Notice of Chattel Mortgage Sale. Whereas, C. Faulhaber, Mortgagor, made, executed and delivered to The Minneapolis Threshing Machine Co., a corporation, Mortgagee, his certain chattel mortgage, dated February 18th, 1908, wherein and whereby said Mortgagor, mortgaged to said Mortgagee, the following described personal property, to-wit: One Minneapolis 35 horsepower traction straw burner single engine, No. 5400, complete with all parts and attachments, one automatic gear oiler, one round steel tank, mounted on rear platform, one headlight, to secure the payment of the sum of thirty one hundred fifty-eight 25-100 dollars, which Mortgage was duly filed in the office of the register of deeds of Ward county, North Dakota, on February 26th, 1908.

And whereas, default has been made in the terms of said mortgage by reason of non-payment and the amount claimed to be due thereon at date of this sale will be thirty-seven hundred sixty-eight and 80/100 dollars.

Now, Therefore, Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of said mortgage and by order of said The Minneapolis Threshing Machine Co., the present owner thereof, I will sell the above described chattels at lot number two (2), block four (4) original townsite of the village of Berthold, County of Ward, State of North Dakota, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., on the 3rd day of June, A. D. 1911.

The Minneapolis Threshing Machine Co., E. F. Ludwigen, Agent. Dated at Minot, Ward county, N. Dak., this 23rd day of May, A. D. 1911. Residence and postoffice address, Minot, N. Dak.

The editor of the White Earth Record should be consistent. He wrote an editorial lambasting the editors for dishing out free advice to the farmers and in the same issue gave the farmers some pointers on growing alfalfa.

Schafer will celebrate the Fourth and among the attractions will be the county commissioners of McKenzie county.

The county commissioners will be in session again June 1.

WILL MAINTAIN OLD HECKER SCHOOL.
Wm. Hecker of Logan called at the Independent Wednesday and informed us that the school board had met last Saturday and decided 2 to 1, to continue the school just east of the old Hecker postoffice. Several years ago an acre of ground and a building were given to the district, to remain the property of the district as long as it was to be used for school purposes. Of late, there has been some contention in the district, some desiring to close up the school.

ATTORNEYS CHANGE OFFICES.

E. R. Sinkler and J. A. Heder, the attorneys, will move from the Arcade block to the offices in the P. P. Lee block, formerly occupied by Ryerson & Nash. The change of location will be made the latter part of the week.

NEW TRUST CO. IS ORGANIZED.

What promises to be one of the strongest institutions in the northwest is organized in Minot. The new corporation will be known as the Bankers Title & Trust company and the main office will be located here.

The capital of the new company will be $100,000 and a general title, bond, insurance and trust business will be transacted. Some of the best known and soundest men in North Dakota will be identified with the institution.

Among the local men in the deal are H. H. Kemper, J. J. Coyle and O. G. Raugust.
