We have heard of no farmer who is paying more than $2.50 for harvest hands. This is a good wage and most men who are really looking for work are ready and willing to accept it.

H. O. Blegen stepped off from No. 5 Saturday, just returning from his trip to the old country. He met a hearty welcome from his many friends here. He was all smiles and looked to be in the very best of health. Although he enjoyed his trip greatly, he seemed pleased to think that he had reached home.

Mrs. H. R. Murray proved herself a most delightful hostess on Saturday afternoon, when she entertained a dozen of her lady friends. The diversion was needle work and conversation. Equal enjoyment, the living

Issue of the day was thoroughly discussed and all the ladies present seemed to be of one mind and that was in favor of it. A dainty course luncheon was served at little tables artistically arranged.

Judge Buttz has fixed the following places and dates for the hearings on all applications in the Second Judicial district, for citizenship under the laws of the United States: Devils Lake, Monday, Sept. 28, at 1:30 p. m. Minnewaukan, Tuesday, Sept. 29, at 9 a. m. sharp. New Rickerford, Tuesday, Sept. 29, at 1:10 p. m. Cando, Wednesday, Sept. 30, at 3:00 p. m. Rolla, Thursday, Oct. 1, at 3:00 p. m.

Through the cloud of uncertainty which for the present hangs like a pall over the business world, may be clearly discerned this fact: It is America's opportunity. The world must get its food supply largely from the United States, at least during the next few months. The export trade must soon be resumed. All crops are good property. No one should be scared into selling produce below its real value. All grains and non-perishable produce should command excellent prices before it is finally consumed.

Alvert Anderson, who for the past number of years has held the position as ticket agent for the Great Northern in this place has accepted a position as depot agent at Powers Lake, N. D., at a considerable increase in salary. He loaded his car of household goods on Tuesday and left for his new home on Wednesday. Mrs. Anderson and family will remain here in Churches Ferry for at least a couple of months. In the moving away of these young people Churches Ferry has lost one of its most highly respected families. We wish them the best of success in their new home.

TORTURE OF THE "PICKET."

A Form of Military Punishment In England In Bygone Days. The "picket," an ingenious form of punishment in use in England in the days of old, was generally inflicted on cavalry and artillery men and was a singularly brutal bit of torture.

A long post, near which stood a stool, was driven into the ground. The delinquent was ordered to mount the stool, and his right hand was fastened to a hook in the post by a noose, drawn up as high as it could be stretched.

Then the stool was taken away, and the sufferer had nothing to rest his bare feet upon but the stump, "which, though it did not usually break the skin," says Captain Grose, "put him in great torture, his only means of relief being by resting his weight on his wrist, the pain of which soon became intolerable."

One can very well believe him, especially when he makes the addition that a man was not infrequently left to stand in this position for half an hour, although the orthodox period of endurance was fifteen minutes.—London Graphic.

Decidedly Small. A small pupil in the juvenile grammar class thus compared the adjective "little," "Little, small, nothing at all."—Chicago News.

Look Her Breath Away. A very talkative little girl, who had been chattering away like a magpie all morning, suddenly became silent when a lady, dressed in the extreme of the fashion, called on her mother. Wishing to be amiable, the visitor said to the chatterbox:

"Have you lost your tongue, my dear?"

"Oh, no, ma'am," was the reply; "only my breath."—New York Tribune.

Studebaker
WAGONS BUGGIES HARNESS

In use for 42 years —and still going
In a recent letter to Studebaker, L. J. Balch of Coshocton, Ohio states that he owns a Studebaker Farm Wagon which has been in constant use for 42 years and is still giving good service.
This clearly shows that a Studebaker Farm Wagon is a good investment for any farmer.
We constantly carry a full line of Studebaker Farm Wagons, just as dependable, just as strongly built as the 42 year old wagon owned by Mr. Balch.
When you want a Farm Wagon, come in and let us show you our line of STUDEBAKERS.
We can save you money.
