Mr. Chamberlin of Doyon, Mrs. Oakley's brother-in-law came over with the Oakley family Sunday evening and stayed for the circus. He took in the ball game and spoke highly of the Edmore team.

Hans Bratten has the excavating completed for the foundation for his new blacksmith shop and work on the walls commenced. The gravel is all on the ground and the work should progress rapidly as Hans has constructed a concrete mixer that will do to lighten the work. The entire building will be of concrete.

Milton Kelly of the Fordville Chronicle force was over Monday with the ball team from that place. He played shortstop for the visiting team but he was forced to admit after the dust cleared at the close of the ninth inning that there is another town on the map besides Fordville.

We have just returned from a three week's outing at Ashby, Minn., and to say that we had a splendid time would be putting it mildly. Anyone who is looking for an ideal spot to spend a few weeks fishing can never find a better place nor one where the finny tribe can be captured in such numbers as there and as such we recommend it. This little town also has a 40-piece band known over the whole center of the state of Minnesota as the "Cadet Band," composed wholly of youths, some 12 or 15 of them being under 12 years of age. This band has made a name for itself and the town it represents by ably rendering music that older musicians might find trouble in executing.

Miss Ella Amlund returned yesterday and resumed her duties at the telephone exchange after spending her vacation at Park River.

A letter from Andrew Moen post-marked Lofoten, Norway, states that he left Norway the 11th for America and asks that we forward this issue to him at Edinburgh, N. D., where he will stop on his way home.

A. J. Carlson, who is a large land owner in this county as well as in Alberta, Can., arrived home from Alberta recently and states that the crops are very poor in that section, and in fact all along the line west of Moosejaw. They have had very little rain up there and a large part of the country is dried out.

Derrick, Lawton and Hampdin have sent delegation to the late ball games. We appreciate this outside support in our earnest endeavor to give the public first class baseball and in behalf of the ball team invite them to come again.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Anderson left Tuesday for Minneapolis to spend some time visiting relatives and friends. This is John's annual vacation and he intends to enjoy it.

Everyone reports an abundance of young prairie chickens in the fields this year. They should not be molested until the season opens.

Jimmie Robertson was a caller at Lakota Thursday. Jimmie is slowly recovering from the injury received in the Edmore-Lakota game.

K. Melby spent a few days with his family last week.

Lawton was defeated in both ball games played last week. The first game at Lankin Sunday resulted in a score of 8 to 4, the second with the Broket team ended with the score 3 to 4 on Tuesday.

Wednesday evening Alex Berglund narrowly escaped death by lightning, the bolt striking near the wagon. He and his team and a young Holstein bull which he was taking home in the wagon were almost blinded by the flash and so paralyzed by the shock that it was several minutes before they could proceed on their way.

The annual Sunday school picnic held at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. James Young yesterday drew forth nearly all the young and old people of Lawton besides many residing out of town. An excellent program of sports was arranged the ball games between the ladies and the youngsters was peculiarly interesting owing to the decision of the umpire which the youngsters claim was rank. The tug-of-war between the boys and girls was also won by the girls, the girls sandviching in several heavy weights on their team as anchors. The ball game between Lawton and the Haymakers stood 4 to 5 at the end of the seventh when the game was called on account of supper after which the picnic broke up all present having enjoyed the outing and voting Mr. and Mrs. Young and family royal entertainers.

Miss Cecil Vobayla returned from a holiday trip to Grand Forks Friday.

GOOD FARM FOR SALE

Well improved section farm in Ramsey county in good locality. Fair buildings, hog house with cement floor, blacksmith shop complete, feed mill, granary room for 10,000 bushels of grain, good well tilled up and windmill and tank, well never known to be short of water. Also good well in pasture. About 60 acres of pine. Fine grove of about 3 acres of box elder trees on three sides of the building. Hog pasture with water in it. One of the best farms to be found anywhere. This farm will be sold to a good party on easy terms and at a right price or will be rented for a term of years. Enquire at the World Office, Devils Lake, N. D.

STRAYED

From my farm on the Reservation Saturday, June 13, 1914. Sorrel Gelding, weight 800 pounds. Bald faced. Take up at my notice me. Robert Enos, Tokio, N. D.
