Miller With Airship Concern.
Shelley B. Miller, a former well-known Minot printer, writes that he has sold his interest in the Westgate, Cal. News as a good profit and is now connected with the Venice Airship Co., with headquarters at Santa Monica, Cal. Shelley doesn't say whether he has developed into an aviator or not, but if this is the case, he'll make a success of the business.

Moved by Com. Sanders, seconded by Com. Huber that the following resolution be adopted. Motion carried.

Resolution.
Whereas, Dudley L. Nash has made application to this board for abatement of the seed lien upon the following described property, to-wit: the North one half of the Northwest quarter, the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section thirty, the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section nineteen in township one hundred fifty-two north of range 84 west, and

Whereas, it appears that C. A. Haskins became the owner of said tract of land by virtue of a sheriff's deed, by the sheriff of Ward County, said deed being filed in the office of the Register of Deeds on the 25th day of November, 1912, said deed being issued pursuant to a certain judgment of mortgage foreclosure entered in the office of the Clerk of the District court in and for Ward county, N. D., on the 5th day of July, 1911 and

Whereas, it appears that the said mortgages so foreclosed were executed and recorded prior to the time that the said law under which said seed was furnished,

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the said seed lien be and is hereby declared not to be a lien or incumbrance upon the tracts of land above described and the Auditor is hereby instructed to make such notation on his records as to indicate that the said seed liens are not liens against the said above described tracts of land, and held only as claims against the party to whom the seed grain was furnished and any property owned by him.

Rejected Citizenship Application.

Judge Burr rejected the application for citizenship of Oscar Kron of Minot, formerly of this city, at Tower Monday. Mr. Kron declared his intention to become a citizen in 1909 at Northfield, Minn., where his parents reside, when as a matter of fact he has been a resident of North Dakota since 1908. Another point raised by Judge Burr was that as Mr. Kron was a resident of Minot he must make application for his citizenship papers in that judicial district. The objections were simply technical, but as the government is very particular on all points it was necessary for Judge Burr to reject the application.

It will be necessary for Mr. Kron to begin over again and it will be at least two years before he can enjoy the privileges of citizenship.

Arthur LeSueur left the city Saturday evening to attend to matters of business elsewhere.
