

News From Nearby Towns

INTERESTING NEWS TAKEN FROM OUR EXCHANGES

CRARY

C. J. Arneson and Mr. Bergston of Doyon were business visitors in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McGurgen and family motored to Devils Lake Sunday.

O. B. Olson and Hans Rustom went to Grand Forks on a business trip Wednesday.

Mrs. Gertrude Travis has sold the Palace livery barn in Crary to J. H. Smith who is now the sole proprietor.

Mrs. Crowley of Fargo has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Medelman, for a few days and left Tuesday for Fargo.

Farmers the past week have been very busy taking care of their grain which is now rapidly being threshed and hauled to the bins or elevators.

Monday was the opening of the hunting season, and being also Labor Day which is a legal holiday it gave nearly everyone the opportunity to take a day off for sport. Ducks are quite plentiful, also chickens in some wheat fields.

Robert Murray Sr. went to Devils Lake Wednesday evening to meet his niece, who has just arrived from Canada, and will keep house for Mr. Murray who expects to run the farm next year. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray

Jr. will move to Rohrville where Mr. Murray has a position with the Woodworth Elevator company.

The Wheatland school board held their regular annual meeting Tuesday this week.

W. A. Crary of Grand Forks is here this week looking after his farming interests.

Lieutenant Berto Olson returned Saturday from Sparta Wis., where he was called for military duties.

R. D. Bailey, a former resident of Crary, but now of St. Paul, has rented a barber shop at that place at 1164 Sibley avenue.

A. E. Southam autoed to Edmore Sunday to visit relatives and to go out hunting, Monday morning in that locality.

Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Drew, Miss Hurd and Miss Meretus, came down from Devils Lake Thursday to attend the missionary supper.

H. L. Ugland of Knox, is making a substantial addition to the dwelling on his farm west of Crary, and has been here several days while his crop is being threshed.

Cornelius Olson writes from Dutton, Mont., that he has been out threshing for two weeks and that winter wheat is turning out from 20 to 32 bushels to the acre, and that seeding is now in progress.

Mrs. F. W. Southam entertained at a thimble party at her home Tuesday afternoon. Her guests were Mrs. Henry Medelman and daughters Katherine and Emily, Mrs. J. Calderwood, and daughters Rebecca and Margaret Mrs. Dan Boyd and daughter May, Mrs. D. C. McLeod and daughters Lucile and Eva and Mrs. H. A. Nicholson.

Mrs. W. H. Walke was a hostess to the Misses Inez, Pauline and Ida Serungard and Miss Cowan who spent Sunday and Monday at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Southam and Mrs. Ryall entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Southam and daughters at dinner Wednesday evening.

Mrs. W. E. Downs entertained the members of the Ladies Aid at her home last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. D. C. McLeod entertained a gathering of ladies at her beautiful home last Friday afternoon.

The out-of-town guests in attendance at the surprise party arranged by Dr. W. H. Cuthbert in honor of Mrs. Cuthbert's birthday last Wednesday were Charles Doyon, Atty. and Mrs. Cuthbert and Mrs. Jones, a sister of Mr. Cuthbert.

LAWTON

W. B. Bernard visited Lakota Monday between trains.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Kops a son, on Sept. 7.

This week the first publication of the curfew law appears in the columns of the Republican.

Miss Pearl Scott returned from an extended visit with friends at Langdon and Munich Saturday.

Ernest Davison and son Bert arrived Saturday from Minneapolis to look after their threshing interests.

A box ball alley installed in the Lawton pool hall this week's affording pleasure to threshermen during enforced idleness.

Mrs. Leon Benek who underwent an operation at St. Michael's hospital last Saturday was able to return home Wednesday.

School opens Monday with Miss Will as principal, Miss Langton, Miss Alexander and Miss Gibbons taking care of the lower grades.

A. G. Tverberg, deputy sheriff of Walsh county, was a business visitor in town Monday evening.

Mrs. R. D. Sorengal and Mrs. Hullet of Lakota spent Sunday with Mrs. W. B. Mitchell, of the Beach Inn, returning home Monday.

One of the record crops this year was threshed out Sunday on the farm of W. J. Parke. Fifty acres yielded 612 1-2 bushels of No. 2 Northern.

Miss Gussie Will, head teacher of the Lawton school returned from her holiday visit to relatives Wednesday to be ready for the opening of school on the 14th.

Three drunks were arrested yesterday after noon by the marshal; brought up before the court fined $5 a piece and ordered out of town. They were last seen headed toward Edmore and Derrick.

Fire threatened to destroy the threshing rig of M. Viger on the Andrey Swanson farm Monday. The prompt action of the engineer and spike picher, Geo. Weberg, in getting the water tank to the rescue, prevented a big loss to the owner.

Ex-Senator Jerry Stevens is some farmer. Monday he threshed out oats which went 48 bushels to the acre His Marquis wheat yielded 16 bushels per acre. He still has some flax to thresh which he thinks will go from 15 to 20 bushels per acre.

Painters have started work on the J. A. Aird elevator. They also have the contract to paint Whelan Bros. elevator.

Master Ralph Witley was taken sick this week and the trouble pronounced appendicitis. Wednesday evening Dr. Sihler, and a private nurse arrived from Devils Lake. Thursday morning Drs. Sihler and Nicholson, our local physician, performed the operation. At the present writing the patient is progressing nicely.

Hunting season opened up Monday but it did not open with quite the enthusiasm as in former years. However, most of the old guard were up early and afield. All report that the birds were plentiful, but we did not hear of anyone going beyond the limit.

August Schrupp arrived Tuesday from Roundup, Mont., to look after his farming interests here. Mr. Schrupp is delighted with Roundup and predicts for it a great future. He says the crops in Musselshell county and district are exceptionally good this year. He also states that our old friend Harry Pearce is managing the baseball end of the business in Roundup and that the team musters 18 members. Mr. Schrupp is Republican candidate for representative at the election in November.

A dastardly attempt to wreck a threshing rig belonging to C. Olson and partner was made at the C. G. Kops farm on the outskirts of the village Monday morning when the rig pulled from the south to the north field. They had only been running a short time when a bunch of telephone wire, a king-bolt, and other things hidden in the bundles began to cause trouble with the cylinder and did a lot of damage to the machine and stopped work until repairs were made. We do not approve of lynch law generally but we do in a case of this kind. The guilty parties when discovered should be hung on the spot or given a life sentence.

A colored man and a white man got tangled up Sunday in a scrap while working with the Matjek crew east of town. It seems the colored man was spikepitching and was cleaning up when the next bundle wagon came along. The colored man gave him an order as to how he should drive when the white man started to drive over his colored brother. Then the war started and a pitch fork battle ensued. Result a thumb gone and the colored man in Grafton, as the offense occurred in Walsh county. The preliminary hearing took place on Tuesday, the prisoner pleading guilty. The case was to have come before Judge Kneeshaw Thursday.

HAMPDEN

Miss Edna Merriam spent Sunday at Derrick.

Margaret and Evelyn Crary were visitors in Edmore between trains on Saturday.

Mrs. A. K. Blair left Tuesday morning for Grand Forks. Mrs. Ogilvie and her nieces joined her at Edmore.

Miss Holmes of Devils Lake is another of the new staff of teachers in the Hampden school. Her work will be in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

Walter Stephens, who has worked with one of the threshing rigs south of town met with an accident Sunday, which will mean the loss of about four weeks work. He not only dislocated his elbow but fractured it also.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck left Saturday morning for Minot.

Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Blair were visitors at the Ogilvie home in Edmore Friday.

Miss Hazel Burt of Munich has taken charge of the primary grades in the Hampden school.

Wesley C. Potter narrowly escaped serious injury Sunday afternoon. He was coming from the northwest riding his motorcycle, and when almost in town failed to make the turn for some reason. Some say the machine was travelling at thirty miles an hour. Be that as it may the machine with its rider ran into the west side of the Berg Bros. store with such force that the front wheel was entirely smashed, and goods on the shelves of the store were misplaced.

Mrs. M. Knudson and Miss Pleon journeyed to Edmore Saturday.

Jake Digernas was in Grand Forks the beginning of the week in order to get repairs for the company's engine.

Mrs. Lee returned from the west last week and after a few days at home, left Wednesday for Belmont, Wisconsin.

Una and Bernice Brusnahan are visiting with their brother Harry, and expect to take up high school here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Shipley and Otto spent part of Sunday at the Jake Haightelin home, near Starkweather.

Dr. Elliott of Milton, visited at the home of his brother E. C. Elliott last week, and also looked after threshing business.

Otto M. Shipley came down from Redcliff, Alberta, Canada, Thursday for a visit with his parents. The war has made business a trifle dull in the Dominion, he says.

The Rev. G. H. Quigley, district superintendent of the Grand Forks District, is scheduled to preach at the Methodist Episcopal church at Hampden next Sunday morning.

Robert and Mrs. Knudson and Myrtle returned a few days ago from their visit to Norway. They had an excellent time, but are not sorry to get back to North Dakota.

Miss Foug of Athens, West Virginia, reached town Tuesday, and has taken up her duties as teacher of the seventh and eighth grades.

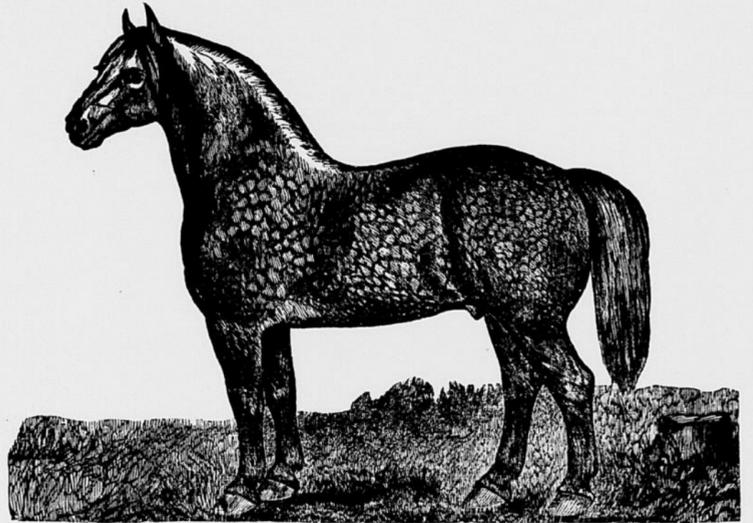

home at Zionsville, Indiana, Friday. He expects to have a good number of high school students this year, and contemplates a good year's work.

Sale of Horses!

On Old Bell Barn Site Saturday, Sept. 19

2:30 P. M.

The following property to be sold to the highest bidder:

2 Heavy Draft Horses, 1 Brown Saddle Horse, Single Footer--8 years old, 1 Sorrel Colt 3 years old, 2 Yearlings, both Mares

These Horses Will Positively Be Sold to Highest Bidder

FRANK H. HYLAND, Auctioneer

WE ARE NOW OPEN

With a Full Line of all Kinds of

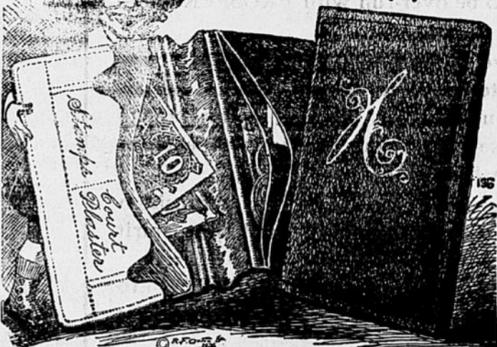

FANCY GROCERIES & CONFECTIONERY

TELEPHONE NO. 95

East End Grocery COMPANY

Uline Ave. betw'n 7th & 8th sts. I. Wilensky, Prop.

At Our Drug Store we sell Stationery and School supplies

Now's the time to fit your children out with everything they need for school. The cost is small and the little ones will study better, and take better care of THEIR OWN new things. Buy these school supplies in our drug store and get exactly what the children need. Our prices are always low.

C. W. GREENE
We give you what you ASK for

PENN

W. S. Miller made a livery trip to DeGroat Township, Thursday.

F. A. Gessner went to the Lake Thursday returning the following day.

Mrs. C. E. Stewart is spending several days in town as the guest of Mrs. George Miller.

O. N. Geno of Devils Lake was looking after farming interests near here on Tuesday.

James Stenson of Devils Lake was here making some repairs on Mr. Johnson's threshing engine this week.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Pete Engelhorn of Churches Ferry called on Mrs. George Miller Friday between trains.

R. W. Stewart returned this week from Valparaiso, Ind., where he attended school this summer. He will resume his position as principal of the Penn school.

Messrs. John and Jim Horne and Mr. O'Connell of Fargo, a schoolmate of the former's, gave a musical treat to Mrs. Jule Kaeding on Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jim Horne.

N. Muehlen was a Churches Ferry visitor on business Friday.

Harry Johnson attended the "movies" at the Ferry on Monday evening.

Mrs. J. M. Morgan spent several days at Devils Lake this week.

H. M. Hermanson made a business trip to Cando on Wednesday between trains.

Otto Schultze of Wolford was visiting friends and relatives in our village Thursday.

Bob McKay and mother, Mrs. John McKay, from Grand Harbor were here Monday on business.

Miss Dora Eastman of Grafton came on Sunday, having been engaged to teach the intermediate grades in our school this year.

Miss Mabel Kamplin returned Sun-

The Child Demands Good Bread And So Do We All

The first essential in good bread is to have good flour, get the best to be had which is none other than "Dakota Best Patent" flour.

Farmers' Mill & Elevator Ass'n.

day from Grand Forks and will take charge of the primary department in our school this year.

The young people of the Lutheran church were confirmed on Sunday by Rev. Stein of Devils Lake. The class consisted of the following young people: Messrs. Samuel and Dugal Steinberg and Misses Myrtle, Laura, Ollie and Effie Gessner and Anna Steinke.

RAMSEY

Elling Ellingson was a business caller in town Wednesday.

V. Halvorson is now threshing for Lewis Miller.

Leo McGarry, section foreman was the only one that got the limit of game the 7th, bringing in 25 ducks.

Lars Tollefson finished threshing Tuesday. His crop turned out fairly well, wheat making an average of 15 bushels, barley 22 and oats 34.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gessner were callers in town Monday.

Mrs. Peters of Devils Lake is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Lewis Miller.

The Osborne McMillan Elevator Co. took in 44 loads of grain Tuesday.

Olaf Haga returned to Minneapolis Wednesday, where he has a position with the Wyman, Partridge & Co., wholesale dry goods house.