Paints as He Receives Sentence.

J. S. Dixon, the Foxholm dynamo thief, who was found guilty, received a sentence of 2 years and 6 months at the penitentiary at hard labor. Dixon is 38 years old, has a wife and two small children, and a mother who lives at Bismarck, all of whom he has been supporting. Dixon appeared before the Judge broken heartedly, and wept like a child. As he was led away by deputies he fell to the floor in a faint. He still insists that he is not guilty.

declaring that he bot the dynamo from a stranger, who cannot be located.

 FRANK W. YOUNGMAN LAND CO.'S AD. 5.—We are going to do a large business this year and we want to list 40 farms in various parts of the Mouse River Valley, in different directions from Minot, and we will come pretty nearly selling them for you this year. From the letters we are receiving, there is no doubt but there will be a big rush for Mouse River Valley farms. Our splendid spring-like climate would be a great inducement for the eastern buyers to come here now, if they only knew it. The eastern buyer does not realize that the Mouse River Valley climate this year has been more like the Blue Grass regions of Kentucky, but it is, nevertheless.

See the Frank W. Youngman Land Co.
