LAWTON

(Lawton Republican)

"Jimmy" Gronna of Jakota, visited Lawton Thursday.

Village Marshall Oakley of Edmore was in town yesterday on business.

Gradma Adler returned from Brocklet, Monday, after a few days visit with her sons.

Mrs. J. E. Stevens returned Tuesday from a visit to her children at Grand Forks.

Miss Annie Scott visited the old folks at home, Friday of last week, returning to school at Lakota Monday morning.

Dr. Craig was called down from Edmore Thursday to attend to an injured colt belonging to Pete Osbey.

J. J. Smith and Roy Lamson visited Thief River Falls last Sunday, making the round trip of 250 miles the same day.

Geo. Adler the blacksmith has inaugurated a new line of school rigs for the transportation of children to and from school in this district. His rigs are attracting attention and he now has several orders from other school districts in this county and also Walsh county.

A. J. Zeman transacted business at Devils Lake Saturday, returning the same evening. Then he took a trip to Fordville, returning Sunday evening.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Overland, Thursday, Oct. 29, and presented them with a son. Mother and babe doing nicely.

O. S. Wing, the Edmore artist paper hanging and painting, etc., completed painting the interior of the Farmers State Bank this week. Certainly Mike, its a good job.

Warren Boyer arrived Wednesday to look after his interests in the Miller sale. We understand that he has rented his farm to A. A. Siegel, who will take possession of the farm as soon as Mr. Miller and family move out. Mr. Boyer returned to his home at Mankato, Minn., this morning.

T. Patton of Newbre township was seriously injured last week while rounding up cattle. It seems the horse which he was riding turned turtle, crushing one of Mr. Patton's limbs in its fall. No bones were broken, the injury to his ankle and leg are such that he is laid up and it will be some time before he will be able to be around again.

Charley Dodge and son are closing up the carpenter work on the Axel Thelin farm residence and barn this week. These buildings will cost in the neighborhood of about $3000 or more. The barn is hipped roofed and will stable about 20 head of horses and cattle, built for comfort on modern ideas.

The elections Tuesday, passed off very quietly—no enthusiasm displayed whatever between the different parties on the ticket. The supporters of the ladies ticket gave the ladies 16 ballots—a pretty good vote considering the vote cast here which was only 35 adult males in the village. Outside of Klein at Churches Ferry and Thelin in the second district for County Commissioner the rest of the ticket went Republican.

BROCKET

Dr. Ferguson says hat business is good—except collections.

J. R. Jechort is visiting the old folks in Conway, this week.

A masquerade ball in connection with the Flickertail moving pictures is announced for Thanksgiving Day at Bina's hall. Herd's orchestra will be there with nine pieces.

Barber Cadray lost a hunting dog some weeks ago. She has not returned to her happy home—yet.

Joseph Vetrovsky has opened up a new clothes cleaning and pressing establishment in our town. He guarantees his work. Give him a call.

Senator Trueblood has moved his garage down the street, east of Otto Tweeten's restaurant, and is building a large and up-to-date office in connection. Watch Brocket grow!

The Northwestern Mercantile Co. are now busy with a big sale at which they are selling goods at almost cost. They are selling the goods and are receiving a large outside patronage.

people coming from all points along the line to buy. Advertising sure pays.

Attorney Swenson, Doc. Ferguson and Frank Vierhus, attended the Merry Widow" show at Lakota Saturday night. All enjoyed the play but are jealous of the Swede.

Geo. Shepherd, the genial druggist in the Brocket Pharmacy, was taken suddenly ill Monday and had to go to the hay—as the saying is. It was a case of ptomaine poisoning, caused by something he had eaten at breakfast. He was under the doctor's care for a time and was able to be around again in the afternoon.

Con Vierbus, the hardware man, president of the school board, and the genial factotum of the village, is a busy man in the stove and hardware line this week. He is busy installing hot-air and hot-water furnaces in several of the private residences this fall and hopes to have all completed before the snow flies.

"In Time of Peace Prepare for War"

This well worn slogan is aptly applied to the coal situation in the Lake Region. At this time we are prepared to deliver coal to customers in unlimited quantities—But—we have been cautioned by the R. R. companies to urge our prospective trade to lay in their winters supply early. The first cold snap—and it is not far distant, will see a rush for coal and someone will be disappointed. Fill you coal bin NOW.
