

HOGS WILL BE MONEY MAKERS THIS YEAR

This year more than ever you will want to give your hogs careful attention. Farrowing time is near. Every little pig that you raise to market age means a nice bunch of money. Every one that you lose means a serious loss of profit. Prices this year are very likely to be stiff. Get ready now to reap 100% from your Spring crop of hogs.

A well built, modern and sanitary hog house. It WILL help you to make good this year and for years to come.

See us at once about plans and material.

SPECIAL. Make this year a money producer for you in another way—save on your fence expense for future years by using American Steel posts and Royal Woven wire fence on all your fencing.

This ALL STEEL fence is PERMANENT. You can't burn it, it won't rust or rot AND the posts ground lightning making it very valuable and important live stock insurance.

See this all steel fence at once.

We have a complete stock.

west, arrived to testify in the case of James Kennedy vs. the City of Minot. Mr. Severance is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Severance.

Mrs. W. W. Winter, of Minneapolis, visited old Minot friends last week. Her husband, who is auditor for the Western Express Co., joined her here Sunday.

Fred Spath, a former city commissioner, arrived from Minneapolis last week to visit old friends.

Dennis Carty, who homesteaded in Tarning township years ago, died recently at his old home in Virginia. He was an old time sailor and an interesting character.

R. W. Thorpe is now located at Crosby, where he has charge of ten yards for the Rogers Lumber Co. in that section of the state.

J. B. Cashman of Foxholm was in the city Saturday. He recently returned from Eden Valley, Minn., where his father has been very ill of pneumonia and dropsy.

A. O. Norgard, secretary, J. L. Williams, manager, and James Johnson, president of the Hartland Farmers' Elevator, attended the meeting of the grain dealers of the state in this city last week.

Among those attending the meeting of the grain dealers last week, we noticed H. C. Remington of Granville, Prof. Toole of Ray and John and Fred Topp, of Grace City.

Call at the Scofield Implement Co. and see the Cushman binder engine and the Western Electric Co. farm light plants, as well as the Curtis auto trailer. For prices, write of phone Bert Buel, Minot, N. D.

A winsome daughter was born to Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Pence on "St. Patrick's Day in the Mornin'." The doctor wore an immense Shamrock during the day and if he exceeded the speed limit twenty or thirty miles an hour, this should be overlooked.

Paul C. Evans, who recently arrived from Marshall, Mo., was in from his Tarning township farm Saturday for lumber for a good-sized barn. He has already invested in a number of choice milk cows, brood mare and registered Duroc Jersey hogs and will go into farming right.

The North Dakota tax commission now consists of H. H. Steele, F. E. Packard and Mr. Wallace. It appears that but $3,000 has been appropriated for salary, anticipating the passage of the one man bill, and this will hardly be ample to pay for the services of all the members.

Bert Rygmyr of Drady, one of our popular farmers, returned from Forest City, Ia., where he spent the winter at his old home. He reports a cold, stormy winter there and is glad to get back to sunny North Dakota.

James Eide of Vang township, proprietor of the Springdale Farm, is transacting business in Minot.

J. S. Wallace, the Burlington coal baron, graced the Heavenly City with his presence Friday. The Judge declares that Burlington will most certainly have electric lights as Manager McGuire of the Consumers Power Co was in Chicago at the time getting specifications, and even should this concern overlook the golden opportunity, J. S. will install the system himself.

The E. G. Kivley sale held southwest of Minot Tuesday was attended by an immense crowd. This was one of the most successful sales ever held in this vicinity. A mare sold for $202.50. Cows brot up to $80 and hogs from $15 to $18. Machinery sold well and chickens brot 75 cents each. A Minot man drove out with a wagon load of coops, but came home as he went out.

A man who believes in the old saying, "See a pin and pick it up, and all the day you'll have good luck," saw a pin in front of the postoffice the other day. Bending down to get it, his hat tumbled off and rolled into the gutter, his eyeglasses fell and broke on the pavement, his suspenders gave way, he bursted the buttonhole on the back of his shirt collar, and he all but lost his new front teeth. But he got the pin.

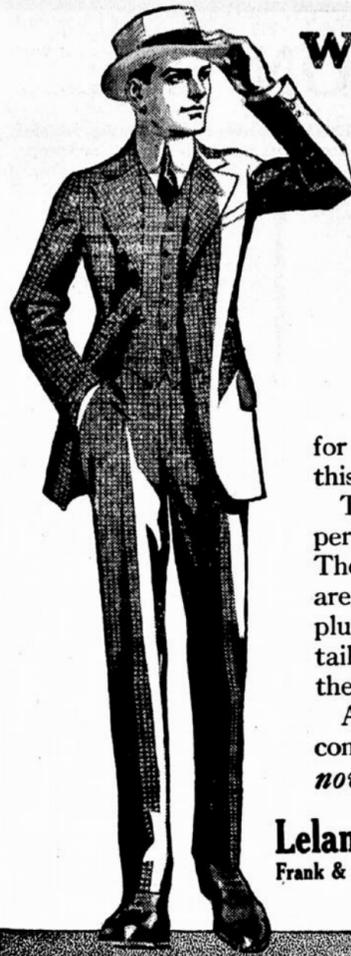

A regular meeting of Marguerite Local of the Socialist party was held March 10th at the Marguerite Township Hall. Cake, sandwiches and coffee were served. Recitations, readings, party business and social conversation.

Geo. Pritchett of Foxholm was in the city Wednesday. George and his son raised 5,000 bushels of wheat last year and they have just sold the last for $140 per bushel. George cleaned up a lot of money last year.

H. L. Glazier, the "merchant prince" from Makoti, transacted business in Minot Wednesday. Mr. Glazier is preparing to go into the dairying business extensively and is in the market for some full blooded cattle.

E. S. Severance, formerly city engineer of Minot, who now lives in the

Local News

Geo. W. Wilson, the "father" of Stanley, greeted old friends in the city Tuesday.

A large number of members of the local Rebekah organization went to Velva Tuesday where a big meeting was held.

Miss Ethel Atwood left Wednesday for Minneapolis, where she is visiting relatives. She will visit at her old home, Jamestown, on her return.

R. Gilbertson and three other Glenburnites motored over Tuesday and went to Bowbells that night to attend the big Masonic gathering.

Rev. N. Nilsen has returned from a visit to the Twin Cities and Duluth. He reports a great deal of snow there yet. He leaves for Montana this week.

A daughter was born to Mrs. Chris Berget recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hammer in Tarning township. Mr. Berget, the father, is sojourning in Canada.

C. P. Lee and family, formerly of Minot, now of Bellingham, Wash., registered at the North Dakota building at the exposition in San Francisco, according to a report from W. E. Holbein.

E. B. McCutcheon, chief game warden of this state, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. McCutcheon is always on the job and knows more about the game laws than any other man in the state.—Larimore Pioneer.

He says money is plentiful in the west, the California people not knowing the worth of a dollar. They don't have to provide for winter, besides many wealthy people from all over the world locate there.

He says that F. J. Lyman is building a fine home at Berkeley, where Margaret is attending school. Mr. Lyman has a real estate office in San Francisco. At San Diego, he called on F. E. Graves, who is making a mint of money. He called on Dr. E. A. Crotok in San Diego, but the doctor was out. Mr. Champlin's son Walter and Verne Moon are attending college in Berkeley and are doing well.

"Champ" likes California and it would not be surprising if he'd locate there within a few years.
