligations.

$10,000 stock of Clothing, Furnishings, Shoes, Hats and Caps, Valises, Suit cases and Trunks to be placed on sale at forced sale prices. Buyers never before had so good an opportunity to make their selections from so fine and large a stock of up-to-date merchandise
