NORMAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Undoubtedly one of the strongest numbers on the Normal school Lyceum course for the year will be that given by Henry Lawrence Southwick, President of the Emerson School of Oratory, on Wednesday evening, May 24, in the Normal school gymnasium. He will give readings from Shakespeare in which he is so excellently versed. He has repeatedly made good the following claims:

His personality instantly commands the interest of an audience.

He is a man of broad culture.

He has won enviable reputation as a reader, especially in the interpretation of Shakespeare.

His work possesses the attractiveness and force that with the public, together with the literary finish and artistic beauty which command the praise of scholars and thinkers.

Wherever Mr. Southwick has appeared, the press is eulogistic of his presentations.

Minneapolis Journal: As a Shakesperian reader, Mr. Southwick is without a peer.

Toledo News: A beautiful piece of character work.

Toronto Mail: Fine literary discernment and rare eloquence of expression.

Brooklyn Eagle: Mr. Southwick is a speaker of marked literary talents as well as of dramatic powers far above the average witnessed on the stage.

Admission 50 and 25 cents.

Mrs. A. G. Crane and Miss Elsie J. Cook left Tuesday for Dickinson, where they represent the local P. E. O. chapter at the State P. E. O. convention, held this week. An interesting program has been arranged of speakers from various parts of the state, including the National President, Mrs. Helen M. Deake of Kansas City. Miss Cook has charge of the Memorial Hour, and responds to a toast at the banquet held Thursday evening. Mrs. Crane gives a talk on "Who Make Good P. E. O. Members" and will read a poem by Miss Winsted entitled "The Deluge," which was requested by the State President, Dr. Alice Conger Hunter of Dickinson.

On Thursday of this week President Crane addresses the District Federation of Women's Clubs in session at Crosby. His topic is "What Needs Doing."

Weather permitting, a campus festival will be held by the Normal school students on Friday evening of this week. The different classes are rivaling one another in the preparation of most wonderful stunts for that occasion. The young men are registered for a week's course in cooking to insure no serious results from their special responsibilities on Friday evening.

PASS THE APPLES.

(By a Norwich Subscriber.)

When every pool in Eden was a mirror
That unto Eve her dainty charms proclaimed,
She went undraped without a single fear or—
Thot that she had need to be ashamed.

'Twas only when she'd eaten of the apple
That she became inclined to be a prude,
And found that evermore she'd have to grapple
With the much-debated problem of the nude.

Thereafter she devoted her attention,
Her time and all her money to her clothes.
And that was the beginning of Convention,
And modesty, as well, I suppose.

Reaction's come about in fashions, recent,
Now girls conceal so little from the men,
It would seem, in the name of all that's decent,
Someone ought to pass the apples
'round again.
