

LOCAL NEWS

(From Friday's Daily.)

Axel Jorgenson is contemplating returning to the university to complete his law course.

H. J. Hinek returned last evening from Minot, where he registered on Berthold lands.

Miss Cecelia Duell left today for Minot where she will take a chance on some of Uncle Sam's offerings in the Fort Berthold reservation.

Ole Anderson and Editor A. C. Cray were two visitors from Edmore who were in the city today, coming over in an automobile.

Haley & Hyland have a 25 H. P. International engine and New Racine separator on the track for Anderson & Giesberg. It's some machine, all right.

J. Kelly, who is employed as head of the bindery department of the Grand Forks Herald, stopped off in the city enroute from Minot to Grand Forks. He registered for a Berthold claim.

Work is progressing on the new fire hall. The concrete floor work has all been completed and as soon as possible the construction of the first floor will be undertaken by Contractor Gram's force.

Martin Benson, who proved up on a claim east of town some years ago is here for a visit. Mr. Benson was from here to Morton county and later lived in Bismarck. He is now located at Thief River Falls. — Starkweather Times.

Last evening Miss Norma Hines entertained at a progressive party in honor of her guests were Misses Edna Hanson, Elizabeth Klingel, Edna Hazel Davis, Gertrude Hines, Dorothy Dodge, Marie Gerlund, Sylvia Nelson, Bessie Connelly, Lora and Bessie Henley.

After a long and arduous trip the applicants regarding the law which must be followed by the slightest detail. Judge Cowan granted druggists permits to J. A. Hamre of Edmore and Mr. Shepard of Brocket. The court called attention to a common oversight in failing to put in the name of the street or the section, in case the person applying for a license was in a city.

A deal was consummated last evening in which Art Nelson became the owner of the barber shop formerly run by Gilles Gilbert, while Mr. Gilbert has taken over the Athens cafe and will occupy that place next week.

Mr. Gilbert is an experienced hotel man, having been raised in the business. He is planning a number of improvements in the place and will endeavor to meet all requirements of a first class cafe.

Forty hunting permits, all issued to one place and placed in the custody of one man is the record of the county auditor's office this afternoon. Forty hunting permits went to residents of Cray today, Miles Miller being agent for the Crayites who applied by special application for licenses.

Martin Vagstad, whose bondsmen refused to continue on his bonds for violation of the liquor law yesterday, was successful in securing other bonds last evening and was released from custody. Mr. Vagstad has not given out any information as to whether he intends continuing in the restaurant business.

Sheriff McLean has received information relative to Roy Davis, who is wanted at Carrington on the charge of obtaining property under false pretenses. Davis is about twenty-five years old, wears a blue serge suit, but-toned sho es and is a little over five feet tall.

Martin Vagstad, formerly proprietor of the Athens cafe, has rented the building recently vacated by the Home laundry and will open an up-to-date Cafeteria. Mr. Vagstad expects to have the equipment in place about the 10th of the month, when he will open.

H. J. Friedman of Chicago was in the city yesterday visiting with friends. Mr. Friedman formerly lived in this section of the state, leaving Devils Lake nearly twenty years ago. Upon his return from Minot where he will register Mr. Friedman will revisit the section of Ramsey county in which he formerly lived. He was thoroughly surprised with the rapid growth of the city and the splendid buildings that have been erected since he had left.

George Letzinger, who has been in the hospital suffering from typhoid fever died yesterday afternoon. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at nine o'clock from the Catholic church.

Misses Emma, Martha and Rena Severson and Foster and Mr. Stevens of Cray arrived in the city today. Miss Rena Severson left on No. 3 for Stanley, N. D. The rest of the party will return to Cray this evening.

Ben Beach and family have moved into the Brainard house on 6th street. Mr. Beach has accepted a position as clerk in O. S. Sheldon's store.

Dr. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson, who have been registering at Minot, visited with their brother, Irvin Thompson of this city before returning to their home in Thompson, N. D.

Dr. Friedman of Chicago, who has been in the city visiting his cousin, Sam Goldberg, left last evening for Minot, where he will register for land.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Judd are moving to this city from Fargo. Mr. Judd is connected with the famous Standard Oil company.

Carl Hance, formerly of this city, was in town yesterday on his way to his home in Minnesota, from Canada.

Frank McGuruen was in the city today from Churchs Ferry. He left on the Aneta line for Fargo.

Karl Reeser and Arthur Hanson are spending the week end at Chautauqua with Sam Fisher.

Wm. Johnson and L. A. Everson of Edmore were in the city yesterday and today on business.

Miles Miller, the popular and prominent Cray citizen, is a business caller in Devils Lake today.

Eugene Paulson returned yesterday from a business trip in different parts of South Dakota.

Charles Grimes leaves today for Minneapolis. He expects to be gone until Monday.

J. E. Sandlie of Lakota was in the city yesterday. He left last evening for Fargo.

L. L. Brown of Doyon was a business visitor in the city yesterday and today.

Neils Melass, the Buffalo-Pitts traveling man from Fargo is in the city today.

Walter Whitford returned yesterday from a visit with relatives in Cando. Dr. Jones was in Cray yesterday looking after professional business.

Alex. Watson, the drug pedler, was in town last evening on business. Vincent Emdin is spending a few days on the reservation.

C. E. Forrest of Cando is in the city today.

Mrs. George Tallmadge was able to leave for her home at Devils Lake yesterday, being sufficiently recovered from an operation she underwent recently. — Opera Reporter.

Mrs. James O'Meara of Chicago and Mrs. Chas. Nelson of Eckman are in the city the guest of their brother, Bob Willmott. Mrs. O'Meara was accompanied by her two daughters.

Miss Grace Thompson was in the city today enroute to Grand Falls, N. Dak., where she will teach in the schools this winter. Miss Thompson taught for a number of years in the Devils Lake schools and is very well known in this city.

Miss Oran Hunt entertained six of her friends yesterday evening from 5 to 7 o'clock. The occasion of her ninth birthday and the little hostess received many pretty gifts. Games were played after a delicious dinner was served.

Mrs. Gene Pile and children autted down from Cando yesterday. Her mother, Mrs. George, is visiting during the summer with them and left on No. 2 for his home in Missouri. They returned to Cando in the evening and were accompanied by Mrs. M. M. Walker.

Miss Mary E. Norton, sister of the secretary of state and employe of that office, is in the city today. The young lady is confined to her home with a severe cold. She says she cannot pronounce the malady hay-fever, for her income does not justify it. — Bismarck Tribune.

Allie Bond and family moved up from Chautauqua yesterday.

Mrs. Dougherty and son of Starkweather were in the city today.

Mrs. A. Hingtes of Michigan was in the city yesterday between trains.

Miss Lillian Hale returned last evening from an extended visit in the east.

Miss Edna E. Agnew, left today for Crookston, Minn., where she has been engaged to teach the coming year.

Misses Anna Miller and Lucy Chisolm drove down by auto from Webster yesterday.

Mrs. Dahl and children are expected to return tomorrow from a visit at Fairdale.

Mrs. Moe and daughter of Churchs Ferry are spending a few days at Chautauqua.

Messadams Wickert and Hayes were guests at the Sylvester Flummerfelt farm yesterday.

Mrs. Edna and daughter Ruth returned yesterday from a visit with relatives in Leeds.

Miss Elizabeth McNamee leaves today for Fife, N. D., where she will teach school this winter.

Miss Pearl Coykendall leaves tomorrow for White Earth, where she has accepted a position to teach.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grulund and lit the grand daughter were shopping in town yesterday from Grand Harbor.

Mrs. Bond and baby leave today for Fairdale for a short visit and from there they will go to Meadow River, Minn.

Mrs. Murphy and son from Albert Lea, Minn., arrived this morning on No. 3 and are the guests of Mrs. Blaisdell.

Mrs. McVey entertained a number of her friends and neighbors at a evening tea. After a very enjoyable afternoon delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Isabelle Lackey, formerly of this city, passed through here yesterday on No. 4, enroute for St. Paul, where she will attend school this winter.

Miss Margaret McVay is expected to return tomorrow from a two months' visit with relatives in Grand Forks and Minot. Miss McVay expects to attend school here this winter.

Mrs. George Parker was in the city yesterday from Chautauqua visiting with friends. She left on No. 6 for Leeds, where she will attend a party given by Mrs. Warren of that city.

Misses Norma Hines and Mamie Gruber leave tomorrow for St. Paul. During the absence of Miss Hines, her sister, Miss Jortzade, will fill her position as bookkeeper at the Lake Grassy.

Miss Irene Rankin is expected to arrive today from Upland for a two weeks' visit here. While in the city she will be the guest of Miss Edna Hanson. From here Miss Rankin will go to Minneapolis, where she will spend the winter.

On last Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents at this place occurred the marriage of Mr. Henry L. Weeks and Miss Laura Gudmundson, the Rev. Pitman officiating. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the bride were present. The groom is a young business man of Sedgewick, Minn., where he is engaged in the grain business. The bride is well and most favorably known in this community, having lived here for several years. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gudmundson, left by automobile for Devils Lake to take the midnight train for Sedgewick, where they will make their home. The people of Starkweather are sorry to see Miss Gudmundson leave, but all wish the couple a long, happy and prosperous journey through life. — Starkweather Times.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Emil Eich of Cato township was in the city yesterday on business.

Bill Redmond returned last evening from registering at Minot.

Tom O'Brien was in the city today to look after business matters.

H. J. Hinek left last evening on a business trip to Minneapolis.

Charlie Haines, traveling man for the Paris Candler is in the city today. Bob Hurley went to Warwick yesterday in the interests of the International Harvester Co.

Prof. Richards, manual training teacher in the Cando school, was in the city yesterday.

P. C. Efterson of the Gram Construction company, returned last evening from registering for land.

L. G. Mustain left last evening for St. Thomas, where he has been engaged to teach in the city school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Otto are the proud parents of a baby boy born yesterday morning.

Herman Stensteth left this afternoon for Warwick where he will visit with friends and attend to business matters.

William Redmond brought a wolf-in to the county auditor's office this morning. He killed the animal this morning.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Owing to the stringency in the money market Charles B. Turner has decided to sell school supplies for cash only this season.

Messadams Nash and Regan were in the city yesterday from Webster.

Misses Mamie and Helena Huesgen are expected to arrive in town this evening's visit with relatives and friends at Rolette, Fish Lake and St. John.

Miss Gretchen Gollinger of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived last evening from Devils Lake, where she has been the guest of Miss Helen Wineman and is the guest of Miss Fanny Smith. Sunday Miss Wineman will join Miss Gollinger and together they will go to Chicago for a short visit with friends before leaving for the west. They will visit Dr. and Mrs. Chandler in Fargo and go to O. Schultz, employed at the Chapman-Shirley barber shop, will leave tomorrow for Ambrose, N. D., where he contemplates engaging in the tonorial business.

All the schools in the county have been supplied with teachers with one exception. At Everett, in readiness for the opening of school in the districts next Monday according to Superintendent Haig.

The secretary of state reports granting a charter to the Edmore Grain Co., Edmore, Ramsey county, with a capital stock of $20,000. The incorporators are George McLean, Charles A. Sagan and Chas. C. Honey, all of Edmore.

Assistant Superintendent McCandless went to Devils Lake yesterday to meet a number of Great Northern officials. Matters concerning the handling of grain this fall and other features connected with the road will be considered. — Minot Optic.

C. A. Sagan has taken an interest in the Edmore Grain Co., who recently purchased the Minneapolis & Northern elevator at Edmore and he will be the manager of the company and do the buying of that place.

It will be necessary for a great many people throughout this "great and glorious land" to begin getting up a little earlier than usual next week in order to get the "young hopefuls" off to school in time. It will be hard at first but we will all soon be broke in.

Paul Kumm was brought to the hospital at Edmore this week suffering from a bad attack of rheumatism. Mrs. Kumm is nursing him and Dr. Nilson is giving him medical attendance. He is slowly improving and it is hoped that he will be about again as usual in a short time.

Tron Workenberg was in the city between trains yesterday on his way to his home at Webster. He is returning from a trip in the western part of the state.

B. W. Wideman, physical director of the Grand Forks Y. M. C. A. and Gene Severson of Grand Forks, passed through the city on motor cycles enroute to Minot where they will register on Berthold lands. They left Grand Forks at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Among those who were at Minot yesterday from Ramsey county at the Berthold reservation opening were L. A. Welo, Churchs Ferry; Emma Welo, Churchs Ferry; Agnes Loeber, Devils Lake; W. H. McNeil, Devils Lake; Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Devils Lake and T. E. Egelund, Devils Lake.

Miss Pearl Duell leaves today for Park River to resume her duties as teacher in the schools there.

Miss Katharine Agnes Loeber, Devils Lake, will leave today for the coming year.

Mrs. E. M. Lewis expects to leave tomorrow evening for Havre, Mont., to reside with her mother while the latter is proving up on a claim near that place.

Mrs. Caspar Wesley was in from Webster between trains today.

Mrs. P. Schradler and Iradore Henry returned yesterday from Rugby.

Alphia Stoddard left yesterday for St. Johns' college in Collegeville, Minn.

Miss Kathleen Anderson is visiting with her uncle at Cray for a few days.

Miss Elenore Towne arrived today from Valley City to resume her school duties here.

Miss Ethel Meiklohn of Long Beach, Cal., is the guest of Miss Laura Grotzinger.

Mrs. Bob Keogh was down from Starkweather today shopping and visiting with friends.

Miss Alice Devaney leaves today for Jamestown where she will teach school the coming winter.

Miss Juliette Shortridge left on No. 6 for Lakota which she will supervise the music in the city schools.

Mrs. Hans Clausen of De Soto township was visiting in the city today. She was on her way to Webster.

Mrs. A. M. Bond and children left last evening for Grand Forks, where they will make their home.

Mrs. C. D. White arrived here last evening from a few days' visit with sisters in Minnevaakan and Churchs Ferry.

Mrs. Stanley Huser returned last evening from Alexander, N. D., and other points where she has been visiting for the past couple of weeks.

Miss Minnie Schultz returned Thursday evening from a three weeks' visit in Michigan City.

Many of the teachers at the local schools have arrived to begin their work next Monday. Many from this city have also left to take schools in various parts of North Dakota.

Miss Ethel Snell returned last evening from a three months' visit with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Snell of Saskatchewan, Sask., Canada. Mr. Dinnie accompanied her as far as here.

Theresa Rublicke of Ontario township, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rublicke, died last evening. She will be buried at one-thirty tomorrow from the farm residence. From there the body will be taken to Cray.

Misses Mary and Dorothy Scherger have returned from a house party given by Mrs. W. B. Smith at Tolna, in honor of her daughter, Emily, who leaves Monday for Minneapolis where she will attend school.

Miss Esther Barsen left yesterday for a short visit with friends at Bartlett.

Mrs. H. G. Middaugh entertained a few friends of the Misses Thompson yesterday afternoon at Chautauqua.

The Misses Leonard Thompson, Eva Serungard and Bernice Jacobson leave tomorrow for Northwood where they accepted positions to teach in the schools of that city for the coming year.

Alex. McLean returned last evening from Churchs Ferry where he has been looking after his farming interests.

Among September's charming brides is to be Miss Lulu Frances Traynor, daughter of Mrs. John Traynor of 509 North Sixth street, whose approaching marriage to Harry McFarrell of New Liskeard, Ont., has just been announced.

Miss Traynor has resided here but little over a year but during that short time has made a large circle of friends who will rejoice at this happy nuptial news. She has chosen Tuesday, September 12, as her wedding day and nuptial mass will be celebrated at St. Michael's Catholic church by the pastor, Rev. Father Lemoine. Her sister, Miss Fannie Traynor, will be her only attendant and the guests will include the family members. Her two brothers, Attorney Fred Traynor of Devils Lake and John Traynor of Larimore, will be here with their wives, and a sister, Miss Jean Traynor of Fargo, will be the guests from a distance.

The man of Miss Traynor's choice is one whom she met during her residence in Ontario and he is popular in both business and social circles in his home city. He will take his bride back to New Liskeard to reside and they will be at the depot here in October. Their trip east will include visits to Ottawa and other cities in eastern Canada. — Grand Forks Times.

Complaint is being made by some of the Edmore farmers that there is illegal shooting of chickens going on, and one farmer phoned in to Edmore that they were shooting chickens along his fields at the time he was phoning. We hope to see the deputy game warden do all they can to see that the law is properly enforced, and those who are violating the game law brought to justice.

It will be necessary for a great many people throughout this "great and glorious land" to begin getting up a little earlier than usual next week in order to get the "young hopefuls" off to school in time. It will be hard at first but we will all soon be broke in.

Paul Kumm was brought to the hospital at Edmore this week suffering from a bad attack of rheumatism. Mrs. Kumm is nursing him and Dr. Nilson is giving him medical attendance. He is slowly improving and it is hoped that he will be about again as usual in a short time.

Tron Workenberg was in the city between trains yesterday on his way to his home at Webster. He is returning from a trip in the western part of the state.

B. W. Wideman, physical director of the Grand Forks Y. M. C. A. and Gene Severson of Grand Forks, passed through the city on motor cycles enroute to Minot where they will register on Berthold lands. They left Grand Forks at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Among those who were at Minot yesterday from Ramsey county at the Berthold reservation opening were L. A. Welo, Churchs Ferry; Emma Welo, Churchs Ferry; Agnes Loeber, Devils Lake; W. H. McNeil, Devils Lake; Mrs. E. S. Swanson, Devils Lake and T. E. Egelund, Devils Lake.

Miss Pearl Duell leaves today for Park River to resume her duties as teacher in the schools there.

Miss Katharine Agnes Loeber, Devils Lake, will leave today for the coming year.

Mrs. E. M. Lewis expects to leave tomorrow evening for Havre, Mont., to reside with her mother while the latter is proving up on a claim near that place.

Mrs. Caspar Wesley was in from Webster between trains today.

Mrs. P. Schradler and Iradore Henry returned yesterday from Rugby.

Alphia Stoddard left yesterday for St. Johns' college in Collegeville, Minn.

Miss Kathleen Anderson is visiting with her uncle at Cray for a few days.

Miss Elenore Towne arrived today from Valley City to resume her school duties here.

Miss Ethel Meiklohn of Long Beach, Cal., is the guest of Miss Laura Grotzinger.

Mrs. Bob Keogh was down from Starkweather today shopping and visiting with friends.

Miss Alice Devaney leaves today for Jamestown where she will teach school the coming winter.

Miss Juliette Shortridge left on No. 6 for Lakota which she will supervise the music in the city schools.

Mrs. Hans Clausen of De Soto township was visiting in the city today. She was on her way to Webster.

Mrs. A. M. Bond and children left last evening for Grand Forks, where they will make their home.

Mrs. C. D. White arrived here last evening from a few days' visit with sisters in Minnevaakan and Churchs Ferry.

Mrs. Stanley