Toftner Takes Charge April 1.
 O. L. Toftner, who will become Kenmare's postmaster April 1, is in the city today. Mr. Toftner's appointment has been confirmed by the senate. He could have taken charge of the office March 1, but he wants the office checked up before he assumes the responsibility. The present incumbent, Mr. Childs, has been in charge five years, and he has given excellent service. Owing to the fight for the place, he was able to hold the office a year longer than his term.

Farewell Reception for the Teigans.
 H. G. Teigan, who has edited the Iconoclast for several years, will go to Fargo next week, where he has accepted a similar position with the Non-Partisan Leader. A farewell reception was given for Mr. and Mrs. Teigan Tuesday night, nearly a hundred of their friends gathering. The ladies served a splendid repast. Mr. and Mrs. Teigan were presented a beautiful electric lamp.

Franklyn Grocery Store Burned.
 The Franklyn Meat and Grocery Store, owned by W. D. Campbell, was a complete loss by fire, which started at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning from the furnace. The loss to the stock, which was complete, amounted to $2,500, covered by insurance. The building, owned by T. O. Lee, is a fifty per cent loss. It will be rebuilt at once and Mr. Campbell, who has done a fine business, will soon resume operations.

PRINTER LOST LIFE THRU ACCIDENT.
 Jos. Gault, a Munich printer, who suffered an injury to a crippled leg Monday, died from the loss of blood before a physician could arrive. The Munich physician decided that an operation was necessary and started for Grand Forks with the man, but he died on the train just out of Brocket. Gault was about 30 years of age and single. He had been working on the Munich Herald. His mother resides at Bowbells.

Ski Tournament March 10.
 The Minot Ski Club will hold its first annual tournament in the hills northwest of the Normal school, Friday, March 10. Martin Aakrann, who has charge of the tournament, says there is plenty of snow to insure a fine lot of sport and he says there will be many of the best ski jumpers from the National clubs participating. The tournament will start at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. An admission of 50 cents will be charged.

Farm Sale Broke Big Prices.
 The first sale of the season was held at the Gunder Kivley farm near Burlington Wednesday. Col. H. J. Hecht was at his best and while the thermometer stood at 20 below in the morning, the crowd was large. A two-year-old filly sold for $225 and one a year old brot $145. Machinery and cattle sold well. High prices prevailed thruout the sale.

1150 Call at General Delivery Window Daily.
 E. H. Stenvick, Minot's postmaster, reports that during a recent count lasting several days, 150 calls at the general delivery window. At the same time, a count was made in St. Paul, and but 1250 called at the general delivery window at the St. Paul office. There are hundreds of transients in Minot daily. We doubt if the average number of calls at the general delivery windows of the Grand Forks and Fargo postoffices will total 400.
