

LOCAL NEWS

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Diamond rings, real sparklers, for $25.00 at H. Huesgen's.

S. H. Wilson of Botineau is in the city today.

Earl Duell spent Sunday at Minne- waukan visiting friends.

Frank Ludwig has accepted a position as clerk in Sheldon's store.

Mr. Gyer of Hansboro was in the city today on his return from Minot.

Charles Turner, Jr., returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in Min- neapolis.

Tom Kelly left Sunday for Minne- apolis, where he will make a short vis- it.

Harvey Copeland has arrived in the city and will resume his studies in the high school.

Charles A. Potter of Starkweather is spending the day in the city on a busi- ness mission.

D. W. McCanna of Cando is here to- day looking after business matters and visiting friends.

Attorney William Bateson of Rolla is spending the day in the city attending to business matters.

George Melchior is spending the day in the city arriving from Stark- weather this morning.

John Jorgenson of Fort Totten was a Sunday visitor in the city, returning to the Fort this morning.

Dan and Frank Daley are in town from the Daley farm near Lakota where they have been spending the summer.

The Eastern Star will begin the regu- lar winter meetings this evening and a very successful season is looked for- ward to. At the meeting this evening Mrs. Mitchell will enter upon her duties as worthy matron. Other features planned for the opening of the ses- sion, which it is expected will be largely attended.

Last week forty permits were issued on application from Cray and twenty- three more applications were pre- sented by Frank Rutton, which give pre- vision that the Cray residents are look- ing forward to the opening of the ses- sion. Over five hundred permits have been issued thus far at the county audi- tor's office.

Prof. E. T. Clark of the manual train- ing department, who has not arrived at the opening of school windows, has been delayed in his long automobile tour Prof. McArthur, the science teacher from Ohio, has been delayed a week due to sickness and will not be here to enter upon his duties until next week. Dr. instructor in this department, Mr. McArthur is also athletic director and will coach the football team.

The York Dispatch, which was start- ed by A. P. Blodde of The World, has been sold to Otto Boise, formerly of the Inter-Ocean. Mr. Boise is an ex- periented printer and has started with a swing that denotes him to be a true newspaper man.

A large number of the local nimrods were in the fields Sunday with their dogs and report a large amount of chickens. Wednesday night will un- doubtedly see a general exodus from the city to the fields and early Thurs- day the annual lead supply will be pumped into the broad acres of North Dakota. It is probable that next Sun- day every person who owns a gun in the city and all those who have the re- quired amount of cash to rent one of the nerve to borrow one will be out after the birds.

Agent P. C. Keavany of the Great Northern is the proud father of a baby girl born Sunday at the home on Eighth street. Mrs. Keavany is doing well.

Frank McGurran, the popular Churches Ferry druggist, will be arriving in the city last evening to visit with his brother, Dr. McGurran.

The sad news of the critical condi- tion of Mrs. Cadigan, hope of her re- covery being given up, reached here this morning in a telegram received by Willis McRedmond from Mrs. Redmond, in which she says the Boston specialist have given up hope of her mother's re- covery.

Gordon Stewart of Mayville was in town Sunday the guest of Dr. Harry Hocking. Mr. Stewart was returning from Minot where he registered for land.

Word received from Dr. and Mrs. Hocking, who are making a trip by auto through the state, locates them near Bismarck. They are having a splendid time and expect to be gone about a week longer.

Attorney F. T. Outhbert left today for Minneapaukan where he will appear to defend Angulas, the Greek accused of assault with a dangerous weapon, with intent to kill. Mike Burke, the victim, is confined to the Central hospi- tal here. Dr. McIntosh, who attended Mr. Burke left today for Minneapaukan as a witness.

Game Warden Duis of this district was out after "sooners" yesterday and succeeded in landing three violators about ten miles northwest of the city. The fellows who could not wait a couple of days longer were Harry Miller and Swen and Joe Johnson. Mr. Duis returned with their guns and three ducks that is conclusive evidence that the law was violated.

Mrs. H. W. Nash of Webster was in the city yesterday on business.

Willard Greenleaf and Henry Sten- son spent Sunday in Minot visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Engelhorn of Churches Ferry were Sunday visitors in this city.

Misses Clara, Place and Charlotte came in yesterday from the country to attend high school.

Miss Dorothy Klingel has arrived in the city to take up her studies in the schools of this city.

Miss Clara Hodgson left yesterday for Starkweather where she will teach school for the coming year.

The little daughter of Peter Kett- wig was taken to the hospital Sunday suffering from typhoid fever. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snore of Minneapaukan will be pleased to hear of the arrival of a son at 2 o'clock Sunday for six of Mr. A. R. Faust's gentlemen friends.

An elaborate course dinner was serv- ed at 2 o'clock Sunday for six of Mr. A. R. Faust's gentlemen friends.

The guests answered to the name of The- kio, Nokomus, Warwick, Waukan, Big Sioux and Rain in the Face.

Miss Minnie Jacobson left Saturday for Northwood where she has accepted a position to teach in the city schools.

Miss Wehe, sister of Attorney L. J. Wehe of this city, will have charge of a portion of the grade work at Munich this coming year.

Miss Kathleen Anderson has returned from a few days visit with relatives in Cray.

Miss Annie Keogh, who has been visit- ing her sister in this city for the past few months returned to her home in Grand Forks today.

The best alarm clocks for $1.50 at H. Huesgen's.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker and children have moved to this city from Warwick and have rented the T. J. Shelver resi- dence for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Webster and sons have moved to town from Webster, so that their oldest son, Lyle, will be able to attend the city schools.

Miss Lottie Schulstad of Reynolds passed through the city yesterday on her way to Rock Lake, where she will teach school the coming year.

Miss Florence Robertson left yester- day for Omece, where she has accept- ed a position to teach in the primary department of the city schools.

Little Miss Elma Wickum, who has been confined at the Mercy hospital for the last few weeks with typhoid fever, was able to leave the institution Sun- day very much improved.

Miss Mary Dion is in town from Grand Harbor spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Maxson.

Miss Verna May Ruthruff of Winni- peg arrived Saturday evening and will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. Wil- mams. She will assist in the Winans millinery store.

Miss Mildred Holmes has resigned her position with the Ramsey County Abstract Co., and expects to leave shortly for Grand Forks where she will attend the "U."

C. T. Swenson of Cray is spending friends.

Word has been received that Marion Small, formerly in the newspaper busi- ness in this city, is to be married to- day in Judith Gap, Mont., to Miss Har- riet O'Day of that place.

Miss Margorie Dahl has resigned her position in the 5 and 10 Cent store and has accepted a position as bookkeeper for the Chambers Dry Line. The former bookkeeper, Miss Emma Caddigan, resigned her position to resume her studies in school.

The "500" Club were entertained Saturday evening by Mrs. Henry Hale. The party was in the form of a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller, who leave in a short time for Kansas, where they will make their future home. After a pleasant evening spent at cards a cut glass vase was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Miller as a token of the esteem in which they are held by the members of the club. A dainty lunch was served before the guests departed.

Miss Helen Prindle is at home again after her summer travels in Eur- ope after her summer travels in Eur- ope after her summer travels in Eur- ope.

Two non-resident permits were is- sued today by County Auditor Bice, John Boyce and John Beckwith both of Minneapolis, making application to enter in the city. These gentlemen plan to remain in this section employ- ing the sport most of the season and were perfectly willing to pay the $25 re- quired for a non-resident permit. These are the only non-resident permits is- sued. They are secured from No. 1 and Mr. Beckwith No. 2.

Deviis Lake is sending its young people off to the various schools of the east and west and it is interesting to note that the majority of them are coming to Grand Forks. Misses Olga and Edna are spending the summer at their second year at the university; Miss Mildred Holmes comes back to the same institution and will bring her brother, Ray, to enter as a freshman; Dan Prosser and Howard Maher re- turn from John Storman and will be new students from the University of Min- nesota; Miss Myrtle Kennedy has already arrived at Grand Forks and will study at St. Bernard's academy;—Grand Forks Times.

"I just returned from Dickinson to permanently establish my business here in Fargo," said D. E. Crowley, a For- um representative at the Gardner hotel last evening. "I haven't yet gotten located in a business room but I hope to be on N. P. avenue some- where down in the automobile dis- trict and may be located near the Cal- mers place of business."

Mr. and Mrs. Crowley were former residents of Fargo and are well known here. Their many friends will gladly welcome them back to the city as they regretted to see them leave several years ago when they went to the Forum representative at the Gardner hotel last evening. Mr. Crowley went into the drug business there. Mr. Crowley will be the North Dakota manager of the Britton Auto Tire Cover Co., of Chicago, formerly manufactured at Brook- ings, S. D.—Fargo Forum.

Larimore is doing things them- selves proud in paying tribute to Sep- tember's fair bride, Miss Lottie Tib- bals of this city who was once a popu- lar Larimore girl. This afternoon Mrs. Owen E. Ashbrooke, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. Thoma Gasiga and Mrs. Emma Eastgate gave an afternoon at Mrs. Jones' residence and received fifty guests. All were close friends of the honoree and the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. F. W. Tibbals, and Mrs. W. Fegan of this city were among the summer garden flowers, were given generously in adorning the home and the color tones were brilliant red in the dining room and delicate pink and white in the parlor and reception room. Various diversions were provided by the hostesses to inter- tain the guests and they completed the delightful afternoon with a prettily ap- pointed luncheon service.—Grand Forks Times.

Mayor McClary was appointed a com- mittee of one to secure the services of an expert to assist the council in fix- ing the rate on electric lights and water. Mr. McClary leaves today for St. Paul on personal matter thoroughly. A letter was received by the city from Earl D. Jackson of St. Paul, who has been active along those lines and re- commendations that they be investigated. The management of the Charles the- atre were disappointed today in hav- ing to postpone the appearance of Mutt & Jeff, the celebrated funny pictures of comic supplement fame. The pictures will be presented next week Friday. Some exceptional pictures have been received today, however, that will be presented tonight.

Messrs. Kelly and Phoenix, two strangers in the city, were arrested on complaint of William Redmond charged with cruelty to animals, having dam- aged his horse considerably. The fel- lows were brought before Judge Jur- gens this morning in justice court and sentenced to a nine days' term in jail.

Claiming that she was damaged by her fall in front of the Great Northern hotel to the extent of $500, Miss Che- zick has started suit against the city through her attorney, John J. Samson. A lengthy notice of the suit was filed last evening by the aforesaid attorney in the said case and it was referred to the city attorney.

Miss Chezick was injured by tripping over the rods placed in front of the hotel for street lights and she claims that they were unprotected and danger- ous.

DAMAGED BY LIGHTNING.

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 6.—Irwin Small of Stewartdale, reports the loss of four big stacks of wheat as the result of the electrical storm. The stacks contained all his wheat crop and a flash of lightning set fire to them and they burned to the ground, entailing a heavy loss.

Huesgen sells watches at less than any mail order house.

John Kirk of Odessa township was in the city yesterday and was in the train delayed threshing operations which were started Monday at his place.

C. T. Barragy of Grand Forks is here to fill the vacancy as pharmacist at the Devils Lake Drug store while Sanford Hagen is enjoying himself in the wilds with gun and dogs.

"Tiger-Bill" and he is known by no other name, is shifting scenes at the Chapman-Shirley tonorial parlors, allowing the firm members a day of occasionally to enjoy the hunting fes- tivities.

Word comes from Minneapolis, that Mrs. Stickle, wife of the Kennan edi- tor, has been taken to a private sanita- rium, where she will be under the care of eminent specialists. Mrs. Stickle has been suffering for many months with nervous prostration and it may be some time before she will be able to wait anxiously further news re- garding Mrs. Stickle's health.

Harry Miller residing north of this city was brought before Judge Jur- gens in justice court this morning charged with violation of the game laws. He was fined twenty-five dollars and costs for being two days too early in en- joining a hunting outing. Swen and John Johnson who were also arrested on the same charge were released. Mil- ler pleaded guilty to the charge.

Deviis Lake merchants who the week took off the lid on the early closing which has prevailed during the summer months have not noticed any in- crease in business in the after supper hours which shows that the summer evenings which the clerks have been enabled to enjoy, do not interfere much with the business when the shop- pers get the habit.

There are thirty three property owners in the territory proposed to be annexed by the city who did not protest against the committee ap- pointed to investigate. This was an- other matter, however, that was postponed until Friday night for final ac- tion.

John Beck of Wisconsin, who has been employed at the Inter Stratum farm ten miles north of this city, was brought here today on the charge of insanity and his hearing was on before Judge Henry and the board this after- noon. Beck was not at all dangerous but on several occasions he gathered dishes dropped on the floor and ate on the floor and did other things equally as queer.

Two non-resident permits were is- sued today by County Auditor Bice, John Boyce and John Beckwith both of Minneapolis, making application to enter in the city. These gentlemen plan to remain in this section employ- ing the sport most of the season and were perfectly willing to pay the $25 re- quired for a non-resident permit. These are the only non-resident permits is- sued. They are secured from No. 1 and Mr. Beckwith No. 2.

Deviis Lake is sending its young people off to the various schools of the east and west and it is interesting to note that the majority of them are coming to Grand Forks. Misses Olga and Edna are spending the summer at their second year at the university; Miss Mildred Holmes comes back to the same institution and will bring her brother, Ray, to enter as a freshman; Dan Prosser and Howard Maher re- turn from John Storman and will be new students from the University of Min- nesota; Miss Myrtle Kennedy has already arrived at Grand Forks and will study at St. Bernard's academy;—Grand Forks Times.

"I just returned from Dickinson to permanently establish my business here in Fargo," said D. E. Crowley, a For- um representative at the Gardner hotel last evening. "I haven't yet gotten located in a business room but I hope to be on N. P. avenue some- where down in the automobile dis- trict and may be located near the Cal- mers place of business."

Mr. and Mrs. Crowley were former residents of Fargo and are well known here. Their many friends will gladly welcome them back to the city as they regretted to see them leave several years ago when they went to the Forum representative at the Gardner hotel last evening. Mr. Crowley went into the drug business there. Mr. Crowley will be the North Dakota manager of the Britton Auto Tire Cover Co., of Chicago, formerly manufactured at Brook- ings, S. D.—Fargo Forum.

Larimore is doing things them- selves proud in paying tribute to Sep- tember's fair bride, Miss Lottie Tib- bals of this city who was once a popu- lar Larimore girl. This afternoon Mrs. Owen E. Ashbrooke, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. Thoma Gasiga and Mrs. Emma Eastgate gave an afternoon at Mrs. Jones' residence and received fifty guests. All were close friends of the honoree and the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. F. W. Tibbals, and Mrs. W. Fegan of this city were among the summer garden flowers, were given generously in adorning the home and the color tones were brilliant red in the dining room and delicate pink and white in the parlor and reception room. Various diversions were provided by the hostesses to inter- tain the guests and they completed the delightful afternoon with a prettily ap- pointed luncheon service.—Grand Forks Times.

Mayor McClary was appointed a com- mittee of one to secure the services of an expert to assist the council in fix- ing the rate on electric lights and water. Mr. McClary leaves today for St. Paul on personal matter thoroughly. A letter was received by the city from Earl D. Jackson of St. Paul, who has been active along those lines and re- commendations that they be investigated. The management of the Charles the- atre were disappointed today in hav- ing to postpone the appearance of Mutt & Jeff, the celebrated funny pictures of comic supplement fame. The pictures will be presented next week Friday. Some exceptional pictures have been received today, however, that will be presented tonight.

Messrs. Kelly and Phoenix, two strangers in the city, were arrested on complaint of William Redmond charged with cruelty to animals, having dam- aged his horse considerably. The fel- lows were brought before Judge Jur- gens this morning in justice court and sentenced to a nine days' term in jail.

Claiming that she was damaged by her fall in front of the Great Northern hotel to the extent of $500, Miss Che- zick has started suit against the city through her attorney, John J. Samson. A lengthy notice of the suit was filed last evening by the aforesaid attorney in the said case and it was referred to the city attorney.

Miss Chezick was injured by tripping over the rods placed in front of the hotel for street lights and she claims that they were unprotected and danger- ous.

DAMAGED BY LIGHTNING.

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 6.—Irwin Small of Stewartdale, reports the loss of four big stacks of wheat as the result of the electrical storm. The stacks contained all his wheat crop and a flash of lightning set fire to them and they burned to the ground, entailing a heavy loss.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Miss Helen Horn of Rock Lake is at- tending high school here.

Mr. Ralph Tombs of Chautauqua spent the day visiting friends in town.

Mrs. F. L. Olyer of Penn is in the city today visiting with friends.

Miss Susa Wallace of Tokio has reg- istered as a freshman in the high school.

Miss Gladys McKay of Grand Har- bor left yesterday for Cray where she will teach.

Mrs. T. J. Hettinger of Indianapoli- s is visiting at the home of her brother, J. R. Kollar.

Mrs. John Haslam is giving a six o'clock dinner in honor of Miss Irene Rankin of Minn.

Mrs. P. Brant returned from Strik- weather today after spending a week visiting with Mrs. N. Roberts.

Miss Irene Thompson leaves today for St. Paul where she will enter the Senior class at St. Catherine's.

Mr. F. W. Tombs and son Ralph left for Rock Lake where they will spend the first days of the hunting season.

Miss Ethel Snell returned last night from Saskatoon, Canada, where she has been visiting for the past four months.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Dingle will be pleased to learn that their infant son is much improved today.

Miss Genevieve Burrell of Iowa, who has been visiting with Mrs. Ohnsted during the summer has registered in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McClory and daughter Margaret left last evening for Minneapolis where Miss Margaret will enter St. Catherine's academy.

The hunting permits issued at the county auditor's office today increas- ed the number to over eight hundred issued thus far this season.

Howard Baker is spending a week in Minneapolis attending the fair. He will return next week and will then go to Fargo where he will enter the A. C.

Miss Vera Seymour returns Saturday to her home in Grand Forks. Miss Sey- mour has been spending a few weeks visiting with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Reid.

P. W. Smith of Fort Totten leaves soon for Minneapolis where he will reg- ister as a senior in one of the high schools. He completed his course in January, after which he will return to the Fort and take charge of the store.

Train No. 5 was almost an hour late in arriving at Devils Lake this after- noon, traffic being exceptionally heavy.

George Cowan returned to this city this afternoon on train No. 5.

Oscar Anderson has left for his farm at Derriek where he will engage in threshing operations.

Considerable interest was attached to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.

William Wilson returned this after- noon with an abundance of chickens, to the drawing at Minot of Berthold claims at Minot. The World receiving many phone calls from over the county inquiring for the results.