Columbia
Grafonola
and Columbia Records

The Common-sense Way to Buy a Phonograph

First, drop into our store and learn to play the Columbia Grafonola. Hear it play the kind of music you like best. Select the style and price of instrument that suits you best.

Since the phonograph is to be in your house and your eyes will see it for many years and your ears will hear the songs and music it plays, doesn't plain common sense tell you that the way to buy a phonograph is to have a Columbia Grafonola sent home for a complete trial, you to decide then whether or not you want to keep it? Suitable arrangements made for payments.

MINOT and VICINITY

Mrs. T. E. Wiebe of Calgary is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. F. L. Meservey is visiting with a sister at White Bear, Wis.

John Sanden the Aurelia merchant, was a business visitor to the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Spillane and son, are spending a few weeks visiting at the home of Mrs. Spillane's parents, who reside at Britton, S. D.

Billy Mitts of Wildrose is in the city today having come down for a glimpse of the speeders and to read up on the latest ordinances made and provided.

John Ward, manager of the Firestone Tire Co.'s branch at this point returned Sunday from a business trip to the Twin Cities where he conferred with representatives of his concern which has its head offices and factory at Akron, Ohio.

J. M. Rohe of Kenmare, former county commissioner, representing the Austin-Western Road Machinery Co., has been in the city this week. Mr. Rohe recently sold the city of Minot a scarifier to be used in putting the graveled streets in shape and will give a demonstration of the work this week.

When friends observed the peculiar antics of Earl Walker, truck driver for the J. B. Reed Transfer Co. this week they were inclined to ask the court to take steps looking to his welfare. However, the facts have come to light. It's an eight and one-half pound daughter which was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walker, 617 2nd Ave. N. E., Wednesday morning, which has been responsible for the way Earl has been cutting corners on high and dodging the auto cops recently.

Mrs. Hans Hanson is spending the week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ike Malden at Ross. Mrs. Hanson is now grandma, and of course, must needs spend a few weeks with her little grand daughter, who arrived to gladden the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Malden, May 8. During Mrs. Hanson's absence Hans says that he retires with the sun set and starts frying flap jacks just as the sun peers over the eastern horizon every morning.

The Minot Cloak and Suit Co. have inaugurated a gigantic Remodeling Sale beginning today. Manager Flaten says that practically every article in the shape of ready-to-wear as well as much other desirable merchandise will be sold at a sacrifice to clear the way for the installation of a complete set of handsome new fixtures which have arrived from St. Paul. The Minot Cloak and Suit will present an entirely different appearance when these are placed making this one of the handsomest establishments on Main street.

F. G. Schmidt, brother of Henry Schmidt, the Donnybrook merchant, was a visitor to the city today. Mr. Schmidt is on his way to Donnybrook for a visit with his brother, whom he hasn't seen for about two years. He was a member of a Bismarck company and was wounded in the big German drive in June '17. He was brot back to the states arriving last November, but his wounds necessitated his remaining in the hospital until within the past few days. Shrapnel struck him in the shoulder and cut several ugly gashes in his hand crippling that member to such an extent that in all probability the hand and possibly the entire arm will be useless for life. Fred is small but we'll bet our last dollar that if he had half a chance the Heinies paid dearly for the wounds they inflicted upon this dough boy.

Mrs. W. W. Tyler and children arrived from Minneapolis last week and are occupying their home on the South Hill.

Martin J. Engeseth disposed of his fine residence on Second street southeast to Mr. Alstgag for $9,000. Mr. Engeseth recently built a fine residence in Eastwood Park which he now occupies.

A. L. Westernhagen, manager of the Western Newspaper Union at Fargo, will take charge of the St. Paul office of that concern, filling the vacancy left by the recent death of Frank D. Meist.

O. J. Mortenson, former Sawyer banker, was in Minot on business Saturday. He is now secretary of the Moorhead, Minn., Realty Co.

Stavanger Laget Reunion July 9-11. The Stavanger Laget of North Dakota will hold a big reunion in Minot July 9, 10 and 11. It is estimated that from 1200 to 1500 visitors will gather here. This is an annual reunion of former residents of Norway who came from one locality there. The arrangements for the reunion are in the hands of O. B. Herigstad and John J. Lee.

FOR SALE—House and lot at Surrey, lot 50x150. Six room house, story and half high will be sold separately if desired. A bargain for someone. Inquire of Banker Young of Surrey or telephone No. 268 Red, after 7 P. M. 5-15f
