They would LOAN 25 PER CENT MORE to a man keeping his buildings well painted, besides you preserve them against the weather. Well painted buildings go a long way toward making the farm or home pleasant.

$10.00 to $25.00 will buy enough good paint of us to paint all the buildings on your farm.

Hundreds of land seekers and Settlers are coming into this territory, seeking homes. You can do your part by showing them that you intend to stay by keeping your farm buildings painted. Nothing adds so much to the looks of a community than well painted buildings, no matter how small they are. Now is best season to paint.

We will extend liberal credits on our paints.

FOUR ARE KILLED IN ANARCHISTS' DEN

NEW YORK POLICE BELIEVE BOMB PLANT HAS BEEN DESTROYED.

THINK EXPLOSION ACCIDENTAL

Friends of Victims Charge Murder, However—Much Inflammatory Literature Gives Officers Clue to Work on It

New York, July 7.—In the ruins of the Lexington avenue tenement house, wrecked Saturday by the premature explosion of a powerful bomb which killed Arthur Caron and three other persons, the authorities have found evidence that Caron's apartment was a center for the distribution of inflammatory literature which was printed there and that at the time of the explosion it was apparently a bomb factory, filled with the ingredients of death dealing missiles. A small printing press, revolutionary pamphlets and circulars, an electric dynamo, two electric batteries, cartridges and bits of steel, were among the articles uncovered which tend, in the opinion of the police, to show an anarchistic plot at assassination.

Theory of Police.

That a demonstration, halted by the bungling of some one who was preparing an infernal machine for its mission, was planned against the Rockefeller family in Tarrytown, is the theory upon which the authorities are working.

Two of those killed in the wrecked apartment were prominent agitators who were to be placed on trial at Tarrytown today on charges of disorderly conduct in connection with the campaign of demonstration inaugurated against John D. Rockefeller, Jr., as a protest against his attitude in the Colorado coal mine strike.

The body of the fourth victim of the explosion has just been found. It is that of Chas. Berger, known in I. W. W. circles as "the big Swede," an associate of Caron. The other victims were Chas. Hanson and Mary Clava. The woman lived in an apartment next to the one occupied by Caron and his associates.

Identification of Berger's body was made by Louise Berger, step-sister of Hanson, who lived in the flat where the explosion occurred.

Not An I. W. W.

Equally as interesting as the discovery of anarchistic literature and electrical machinery in the ruins of Caron's room, was the assertion by I. W. W. leaders that Caron was not a member of that organization, having recently been refused admission.

They declared that the I. W. W. had nothing to do with the explosion. Why Caron was denied a place among the workers was a point they did not make clear.

A gruesome but suggestive piece of evidence was a severed hand which clutched two small pieces of wire made ready for connections. The authorities believe that the owner of this hand was in the act of making an electric connection for one of the bombs and a battery when the explosion occurred and he was blown to pieces.

Attack on Christianity.

The search for papers and notes was minute and some note books with the names of several anarchists were found, but the police would not say any of them was important as documentary evidence of a plot. There were also pamphlets which had been sold at I. W. W. meetings. One poem, a vitriolic attack on Christianity is believed to have been on the little press.

Louise Berger declared that the three men who died in the explosion were murdered. She made this statement as she was being taken from the morgue, where she had identified Berg's body, to a police station for further questioning.

"Those boys were murdered. I know they were," she said. Asked if she would continue her membership in the anti-militarist association, she replied:

"Why, of course. Why shouldn't I. Do they think that by killing some of our members they can destroy our organization. Well, they can't, nor will I rest until I have run down the murderers of my brother and the other boys."

$40,000 For Norway Exhibit.

Christiania, Norway, July 7.—The Norwegian parliament voted an appropriation of $27,000 to cover the expenses of the Norwegian official exhibit at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco, and a further $13,500 for the dispatch of a Norwegian cruiser to represent the nation at the opening of the Panama canal.

Normal Temperatures This Week.

Washington, July 7.—Temperatures averaging near normal over the entire country, with local rains fairly well distributed, are forecasted by the weather bureau for this week. "A disturbance that is now over the Northwest," the bulletin adds, "will move slowly eastward, crossing the eastern states about Wednesday, attended by rising temperatures and local showers and thunder storms. This will be followed by a change to cooler weather over the Northern states east of the Rocky mountains."

CRITICISE FUNERAL SEVERELY

COLUMNS GIVEN TO DISCUSSION OF BURIAL OF ROYAL COUPLE.

Smoking and Beer Drinking, It is Alleged, Occurred at Coffins of Austria's Heir—Other Charges.

Vienna, July 7.—Now that the bodies of the assassinated Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife, the Duchess of Hohenberg, repose beneath the castle chapel at Artstetten, a bitter controversy is raging over the manner in which the funeral was conducted. The newspapers are devoting columns to the discussion.

Moderate opinion inclines to the belief that the court officials made the ceremonial too painfully correct, while the friends of the duchess are indignant at the emphasis laid on her inferior birth.

According to reports published in the leading Vienna papers, the reception of the bodies at Poehchiarn, across the Danube, was attended by scandalous proceedings. A violent thunderstorm upset all the pre-arranged ceremony, and the coffins were hurriedly carried to the waiting room of the station, where they were placed on the stone paved floor and remained there two hours or more.

Meanwhile the volunteer firemen, who were supposed to be assisting the local gendarmes in controlling the arrangements, were drinking beer and eating sausages, while the more important persons strolled about smoking cigars in close proximity to the coffin containing the body of the late heir to the throne.

The torrential rain drove everybody into the waiting room, and, says one account, "all the ordinary rules of behavior seemed to have been forgotten, and the scene might be described as resembling the turmoil and noise of a country fair."

The coffins were brought to Poehchiarn in two freight cars coupled together. The interior was draped with black cloth. The personal suite of the archduke and the duchess, exhausted by the fatigue of the three previous days, left the sleeping cars and the clergy in attendance to bless the bodies were kept awaiting their reappearance.

The highest court functionaries are attacked for their part in the conduct of the funeral, and it is said that but for the personal intervention of the emperor the body of the duchess would not have been permitted in the Hofburg chapel, but would have been conveyed alone direct from the Vienna station to Artstetten.

DR. CARMAN SHOT AT THRICE

Physician in Whose Office Woman Was Murdered Tells of Attempt on Life.

Freeport, N. Y., July 7.—Dr. Carman, in whose office Mrs. Louise Bailey was murdered last week, was shot at three times Sunday night as he drove in his automobile through the town of Baldwin, near here. None of the bullets struck him. The doctor was on his way home from Rockville Center, where he had been to attend a patient.

Sufficient evidence has been discovered to warrant the arrest of a woman for the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, according to Sheriff Stephen R. Pettit of Nassau county.

The sheriff refused to disclose the exact nature of this evidence, but announced that the woman would be taken into custody before the end of the week.

Messengers Get Sentences.

Fargo.—The two proprietors and two of the employees of a local messenger service have been sentenced to serve ninety days each in jail for a violation of the prohibition law. Instead of first getting the money, then going to Moorhead for liquor and delivering it to patrons, they would pay for the liquor themselves, deliver and collect. This constituted a sale under the North Dakota laws.

Evidence Not Sufficient.

Dickinson.—Charges brought against the commissioners of Dunn county of irregularities in allowing bills for various services were dismissed by Judge Crawford of the Stark county district court. Judge Crawford holds that proof of alleged irregularities must be unimpeachable and that insufficient evidence had been adduced to warrant the removal of the officials.

Made Deaf By Lightning.

Elgin.—A bolt of lightning which struck George Fiegh, of Miner, this county, robbed him of his hearing, but left him without other injury except burns along his right side. Fiegh was in a field alone. A horse he was leading has been unable to walk since the accident.
