QUICK ACTION RANGES

Pay Back First Cost in Fuel they Save

When you want to cook on top of the range lift the hot coals up to the top with a few turns of a gear shaft with the shaker handle and you will not need to fill the stove up with a scuttle full of coal and wait for it to burn into a strong fire. The stove lids will get red hot in a few minutes if you are not careful and when the meal has been cooked you can lower the grate, then the top of the stove will get black again.

Or, if you have much cooking to do raise the hot coals close to the top and shut up the drafts. You can do your cooking without burning out your fuel. The fuel lasts longer.

How many days do you use the top of a cook stove and how many do you use the oven?

When you wish to bake in a Quick Action Range lower the fire to standard depth. Quick Action Malleable Ranges are high grade malleable ranges equipped with every desirable feature which any other high grade malleable range has but they have the wonderful time saving, fuel saving, adjustable grate besides.
