GRAND OPENING SPRING and EASTER SALE

of the Choicest New Spring Merchandise
beginning
SATURDAY, MARCH 22, 1913

Our buyer is just back from the east where he purchased the greatest array of new Spring Coats, Suits, Dresses, Skirts, Waists, Petticoats, Millinery, Corsets, Knit and Muslin Underwear, Hosiery, Belts, Bags, and Veils that were ever brought to Minot. The brand new goods, fresh from the eastern marts, are right at your very door for your most careful scrutinization and all will be placed on sale Saturday at prices that no competitor dares to meet. Our new garments for women and misses are all the very latest styles and shades. You couldn't find more beautiful nor more up-to-date merchandise in the eastern trade centers.

You are most cordially invited to attend our grand Spring and Easter Opening Sale. You'll not be urged to buy, though when you see the countless pretty things we have to offer, you'll be sure to want to.

					Hair goods Less than cost

These are but a few prices, but there are many more bargains not mentioned, because of lack of space.

We have a nice lot of fancy and art goods that will be sold at about 33 cents on the dollar.

There is but a little of the Paul V. McCoy fire-damaged stock left and this will be sold at your own price. It has been moved to the rear of the store. Don't forget to come to the grand opening sale, which starts Saturday, March 22, and ends the following week.
