

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

(Crowded out of last week's issue.)

Geo. W. Kemper went to Bowbells on business Wednesday.

Frank Examiner Johannsen was in the city several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Einar Madson of Burlington were in the city Wednesday.

Henry Schmidt, prominent Donnybrook business man was a visitor to the city today.

Theo. Jans, one time owner of the St. Paul hotel at Mohall, died recently in St. Paul.

Mrs. Fred McGarry, well known resident of Willow City, died in a Rugsby hospital.

The Caledonian Society of Bottineau county will hold their annual picnic at Omamee, June 15.

Olaf Ribb, former manager of the Farmers Press of this city, has returned to take his old position.

Mayor Spaulding of Sherwood is looking for a man who will accept the job as street commissioner.

Mrs. Moody Eide, who has been precariously ill, following the birth of a babe, is reported as improving.

R. M. Graham addressed the Inquisitors at their monthly dinner at the U. S. Cafe Wednesday evening.

Mrs. W. N. Fahy, who resides near Minot, is reported quite ill at the home of her son, on Sixth avenue N. E.

The fire department was called to the Mark Chatfield home Friday by fire starting in some rubbish near the barn.

G. S. Webster, former cashier of a Watford City bank, accompanied by his wife, arrived for a visit with his mother.

Miss Della Hadler submitted to an operation for mastoiditis at St. Joseph's hospital Saturday and is recovering nicely.

Eleven of the eighteen officers of the State Training school at Mandan quit their jobs when Supt. Devine was removed by the board.

J. H. Lewis, who takes much pride in his lawn and flower garden, is planting 1300 gladiola bulbs, some of them of the very rare varieties.

Matt Evenson and D. R. Jacobson hauled a new scow out to Rice Lake Sunday. They report the lake full of perch. The fishing season opens May 15th.

Norman Ellison has been elected president of the Minot Gun Club. C. H. Parker is vice president; Dr. De Mott, treasurer and Dr. J. R. Pence, secretary.

Rev. C. J. Tingley, secretary of the Minot Normal, has resigned to accept better paying state work with the Baptist church. The board has a new man in view.

Parts of Joe Rowan's auto stolen when the machine became stalled near Minot April 17, have been recovered and men believed to be implicated in the theft are under arrest.

Messrs. D. R. Jacobson, Peter Fugelson and Matt Evenson drove to Crosby Tuesday on business connected with the Crosby Hardware Co., in which these gentlemen are interested.

Mrs. H. M. Erenfeld who has been visiting her son, Fred, a student at the University of Wisconsin, at Madison, returned Friday from a four weeks' visit at Madison and Minneapolis.

The Bismarck Town Criers with auspicious ceremonies, burned the town "knocker" and exhibited the ashes in a store window. They treated him more cruelly than the Minot Criers did Old Man Gloom.

Perry Hodge, old time Minot citizen, will soon give up his position as manager of the farmers' elevator at Borden, N. D., and will spend the summer at Potato Lake, Park Rapids, Minn., in hopes of regaining his health.

Sheriff Seefeld and deputies in a raid Wednesday night, located 20 quarts of Green River whiskey at the Zimmerman home, 403 Third St. S. W. The whiskey was found in a garret and turned over to State's Atty. Herigstad.

A man giving his name as H. A. Hurd, was arrested at midnight Wednesday night in Eastwood Park, while working on some tires of an auto in the street. He was held when he failed to explain how he came in possession of the machine.

A number of boys were up on the carpet before the police department Wednesday evening, for helping themselves to candy at the Larson candy factory. They have been turned over to the mercy of their dads but next time they will get the limit.

Mrs. C. E. Calkins has returned from Hibbing, Minn., where she was called by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Petras, who submitted to an operation. Mrs. Petras was reported as recovering nicely at the time Mrs. Calkins returned.

Miss Evelyn Dodge, one of the young lady barbers from the Waverly shop who has been confined to a local hospital for the past four weeks left for Minneapolis Sunday where she will remain for several weeks during her convalescence.

Cook Robinson, Velva garage man, was in the city on business Tuesday. Mr. Robinson was formerly in the banking business at Foxholm, later conducting a garage at Sawyer. He is an enthusiastic good roads advocate and general all-around booster in community affairs.

A meeting was held at the Elks Home Monday evening by quite a number of citizens who are interested in forming a vigilance committee to cope with auto thieves. Just what was done has not been made public but it is said that a good organization was perfected.

Miss Doris Kemper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kemper, has returned from California, where she spent the past two years. Miss Kemper, who is a very accomplished reader, appeared on chautauqua platforms en route east. She spent most of her time while in California in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henderson, Seventh avenue N. E., are rejoiced at the arrival of a nine pound baby daughter, born Thursday of last week. Patrons of the Minot Drug have perhaps noticed the smile "Bill" is wearing these days as he hands out Perfectos to his friends as they inquire regarding the young lady's health.

H. C. Johnson of Vancouver, B. C., formerly a well known barber of the city has returned and taken a position in the Frank Rose barber shop in the Grams block. Mr. Johnson is well known in this vicinity having relatives living east of town and will be glad to welcome his old time friends at the shop where he is now employed.

There is blood on the moon! Somebody who objected to Geo. Bugenhagen's chauticleer waking them up mornings, took a pot shot at the rooster and crippled him on the leg. Geo. is working on a patent wooden leg for said rooster, and has spent some time thinking out some instrument of torture for the fellow who did the dirty trick.

E. Johnson, who for the past two years has been connected with the Benson Optical Co. of Minneapolis, has accepted a position with the H. L. Winters Co., assuming the duties of his new position Thursday. A. E. Cannon of Fargo who has been in charge of the optical department resigned to go into business for himself at the latter city.

Mark Chatfield's Dodge car was stolen a second time this season. It was taken Saturday night from beside his house. Police tracked the car west from the Normal school where the car was found. A. J. Valkman of Burlington reported that he saw a fellow jump out of the car and run towards the hills. The gasoline tank had become empty.

POISONED OATS — Government formula, 20 cents per pound. Simons Seed Co., Minot, N. D. 5/12-1f

"You may be Sure" says the Good Judge

That you are getting full value for your money when you use this class of tobacco.

The good, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often—nor do you need so big a chew as you did with the ordinary kind.

Any man who has used the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Put up in two styles

W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco
RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco

Williston holds the record for this state at any rate, of having the first city engineer and Minot the first woman city auditor; but to Rolla, in Rollette county, goes the credit for the first woman justice of the peace, and who has the distinction of having performed a marriage ceremony. She is Miss Sigma Olatson, born in Iceland, the first country to grant woman suffrage. She is a law student and expects to be admitted to the practice of law in another year.

A young Rumanian called at the police station Sunday morning and asked Capt. Brown for a meal ticket. The Captain gave him money for breakfast and promised to find him a job on the farm.
