

News From Nearby Towns

INTERESTING NEWS TAKEN FROM OUR EXCHANGES

PENN

Mesdames Collings and Morgan were shopping at Devils Lake on Wednesday.

F. H. Gessner was a business visitor at the county seat the fore part of the week.

Mr. Kingsbury, superintendent of Winter, Truesdell, Ames Co., is in town this week.

J. N. Jack of Grand Forks is here this week working in the interest of the Pioneer Life Insurance Co.

P. L. Klyver of Botineau was a business caller here this week looking after some of his interests near here.

Messrs Jule and Frank Kaeding autoed to Devils Lake Friday.

J. DeMars of Grand Harbor was visiting friends here Friday.

Myles Johnston of Grand Harbor, was trading in town Friday.

Harry Johnson was a business visitor in the Lake Friday.

Mrs. Ed. DeMars of Grand Harbor came in Saturday and is spending the week here as a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Miller.

Miss Helen Castel of Churchs Ferry was a visitor at the J. M. Morgan home Sunday.

Miss Mabel McDonnell came up Saturday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. M. Morgan.

Miss Anna Stoe returned home Saturday from Madock where she visited with friends.

CHURCHS FERRY (Churchs Ferry Sun)

C. E. Copeland spent last week with his family at Fargo.

Hans O. Blegen went to Nanson on business Monday.

Andrew Bennes shipped a car load of hogs to St. Paul Friday evening. He returned on Tuesday.

Walter Enger returned home Wednesday from Hamblin, Montana where he spent the summer.

James McCormick returned from the Lake Saturday, where he spent the week having dental work done.

A letter from Rev. G. Nordberg states that they are well settled in their new home and like the place very much. He also states that his new work agrees with him fine.

Those at the Lake Saturday were Misses Myer, Shortridge, and Sprung; Mrs. Chas. Engelhorn, Mrs. Studness and daughter Clarine, and Rev. Benjamin Babcock.

We had quite a little touch of winter the first of the week but is fine now. It began to rain Sunday noon and lute in the evening the wind changed to the Northwest and a light snow fell. The change in the weather made it better goose and duck hunting.

The C. P. Olson family attended the diamond wedding Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Helgeson of Brinsmade. Mr. and Mrs. Helgeson are enjoying good health at the age of 84 years. The former was presented with a gold headed cane and the latter with a diamond ring.

J. S. Sweitzer of Minneapolis was here the fore part of the week looking after his farming interests. He returned home on Tuesday evening.

Sam Oldaug of Earl, Wis., a brother of Mrs. H. Berg, arrived Monday evening on No. 30. He was returning from Minot where he went to register and stopped off here for a short visit.

The Zion Ladies aid served a splendid supper at the opera house last week Thursday which was enjoyed by a large number of people. The proceeds from the supper and sale amounted to $110.

Miss Rachael Kirkeide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kirkeide was taken suddenly ill last Thursday night with an attack of appendicitis. The following day Mr. and Mrs. Kirkeide and Dr. Wicklund took her to the Rugby hospital where she underwent a successful operation. At last report the patient was out of danger.

Mrs. Lizzie Owens Meddelton of Kansas City, Mo., state lecturer and organizer of the W. C. T. U., will speak at the M. E. church at 4 p. m. Sunday. A very interesting address is expected.

The Great Northern trains have been loaded to the limit since the registration for homesteads began at Minot. No. 4 train Monday had over 1500 passengers and those who purchased tickets here were refused a ride.

STARKWEATHER

Born, Tuesday, October 19th, to Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Stong, a boy.

Joe Valencort was a business visitor to Grand Forks the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Wilson spent Sunday at the Peterson home near Callio.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gill were visitors at Devils Lake Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Powell are moving from the farm to a house in the east part of the town.

The County commissioners were in town for a short while last Thursday looking after official business.

Miss Hazel Schweitzer was brought back from Devils Lake Monday after submitting to an operation for appendicitis.

Resler & Fawcett got in another bunch of Fords this week and peddled them out in a short time. Axel Nelson, Edwin Traynor and Carl Lee all got one.

Born, Monday, October 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Paulson, a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rainboth drove to Devils Lake Saturday on a shopping trip.

Mrs. Fred Bowsworth came up from Devils Lake last week for a visit at the Berthel home.

Mrs. C. Gudmundson went to Southam Saturday for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. N. Anderson returned Wednesday from the Pacific coast where they have been for a few weeks attending the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gibson and children were passengers to Devils Lake Wednesday morning.

J. A. Shannon, prominent Devils Lake architect, was here Friday evening conferring with the committee that has charge of the community hall proposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maurer, bride and groom of a week, returned Wednesday evening from Minneapolis and other points where they have been spending their honeymoon.

"Ole the Swede Cowboy" played to a capacity house last Thursday evening at the opera house. Those who saw the performance say that it was one of the best ever brought to Starkweather.

Miss Tillie Romestad and Mrs. G. Chamberlain of Devils Lake came up Saturday evening and attended the supper given by the M. E. Ladies Aid. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Resler took them back Sunday afternoon.

HAMPDEN

The first quarterly meeting of the Methodist church was called for last Saturday.

A reception in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Pardee was held in lieu of the Epworth League meeting at the M. E. church Wednesday night. An impromptu program followed by a lap lunch made a very pleasant evening.

At 7:30 p. m., is the hour at which the evening services will commence at the Methodist church instead of 8:00 for the winter months.

Mrs. L. Taylor of Lakota is spending a few days at the home of her parents.

A shower in honor of Edna Picon, now Mrs. Oscar Berg was held at the T. Kelly home last week. Many were the beautiful gifts given to the bride.

The marriage of Enda A. Picon to Oscar Z. Berg took place on Monday the 25th at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Thomas Kelly. Only the immediate relatives were present. Rev. Pardee read the service which united in the Holy bonds of matrimony one of Hampden's most popular young couples. After the ceremony a fine luncheon was served, the happy couple autoed to Devils Lake and then journeyed by rail to Minneapolis and other points for a short honeymoon. On their return they will take up their residence in the home recently purchased from Earl Shellenbarger.

The best wishes of the Guardian accompany those of their many friends for a happy future.

Senator P. J. McCumber and former U. S. Marshal, J. F. Shea were in town Wednesday renewing acquaintances.

Link Holden is again with us. A good scout is Link, and he is well liked.

Postmaster Knudson has secured another section of combination mail boxes which he will install at once. They are of the larger size and just right for business men. Speak up and have your number changed so those waiting can get the small ones.

E. E. Sellinger, accompanied by his wife and Miss Wheat autoed to Edmore Thursday.

A farewell surprise in honor of Mrs. A. C. Davis was held at the John Carroll residence Thursday. She was presented with a cut glass bowl by the members of the ladies aid.

A car of land seekers went up to Munich last week. Several deals are reported.

Rev. Pardee is with us for another year at least. The only minister on this line to return to his charge. It is now up to the church goers of this community to get in line with him and boost for better, cleaner and more wholesome town. Do it now.

Bert Kaada, who has been section foreman here for some time left Friday for Buhl, Minn.

A fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kruger, Thursday the 28th.

Mrs. Frank Andrew and son are week end visitors at the A. J. Weaver home.

LAWTON (Lawton Republican)

Oscar Hooker of the Northwestern Mercantile Co., Brockton, was a business visitor in town Monday afternoon.

W. Boyer left Lawton Monday to visit relatives in the west before returning home to Mankato, Minn.

Friday evening a number of young folks attended the dance at Adams.

Vobayda's have an attractive window display representing Halloween.

Miss Eleanor Wilson came up from Lakota Tuesday to visit old friends for a few days.

The Ladies Auxiliaries meet with Mrs. McMorrin, Friday, Nov. 5th, at 3 p. m.

Mr. Rosland is drilling a well this week on the Oluf Olson farm southwest of town.

M. N. Sorbo left Monday for Crosby, where he will remain for a few months with his brother.

T. J. Briden of Grand Forks formerly of Wallhalla, was a business visitor in town yesterday.

James Young one of our prosperous Lawton township farmers, received his new piano this week. Jim, the not a piano player, is as good whistler as ever cocked a lip.

Louis Bratt, one of our leading and up to date farmers, purchased a new Overland machine from A. J. Zeman today.

The two auction sales held this week did not turn out as well as expected, owing to so many farmers being busy plowing.

Mrs. J. E. Stevens returned from Williston and Bismarck where she had been in the interest of the anti-tuberculosis society.

Harry Benjamin, brother of Mrs. W. Wheatley of the Commercial hotel returned with his family to their home in Minneapolis.

Bennie Newton after a successful threshing season in this neighborhood, returned to his home at McIntosh, Minn., Saturday.

Mrs. James McConnache and husband came up yesterday from Park River to visit her sister, Mrs. R. S. McMorrin and family for two weeks.

Mrs. E. A. Lunde returned home Monday from a protracted visit with relatives and friends in Minneapolis, Kenyon and other places in Minn.

M. Kerr and family moved into town Monday from their farm. Roy Hill and family will move to the farm to look after the stock during the winter.

W. J. Parke received word yesterday that his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jordan was dead, near Langdon. He left this afternoon to attend the funeral.

J. A. Aird purchased the G. D. Davison property last week. This one of the best residence properties in town. We understand the consideration was $1200.

Messrs Hagen, Olson and Deputy Sheriff Iago motored to the county seat yesterday to bring back a new five passenger Ford. They returned in the evening.

The fire department was called out Monday to extinguish a small blaze at the Lee Billings home, caused by an explosion of gasoline used while at work at the family washing. Outside of severe burns sustained by Mrs. Billings the damage did not amount to much, as the flames were subdued before the hose was laid to the scene.

A number of goose hunters started out Sunday. They reported game scarce and autos and hunters plenty. Messrs. Stevens, Vobayda and son bagged the only one that was brought to town.

A rural carrier examination will be held at Park River and Grafton on the 13, to fill the position of rural carrier at Adams, and other places that may occur.

The marriage of Miss Alma Fifer to Ray Snook took place at Southam. The young couple will make their home at Southam, where they have a host of friends.

Henry McGrew, who has been working for the Hon. P. H. Kelly, from the earlier days of harvest until the last bundle threshed, returned to his home in Indiana Tuesday. First time Henry's been up here—says people are all good and its a pleasure to work for them.

The young folks of Lawton were entertained by Mrs. George Adler Friday evening at the close of the Ladies Auxiliaries, which met with her in the afternoon. They report an enjoyable time.

The Rev. W. E. Dudley, who has had charge of the M. E. pastorate at this place during the past year, was among those who were ordained elders at the conference held at Fargo last week. Rev. Dudley has been appointed by Bishop Quayle to the charge at Forest River, and Rev. H. H. Newman, who spoke in the church here a few weeks ago, will fill the pulpit at Lakota. Rev. Dudley has made a number of friends here who regret to see him leave and the best wishes of the whole community go with him to his new field of endeavor.—Lakota Observer.

CRARY

J. H. Newbre left for New Rockford Tuesday afternoon.

Sidney Ford left Saturday for his home in Spokane, Wash.

J. H. Peters transacted business at Devils Lake Monday.

Mrs. J. T. Ackerman is sick with an attack of pleurisy.

Mrs. S. H. Ulmer is reported quite ill of nervous prostration.

Dan Boyd was attending to business at St. Johns the first of the week.

Mrs. Clarence Miller is visiting her parents at Devils Lake this week.

L. L. Dean and family have moved into the S. J. Dean residence for the winter.

Mrs. F. R. Stevens entertained a number of friends at her home Tuesday afternoon.

Wm. Dean returned from Upham this week and will remain in Crary for some time.

Miss Alice Ackley and mother left for Duluth, Minn., where they will spend the winter.

A baby girl arrived on Monday, Oct. 18, at the home of C. B. Crary near Stanley, N. D.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Murphy of South Minnewaukan township on Thursday, Oct. 28th, 1915, a girl.

Eugene Bastain, the popular clerk at the J. E. Thorson's store, is enjoying a visit from his mother this week.

It is thought best to have Mr. Orchard go back to Rochester, Minn., for further examination and treatment.

A representative of the Victor talking machine gave a demonstration of the Hawaiian records at the school house Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Genevieve Lynch of Grand Forks arrived Monday to attend the dance that evening, and is a guest for a few weeks at the home of her aunt Mrs. Charles Wright.

Coe brothers entertained a number of young people at their lake shore home Saturday night at a wiener roast party. The guests were Eugene Wright, Ernest Anderson and wife, B. A. Reiter, F. R. Stevens and wife, Floyd Luros, Burto Olson, Frank Medelman, Duncan McLeod Jr., Raoul Rutten, Miss Josephine Foster, Miss Lucile McLeod, Miss Menni, Misses Edna and Florence Lux, F. E. Walke, Miss Genevieve Lynch, Miss Emily and Katherine Medelman, Miss Gretchen Oeschger, Miss Edith Kirk, and Miss Eva McLeod. A camp fire on the lake shore roasting weinerroast and marshmallows, afterwards indoors playing on the piano and dancing were some of the principal events of the program.

Miss Amenda Miller came home Monday to attend the benefit dance given for the Mercy hospital.

Miss Ara Forslof spent the week end with her parents, and was shopping at Devils Lake Saturday.

J. T. Ackerman has bought another dray team and is now in better shape than ever to serve his patrons.

Theodore Reed of the firm of Miller & Reed, was a business visitor at Devils Lake Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. P. H. McGurran, Mrs. F. LeDuc, Mrs. A. L. Ahlbrecht, and Miss Lena Rutten autoed to Devils Lake Thursday afternoon.

Sheriff Martin Olsen was a business visitor at Crary Tuesday.

Miss Hope Wallace of Devils Lake came down to attend the dinner party at the Downs home, in honor of Miss Lucile Foster.

James Orchard and wife and son John Orchard left Wednesday for Rochester, Minn., where Mr. Orchard will seek medical treatment at the Mayo hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Oluf Taxeraas lost a child—Victor, 2 years old, Thursday, Oct. 26, of acute bronchitis. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the Congregational church.

The dance given for the benefit of the Mercy hospital at Crary Monday night was a splendid success financially and socially. About $125 was raised for the purchasing of an electric elevator for the Mercy hospital.

L. C. Wright came up from Grand Forks Monday to lead the orchestra which rendered such splendid music for the hospital benefit dance. The parts consisted of violin, L. C. Wright, clarinet, Mr. Jacobson, Devils Lake; cornet, Eugene Wright; pianist, Earl Duell, Devils Lake, and a cello.

Mrs. J. W. Crary entertained an auto party of Devils Lake ladies at her home Friday afternoon. Her guests were: Mrs. Stinson, Mrs. Ohnstad, Mrs. E. M. Crary, Mrs. Simonstad and Mr. Simonstad as driver. Those from here were Mrs. T. Swenson, Mrs. F. Lewis, Mrs. F. W. Southam and Mrs. O. C. Sagemoen.

Mr. Shirley of Warwick was a visitor in town Tuesday.

Mrs. F. W. Southam, Mrs. H. A. Nicholson and Mrs. J. W. Kelly were guests of Mrs. G. F. Drew of Devils Lake Thursday when the Presbyterian Aid met at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Downs and daughter Cornelia and sons Louis and William and their guest Miss Lucile Foster were entertained at dinner Wednesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Medelman.

Wednesday afternoon at the high school room in Crary, Morran Bros., of Devils Lake gave a recital on one of their Victrola talking machines accompanied by an expert singer from Honolulu whose singing was highly appreciated by the pupils and parents present.

EDMORE (Edmore Herald)

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, Saturday, Oct. 23, a baby girl.

A. J. Hammar was a visitor at Grand Forks the latter part of the week, where he was attending to business matters.

A number of the young folks of the village took in the dance at Adams last Friday evening.

Hilda Herzog left last Monday for Dickinson where she has obtained a position teaching school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Southam and children and Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain of Crary visited Sunday at Oakley's.

We are indebted to Oscar Stendall for most of the work on this week's issue of the paper. The editor in company with Dr. Ogilvie and Bert Currier have been away hunting geese and ducks, and met with fair success, considering the weather.

Lawrence Benson went to Grand Forks last week to see a doctor, as he has been ailing for some time previous to this. On examination it was found that the symptoms greatly resembled typhoid fever and was put to bed, and efforts are being made to check the disease.

The jury panel for the coming term of court has been drawn and includes the names of the following residents of the vicinity: C. K. Gjesdal, John Goodwill, Otto Wing, Henry Bono and A. C. Stensland.

John Novotny and family left Monday morning for New Prague, Minn., where they will make their home. The Novotny family have lived in Edmore for the past three years, Mr. Novotny having been employed on the section.

A farewell party in honor of the Burling family was held last Tuesday evening in the church. A large number of friends both young and old were present and a delightful time ensued. Some good old games were followed by a musical program after which a musical lunch was served by the ladies of the church.

We neglected to mention in last issue that a party of Edmore fellows were at Minot last week where they registered for the Fort Berthold land opening. Those who went were Dr. Craig, Allie Ferguson, Melvin Woldy and Carl Roseth. They went by auto to Devils Lake where they took the train. They report that there are about 700 quarter sections of land to be opened, and that lucky numbers will entitle the holders to a choice of the lands, which he must reside upon 14 months and also pay from $2.50 to $8 per acre. Most of the land is in the Plaza country, and none of it more than 12 miles from town.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker and family of Devils Lake stopped here last Sunday enroute to their farm north of this place.

Miss Mabel McDonnell left Saturday evening for a visit to her home at Penn during the absence of Dr. Ogilvie.

Quite a number of the youngsters of the village attended the big dance at Adams last Friday evening.

Mrs. Blocker and Hazel, left Saturday morning for Lakeville, Minn., where she was called by the illness of her father.

E. M. Crary was in town a short time Friday, and while here told us that his sale was very successful. There was a nice attendance and everything sold very well.

Leslie Kelly went to Devils Lake last Monday for a little visit with his brother Milton who is employed in the World office at that place.

The north bound train Thursday did not arrive here until about nine a. m., being five hours late. The delay was caused by the blowing out of a flue at Brockton which made it necessary to get another engine from Devils Lake.

Oscar Askelson left the latter part of the week for Cortwright this state, where he will spend the winter buying grain. He got the job through K. Melby who is on the road for a grain commission house.

Judge C. W. Buttz has called a jury term of court for Ramsey county Nov. 8th, at 10 o'clock in the morning. The thirty-six jurors will be summoned for 2:30 that afternoon. Hearings for citizenship will be held at 7 o'clock in the evening.

P. W. Honnet of Munich was in Edmore a short time last Friday. He came from South St. Paul and had in his care a car of young stock for C. G. Honey. These are mostly grade heifers and they will be sold to farmers in this vicinity. They will be a strong factor in building up the dairy stock of the community.

The Burling family left last Wednesday for their new home at New Rockford to which post the pastor has been appointed. They have lived in Edmore for the past three years and while here have gained a host of friends who are sorry to see them leave but who will join the Herald-News in wishing them success and happiness in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Honey and Miss Laxdall autoed to Devils Lake last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Dahl who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Sandal Qualley left yesterday for her home.

Nels Olson returned last Saturday from Minot where he registered for the land opening.

Dr. Ogilvie purchased two farms last week, the first one being the quarter owned by George McLean about one and a half miles to the southeast of town. After buying this he started negotiations for the adjoining Lovgren quarter which had been purchased a few days before by C. E. Burgess, with the result that he bought that quarter. We predict that this farm will be one of the finest in the county within the next few years.

Why not give your boy and girl an opportunity to make their home study easy and effective? Give them the same chances to win promotion and success as the lad having the advantage of

WEBSTER'S NEW INTERNATIONAL
Dictionary in his home. This new creation answers with final authority all kinds of puzzling questions in history, geography, biography, spelling, pronunciation, sports, arts, and sciences.
400,000 Vocabulary Terms. 2700 Pages. Over 6000 Illustrations. Colored Plates.
The only dictionary with the Divided Page.
The type matter is equivalent to that of a 15-volume encyclopedia.
More Scholarly, Accurate, Convenient, and Authoritative than any other English Dictionary.

REGULAR AND INDIA-PAPER EDITIONS.
WRITE for specimen pages, illustrations, etc. FREE, a set of Pocket Maps if you name this paper.

G. & C. MERRIAM CO.
SPRINGFIELD, MASS.