

Doings of the Week

C. A. Sagen of Edmore was a business visitor in the city Wednesday returning home Thursday.

Chas. Taylor resigned the postmaster-ship at the Obantauqua and Thomas Moore was appointed to fill the position.

H. G. Wright and C. A. Sagen of Edmore were in the city on business Wednesday returning home on the train Thursday.

Among the out of town visitors in the city Wednesday were Alfred Anderson and Ole J. Morseth, two prosperous farmers from Overland township.

Erick Narveson, one of the leading farmers of Highland township, was in the city to attend the assessors' meeting Wednesday. Mr. Narveson is one of the first settlers in that township, and has added to his land holdings, until today he is one of the largest farmers in that section.

Joe Colgan who sold his land in Morris township a short time ago left last evening for Washington where he will look over the land and perhaps cate.

The following names were added to our subscription list this week: Paul Foss, J. H. Papachek, Mrs. J. E. Watt, Al Hedden, C. A. Sagen and James Stewart. People recognize The World as the leading paper in the Lake Region and the consequences are that our subscription list is growing by leaps and bounds.

Merchant Humphreys of Derrick was a business visitor in the city Wednesday. He reports everything moving nicely up his way, and farmers anxiously looking to get into the fields the first of next week.

Oscar Moon, a young man 23 years old, living in Norway township, passed away Wednesday after a long and patient suffering from tubercular trouble. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Espetol. He had been at the hospital at Dunsmuir, for treatment, but the dread disease had gained too firm a hold, and he returned to his home some days ago, where he passed away at stated above. The funeral will be held from the family residence Saturday. Besides a father and mother he leaves several brothers and sisters to mourn his death.

Al Hedden of Edmore was a pleasant caller at this office Wednesday and paid his subscription up to date. Mr. Hedden made the trip across country in his auto.

EASTER VISIONS

whole costume and utterance of Christendom show that the word has been spoken as a word of cheer, a word of hope, a summons to rejoicing. Is not this in itself a great achievement? To fill the heart of the world with a great hope and an unselfish joy—is not that a great good? That Jesus the Christ has done all this for the world no man can deny.

There is reason in this rejoicing. It is the truth that Easter tells that makes the whole earth glad. What is this truth? It is the truth that there is life beyond the grave. To the perfect man there is no death, and in every man there is a spiritual principle over which death has no power. This has been the unquenchable hope of mankind in all the ages, and the resurrection of Christ gives to this hope a great confirmation.—Dr. Washington Gladden in Woman's Home Companion.

Easter Is Older Than Christianity

EASTER is much older than Christianity. The very name by which we know the day is identical with that of the ancient Saxon goddess of spring, Easter or Eostre. The Anglo-Saxon name for April is Easter month. Taking advantage of the coincidence of the Christian festival in point of time with that of the yearly feast in honor of the Saxon goddess, the early missionaries gave a Christian meaning to the observance of the day, but it has ever retained its ancient name. Easter was at one time called the Christian passover, because the Jewish passover occurs about the same date, and the early converts from Judaism celebrated Easter and the passover as one festival.

An Easter Message. You must live before you can believe. If you would have a right to the tree of life, if you would have the right to know that there is a tree of life, you must seek this immortal life here, and seek it from the God who is here, and seek it through the channels that he opens for you.

Live here and now the immortal life, and then, if you are mistaken and there is no life after the grave, still you will have been immortal.

We must have the immortal life here and now if we would have a rational hope to have it hereafter. This is my Easter morning message to you.—Lymman Abbott.

TRUTH THAT EASTER TELLS.

IF you look into the face of humanity on Easter day and listen to its accents and watch its movements wherever the message of Easter has been spoken you know that it is joyful news, good tidings. The pealing bells, the jubilant songs, the churches and the homes bright with the flowers of spring, the festive garments, the
