Another special agent, James L. Rogers, has been sent to Mexico by President Wilson, to interview Carranza. The senate was no more consulted in respect to this peripatetic ambassador than it will be in respect to the next note which will be sent to one of the European belligerents. Will he be an addition to Mr. Wilson's roster of liars?

Fordville Chronicle: Fred T. Cuthbert, a prominent Devils Lake attorney, is a candidate for Congress, and the opinion of those who follow the political horoscope seems to be that Congressman Helgeson has the scrap of his life on his hands. Cuthbert is clever and popular, a whirlwind campaigner with a clean record and will sure make an impression on the voters.

Since returning from his European trip Sam Clark has been making some noise thru the papers. Sam is evidently advertising his "Jim Jam Jems", as he promises to have some interesting articles appear in his little magazine.

At the recent primaries in Indiana there were not enough Republican ballots to meet the demand in some precincts—and we understand that it will require enlarged ballot boxes in Indiana next fall to hold the Republican vote.

Stand by the President! Certainly. Where is the President standing just now, by the way?

ROBIN HOOD AT THE GRAND WEDNESDAY

"Robin Hood", the celebrated comic opera by Messrs de Koven and Smith, will be the offering at the Grand on Wednesday Night, March 29th at 8:15.

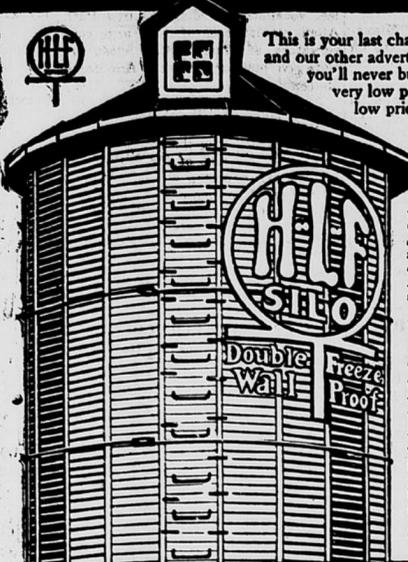

This opera will be presented by the de Koven Opera Co., an organization composed of Grand opera singers. In this notable cast of vocal artists first mention should be given Ivy Scott, the charming young Australian prima donna, who made such a success as Madam Butterfly and as the Girl in "The Girl of the Golden West." Miss Scott possesses a remarkable lyric soprano voice of dramatic quality, and sings the role of Maid Marian with an artistic beauty worthy of the highest praise. The title role will be sung by Ralph Brainard, whose fine tenor voice is admirably suited to the part. Wm. Schuster will play the part of Friar Tuck. Mr. Schuster's performance of the lovable old monk is said to be a classic.

Cora Tracy will be the Alan-a-Dale and her rich contralto adds new beauty to Mr. de Koven's best known song, "O, Promise Me". Another recruit from Grand Opera is James Stevens of the Chicago Opera Co., whose singing of "Brown October Ale" gives a pleasure only possible from such splendid baritone voice. Herbert Waterous, a fine basso, will sing the famous "Armourers" song Marie McConnell, Tillie Salinger, Phil Branson and Sol Solomon complete the cast, the excellence of which has never been surpassed, if equalled in comic opera. An exceptional singing chorus carried by the company is of the highest order. Special mention is made of the vocal merit of this company, in justice to the charm of Reginald de Koven's music. This elaborate production, which is under the direction of Fred E. Walker, is the same as that given at the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York, during the long run of "Robin Hood" in that city last year.

The performance here will undoubtedly be the social and musical event of the season.

Last chance to buy H-L-F Silo

This is your last chance to buy a 1916 H-L-F Silo. The orders resulting from this and our other advertising will keep our big factory busy night and day. Probably you'll never buy an H-L-F Silo as cheap again. Our stock was bought at a very low price; right now prices are mounting skyward, but you'll get the low price if you answer this ad, and want to buy the H-L-F Silo.

Don't freeze—keeps silage better and you save $50 to $200

Even though it were not massively strong—if it did not have double freeze-proof walls and if it did not save fifty to two hundred dollars—the H-L-F Silo would still be the best silo you could possibly buy, BECAUSE IT KEEPS SILAGE IN BETTER CONDITION. It's air-tight—just like a sealed fruit jar. Here's what users say: "The cows are eating the ensilage as if it were honey and sugar," writes Aug. Helms, of Owatonna, Minn. "I have the sweetest ensilage in the country," says A. T. Lawrence, of Roseburg, Oregon. "Never saw better silage," says C. M. Patterson, of Hysham, Mont.
