There is one good reason the Democrats can advance in support of its retention in power-that it may have an opportunity to correct its mistakes. But the American people have heretofore shown a disposition to let Republicans correct Democratic mistakes.

The machine for the new picture house soon to be opened in Edmore, house Co. It is a power 6a, absolutely the latest machine made, and the...

as used in the Grand at Devils Lake and all other first-class houses. There is no flicker to the pictures projected by this machine and no danger of burning a film—two notable features. We are promised some information on the film service in a day or two, which we will publish next week. We are told by those at the head of the enterprise that the service will be the equal of any and surpassed by none, as it is the "pace-maker" in the movie world. Also the management expects to please the people and give them a show worth every cent of the price charged.

But a certain film will not please all. The management to guard against dissatisfaction will always stand willing and ready to refund the admission to any and all who are not pleased.

Secretary McAdoe proposes a "non-partisan" shipping board as part of the machinery for his scheme of government ownership in the steamship business. He proposes as two members the Secretaries of Commerce, and of the Navy. Knowing how delightfully "non-partisan" Messrs. Redfield and Daniels are, and how strictly "non-partisan" Mr. Wilson was in naming the new Reserve and the Federal Trade Commission, we begin to perceive that Secretary McAdoe is a humorist.
