PRETTY DOUBLE WEDDING AT ST. LEO'S CHURCH

Mr. Linnertz and Miss Gilmore and
Mr. Frost and Miss Linnertz Pledge
Their Vows.

The double wedding of Christoph W. Linnertz to Miss Rita Gilmore, and Henry Robert Frost to Miss Frances Margaret Linnertz occurred at St. Leo's church at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning in the presence of a crowd of friends and relatives, so large that the church was filled. The affair was one of the prettiest and most impressive events of its kind ever held in the city.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the bridal procession began, preceded by two little flower girls, Alice Linnertz, of St. Henry, and Evelina Frost, followed by the brides and their bridesmaids, all gowned beautifully in white. They marched to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Kathryn Baker, who played soft music throughout the ceremony.

At the Sanctuary gate, the bridal party was met by the grooms and their attendants, who led them to the altar. Father Jos. Raith, who performed the ceremony, accompanied by the Acolytes, proceeded to the altar at the same time.

Mr. Linnertz and Miss Gilmore were married first, then stepping aside, the other couple, Mr. Frost and Miss Linnertz, exchanged vows. The impressive ring service was used, and at its conclusion, Father Raith, who has been pastor of St. Leo's church for sixteen years, spoke in the highest praise of the young couples, admonishing them to remain true to their vows.

During the Nuptial Mass, the male choir rendered Mattland's Celebrated Mass and during the Offertory J. T. Quigley sang Millard's Ave Maria. Solos during Mass were sung by J. A. Roell and Fred Jewett. As the bridal procession proceeded out of the church, Mrs. Baker played Lohengrin's Processional and at the church entrance, the couples were met by hundreds of their friends who offered congratulations and best wishes.

The brides were gowned becomingly in white and carried shower bouquets of bridal roses. The bridesmaids wore white gowns and carried bouquets of Marguerites.

Miss Gilmore's bridesmaids were Miss Agnes Catherine Linnertz and Miss Rose Nadine Gilmore and Mr. Linnertz' attendants were Joseph Leo Linnertz and Donald R. Gilmore.

Miss Linnertz' bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Linnertz and Miss Mary Anna Frost and Mr. Frost's attendants were William A. Frost and Geo. Barr Frost.

After the ceremony, the contracting parties partook of a wedding collation at the home of Mrs. Baker.

A whole concourse of the relatives and friends then assembled at the Jos. Linnertz farm, northwest of the city, where a wedding feast, fit for a king was enjoyed. Nearly a hundred assembled here and covers were laid for thirty at a time, the feast lasting from 1:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon. The couples had received a vast number of costly presents and these were on display at the Linnertz home. In the evening about 50 couples assembled at the Elks Home in this city, where they enjoyed a splendid time in dancing and social intercourse.

Mr. Linnertz, one of the grooms, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Linnertz, highly respected farmers living northwest of the city. He has resided here since boyhood and is a young man of the very highest character. His bride, Miss Rita Gilmore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Gilmore. She was employed in the Independent office for five years, and the editor wants to take this opportunity to state that a finer little lady never lived. The happy couple will occupy their farm northwest of the city.

Mr. Frost, the other groom, is a son of Jacob Frost, a progressive farmer residing south of the city. He has also lived in this vicinity for years and is regarded very highly by all. His bride, Miss Linnertz, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Linnertz, who has won a host of friends by her charming disposition. The Independent joins a host of friends in extending its very best wishes to these worthy couples.

Your Signature a Protection

At the time you make your first deposit in the Second National Bank we take your signature on a card which we keep on file for reference and comparison, with the signatures on the checks for you.

Your signature in our possession is a protection against forgery, not alone on your checks but on notes or any other instrument which might be offered to us for discount or sale.

Every person has some marked peculiarity in their signature that makes correct imitation almost impossible, so we ask customers to sign the card we keep, in the same manner they usually write their initials and name on their checks.

This is but one of the many little services we render our customers but it is a big factor in preventing forgeries and other frauds by smooth criminals.
