

SHE HAD FORTY-FIVE CENTS LEFT

Mrs. Johnson of Tolna, entered our store the other morning, and said she was looking for some dining-room furniture. Did not want to buy this morning, but just looking. Of course, we were pleased to show her. The goods proved so attractive to her that she became immediately interested. In less than fifteen minutes, she had purchased a buffet at $25.00, a dining-table at $18.50 and six dining-room chairs at $2.50 each—$15.00 for the set, a total of $58.50. She carefully counted out $58.50 and handed it to the clerk who made out the sales-slip and returned to Mrs. Johnson $5.85, which represented our 10 per cent. discount on cash purchase. "And what does this mean?" said Mrs. Johnson; "I understood you to say that my purchase amounted to $58.50?" "Do you not read our advertisements?" said the clerk. "Yes, indeed I do" said Mrs. Johnson, "but I really had forgotten about that discount; this is indeed a pleasant surprise." "Now, I need a rocker; what have you that this $5.85 will buy?" Several patterns were shown and a rocker priced at $6.00 was selected. Again the 10 per cent. discount and 45c was returned to Mrs. Johnson. "Well, that is splendid!" said she; "I did not expect to buy a single thing when I came in, but I found just the thing I wanted in a dining room suit and still have forty-five cents left." "A very satisfactory purchase, indeed."

DISTRICT COURT IS IN SESSION

The regular term of the district court convened in this city Monday, and up to the present time nothing of importance has transpired. Outside of making motions and routine matters only two minor cases have been heard up to this time. The first case called was an action entitled Nick Keitch vs. J. M. Kelly, and involved a matter of only a few dollars. This case took up about a day and the jury found a verdict in favor of Keitch for $9.23.

The next case was a criminal action from Bottineau county. This was an action against one L. Theroux for non support of his family, the complainant being his wife. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty.

As we go to press the case of the State of North Dakota vs. Arthur Conway is on. Conway is charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, the complainant being Gus Jagow, a farmer in the northern part of the

ANOTHER APPEAL FOR IRON WORKERS

PRESIDENT WILSON AGAIN ASKED TO PARDON RYAN AND OTHERS.

Washington, Nov. 10.—President Wilson was asked again today by a delegation of union leaders to commute the sentences of former officers of the Structural Iron Workers union, now serving terms in Leavenworth penitentiary for their convictions in connection with the so-called dynamite conspiracy which involved the destruction of the Los Angeles Times, and ramified throughout the country. Clemency was asked for Frank M. Ryan of Indianapolis, former president of the iron workers, and twelve others. It was represented to the president that the men have served about one-third of their terms and that the prison record of each has been exemplary.

A year ago appeals for pardons were refused. The president listened attentively and took the appeal under advisement.

ECONOMY TO BE PRACTISED

London, Nov. 9.—That the government had under consideration the passage of sumptuary laws to assure the strictest economy, was the information given Elias Bathurst, Unionist member for Wiltshire, by Premier Asquith in the house of commons today. The Premier added that he would be glad to receive any suggestions concerning such legislation.

Mr. Bathurst had asked the premier whether "in view of the serious state of the nation's finances and for the thoughtless extravagance and unnecessary luxury still being indulged in by many persons, to the annoyance of their neighbors, the premier would consider the advisability of passing drastic sumptuary laws which would insure the strictest domestic economy and put all classes upon a footing during the year of greater equality in their mode of living."

RETURNS TO SAN ANTONIO HEADQUARTERS — OFFICERS BELIEVES AFFAIRS SETTLED FOR A TIME.

Nagales, Ariz., Nov. 10.—With the Mexican situation quiet as a result of a failure to switch the allegiance of the Nagales, Sonora, garrison from General Francisco Villa to General Carranza, Major General Frederick Funston found it necessary to remain here and left today for his headquarters at San Antonio, Texas.

It is the opinion of army officers that conditions all along the border are settled for a few weeks at least.
