Miss Inga Orner, who appeared in the Lutheran church Monday evening, is a singer of more than passing note. She has entertained audiences in some of the largest cities in the land. There was a large crowd out to hear her and she more than pleased those present.

A. L. Johnson of our local laundry left Monday evening for Des Moines, Iowa, where he goes to attend a meeting of the Iowa State Laundrymen's Association. During this convention Mr. Johnson will deliver an address. He is expected home the later part of this week.

Quite a marked distinction was given Miss Maud Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gray of the Colonial hotel, when one of her stories was selected for publication last week in the Minneapolis Journal. It was a very clever story for one so young to write, and is deserving of more than passing mention.

Louis Demars of Edmore was here Tuesday having come over with the Welome family, who were burned in the recent fire at the Welcome farm west of Edmore. Demars formerly lived at Grand Harbor, and has many friends in this part of the county who are always pleased to now that Lou is prospering.

Mrs. H. B. Rosenberg entertained the Shakespeare club at the home of Mrs. W. B. Mitchell Monday afternoon. The gathering was in the nature of a Washington entertainment and the ladies were gowned in real colonial style, and the color scheme of the rooms were red, white and blue. It was a most pleasant gathering and was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

F. P. Mann returned the later part of the week from Bismarek where he attended a meeting of the state civic association, and eventually spent a little time at the legislative halls at the state capital. Mr. Mann expressed himself favorably over the working of the two legislative bodies, but is of the opinion that the House is stronger than the Senate. He says that there are several real leaders in the House but that the senate does not seem to have any numebr who can be called leaders.

Mrs. Ed Elliott was very pleasantly surprised Friday evening, when a large number of friends and neighbors congregated at the Elliott home to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Elliott. There was a musical program rendered and during the evening the hostess was presented with an electric toaster, and probably from now on Capt. Elliott will be enjoying real buttered toast for his breakfast. The following ladies were present to enjoy the occasion: Mesdames Pillsbury, Foster, Howard Adams, M. S. Rankin Conrad, W. C. Folette, Jos. Foubert, Shranklin, Chapman, W. A. Garske, Breaky, Rapp, H. B. Mitchell, A. H. Bell, O. F. Anderson, Clarence Haley, Herman Schutte, Roy Barrickman, A. Haslam, J. Saturday evening the Elks held a regular meeting. There was a large attendance and the usual good time was enjoyed. The building committee reported progress, and from the outlook the new Elks home will be started in the early spring. Over twenty applications for membership have been received at the last two meetings.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE
SAVE YOUR HAIR! GET A 25-CENT BOTTLE OF DANDERLINE RIGHT NOW

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little danderline tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Word has just been received from Minneapolis that Mrs. Jos. Hines, who was recently taken there for an operation, is dying. Mrs. Hines formerly lived on the John VanLew farm near this city, but for the past number of years the Hines family have lived on the W. Crary farm near Doyon. This sad news will grieve her many friends.

Michael Noonan returned the later part of the week from Flint, Michigan where he spent a couple of weeks looking after his farming interests. Mr. Noonan went there for the intended purpose of selling his 240 acre farm, but says that he did not close a deal, as he did not get his price, and that he believes that land in Michigan is going to be more valuable in the near future and that he will wait a while.
