

There is Still Time to Nominate a Winner in Contest

In First Coupon Below, Accompany With Remittance in Second Coupon Form, Pick a New One If You Wish--Today

Overland Car is Luring Votes By the Thousands

Sensational Success Attending All Contestants and It's a Battle Royal From Now to October 28th --23 More Working Days Until the Big Decision--Nearly $1,200 in Prizes to Be Given Away.

Don't Overlook the $15 Club Offer

Twenty-three days left of the biggest and busiest Contest in the history of Devils Lake. It has been a pleasure to conduct this campaign. There has been more than the usual interest manifested right from the beginning and there is a constant increase of enthusiasm and good feeling as the days fly swiftly on to Oct. 28th, and our fine group of candidates strive bravely for the victory. Just twenty-three more days for the workers--that is not long. To win an automobile in 23 days is worth the supreme effort. Are we disheartened? Not a bit of it. Are we anxious? Assuredly. But nothing easily accomplished is of any great or enduring value. To work and win in these 23 days will bring a life-time of happy recollections.

COUNTY--RAMSEY

Ramsey county is a beautiful division of a magnificent state. The highways are splendid, smooth, pleasant to use as speedways in such a mission as this in which the contestants are finding themselves. To visit the residents of the county is a comparatively easy matter. Four weeks is ample time to afford every person interested in this contest to make a thorough canvas for votes. Supplementary to the trip, or in lieu of it often, the telephone call is productive of results, at least serving as an introductory for the personal call made as soon as possible. There need not be an idle moment from now on until the finish of this dash for the goal.

And the goal? Well, there's the Overland touring car, five passenger. The model is 1917 and right royally up to the highest standard of beauty and excellence for the coming season. Also the $100.00 phonograph and other cash prizes. Even to fail in the winning of one of the five leading prizes, there is a ten percent commission as compensation. Surely The World and the Contest people are extremely liberal, doing all possible to make a huge success of this campaign. The World is already in the homes of hundreds of people in Devils Lake and Ramsey County, but there is a great number yet that we would like to see on our list. As a special inducement we will offer during this second voting period a free ballot good for 35,000 free votes for each and every 15 new subscriptions handed into this office by October 18th. We will also give 40,000 Free Votes for each and every $15.00 turned in on new or old subscriptions. The car may be won during this period if you put in your strongest efforts.

Model 85-4 Overland, $865.00

TIMELY SUGGESTIONS

To Candidates: Keep everlastingly at it. Constant effort will produce results. There is no such thing as regret for you in the final count if you but strive sincerely to win. And win B-I-G.

There are no losers. Five magnificent grand prizes to the five whose county is highest. Decision by Judges to whom will be given the keys to the sealed ballot box during the day before the closing, October 28th.

There is still many to interview as prospective subscribers. That Ramsey county is good for 500 new subscriptions the coming two weeks is a safe estimate. Then those who subscribe at the be-

Standing of Contestants up until noon Wednesday.

Devils Lake
Mrs. Wm. Redmond	426,000
Mrs. C. E. Stinson	406,500
Edmore
Mildred Dougherty	454,000
Loretta McLain	233,500
Crary
Alice Forslof	75,200
Lawton
Elvira Bratt	237,500
Pease
Miss Huse	83,000
Churchs Ferry
Miss Hoystad, R. R.	5,000
Starkweather
Tina Iverson	442,500

SOLDIERS FIND DEAD TROOPER

BODY OF AMERICAN SOLDIER IS FOUND BY COMRADES BADLY MUTILATED.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 26.—An unidentified American soldier's body badly mutilated, was found near El Valle yesterday according to a report received here from the punitive camp in Mexico this afternoon. It is believed the body was that of an American trooper of the Fifth United States Cavalry, who took part in the saloon brawl at El Valle last Saturday night and who was missing when the seven other troopers reached the field base at El Valle, following an encounter between Carranza soldiers and the American troopers, during which a Carranza sergeant is said to have been killed. The finding of the American body is said to have cast a deep gloom over the camp of the punitive expedition, following the celebration of General John Pershing's promotion to major general.

ginning of the contest will probably repeat when they are made to realize how near the contestant is to victory. Hundreds of The World subscribers are quite willing to pay in on new or old subscriptions. Consult the lists and secure dates of expiration, visit personally when possible to secure quick action.

TO THE SUBSCRIBERS AND FRIENDS

Now is the best time in the history of Devils Lake journalism to subscribe or renew for The World. It is a growing newspaper and worth your while. Everybody wants it, nearly all read it for miles distant. It is destined, judged by its enterprise, to continue to be the best and most widely read paper in the Lake Region.

Cut Out the Nomination Blank Today and Send to Contest Manager

5000 GOOD FOR VOTES NOMINATION BLANK 5000

I hereby nominate
 Mrs. or Miss
 Name of Candidate

Town R. F. D.
 as a candidate in The World Inter-Ocean subscription campaign.

Name of sender

Contest Manager, Care The World Inter-Ocean:

I hereby send $..... for subscription to The World Inter-Ocean, new..... or old....., for which please credit the number of votes according to the vote schedule.

For M Candidate

ADDRESS

Address of Subscriber

Town State R. F. D.

Cut Out the 50-Vote Ballot and Send to Contest Manager Today.

50 This Ballot Not Good After October 4th. 50

GOOD FOR VOTES

FOR M

TOWN R. F. D. STATE

Good for 50 votes when filled-out and sent to the contest manager, care of The World Inter-Ocean, on or before the expiration of this ballot. No ballot will be altered in any way or transferred after being received by the contest manager.

Address, CONTEST MANAGER, CARE OF THE WORLD INTER-OCEAN.

(Please cut neatly around margin.)

IN NORTH DAKOTA

News of the Week From Many Sections of the State.

MANY ITEMS OF INTEREST

Events Are Briefly Written in Order to Make Perusal Easier for Busy Readers.

Action has been taken at Fargo for the complete motorization of the fire department of that city.

The lifeless body of Chris Christianson, twenty-three years old, was found by a maid in a hotel at Fargo.

As a result of a canvass of Rhame it is probable that an electric light plant will be installed to furnish lights for the town.

Burglars gained entrance to the J. S. Hart store at Ray by removing a window and escaped with about $300 worth of merchandise.

Heart failure caused the death of the four-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Bannon of Mott while she lay sleeping in a carriage.

The new Methodist Episcopal church at Stanton was dedicated Oct. 1. It is one of the latest and most up-to-date edifices in the state.

Mrs. Henrietta Bushbald, for thirty-seven years a resident of the state, died recently at Jamestown, where she had lived for twenty-five years.

Valley City was selected as the 1917 meeting place for the North Dakota Congregationalists' conference at the closing session at Hankinson.

A large barn belonging to Massey and Larson, north west of Newville, was destroyed by a fire which is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

Theodore Skolen was almost instantly killed while riding with his employer in an automobile at DeLemere. The machine skidded and turned over.

Restrictions adopted at Fargo to prevent the spread of infantile paralysis have been abandoned. Health authorities announced that danger of a further epidemic had passed.

Rock Lake authorities arrested Wilbur H. Lingofelt, engineer, wanted in St. Paul for deserting his wife and four children. Lingofelt was returned to St. Paul to await trial.

Surveyors are engaged in running a line from Dickinson to Amidon. Farmers and business of the section are behind a proposition to build a direct railroad between the two points.

Alfred Sobern of Scranton, fifteen years old, shot in the side by the accidental discharge of a shotgun held by a boy companion, will survive his injuries but may be crippled for life.

Mrs. J. M. Risley, living near Minot, suffered a broken jaw and other injuries when her automobile turned over on a hill near there. The steering device failed to operate correctly.

Harry Delaney was killed when buried in the cave-in of a drainage ditch near Hankinson, and Albert Zimmerman was slightly injured in fighting his way to freedom after he went to Delaney's assistance.

Mrs. Henry Birgus, fifty-six years old, of Vernon, was almost instantly killed when she attempted to pass between two parts of a "broken" freight train near her home. As she entered the gap the train backed up.

Frank B. Wood of Fargo and formerly of Deering, who has been actively identified with the Society of Equity for years, has been named as manager of the new live stock department of the Equity at South St. Paul.

Myrtle Natwick, fifteen years old, was scalped at her home near Granville when he half caught in the gear of a windmill. She will recover. The girl walked about 100 yards from the windmill to the house before fainting.

S. E. Strick entered a plea of guilty in the county court at Minot to a charge of issuing and passing worthless checks. He was sentenced to thirty days in jail and to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of the prosecution.

Louis Rehm, a prominent farmer near Hebron, was badly injured by a threshing machine on the farm of Herman Glass near Hebron. Mr. Rehm's leg was so badly lacerated that it was necessary to amputate below the knee.

Any merchant of Mott who keeps his place of business open on Sundays in violation of the Sunday closing law, will be prosecuted, according to a circular letter sent out to all merchants of Mott by State's Attorney V. H. Crane.

William E. Beck of Washington, D. C., for many years a resident of Jamestown, is dead at Lewisburg, Pa., where he was visiting. Mr. Beck had extensive land holdings in Stutsman county, at one time having a total of 27,000 acres.

Consolidated, rural and graded schools of North Dakota will receive only about one-half of the state aid to which they are entitled legally, because of an insufficient appropriation, according to a circular notice sent out from the state department of education.

Out of the ruins of the $200,000 fire which wiped out the entire business section of Ellendale on May 9, new brick buildings are rising up, several being already completed, while others will be finished in another month.

Cattle roundups, under way on the Fort Berthold reservation, will result in the shipment of $500,000 worth of beef to the market shortly. Stockmen holding lands on the reservation under lease from the government have begun their annual shipments.

H. W. Norton, alias Harry Nolan, who was arrested by Sheriff Ross at Arnegard on a charge of wife desertion, also in a bigamist, officials claim. Norton, who went under the name of Nolan at Fargo, was arrested after a chase of nearly two years.

Mrs. Walter Hanson returned to Mandan from the funeral of her six-year-old son to find that in her absence her four-year-old daughter had died in the hospital. Both deaths resulted from intestinal trouble, which has been epidemic at Mott, where the Hanson family lives.

J. D. Murphy, arrested at Fargo for selling liquor on the street, overlooked one bet when arraigned before Judge Hanson. He asked that he be free for Christmas dinner at home forgetting about Thanksgiving. He got ninety days, beginning Sept. 24, and will have his wish.

Dickinson was chosen for the next meeting of the North Dakota Bar association at the closing session of the 1916 gathering at Devils Lake. Officers elected are R. M. Pollock, Fargo, president; F. T. Cuthbert, Devils Lake, vice president, and Oscar Seller, Jamestown, secretary.

Fighting single-handed an attack by an infuriated bull, Mrs. E. Thelle of Glen Ullin, seventy-three years old, suffered serious injuries to her limbs and body. The woman was thrown to the ground and gored repeatedly by the animal. Harvest workers in a field nearby rescued her.

Not to be outdone by their white sisters, Indian women of the Standing Rock reservation held a baby show at the reservation fair. The cowboy pageant was a feature of the fair, which attracted more than 2,000 Indians, who camped as in days of yore near the fair grounds.

Carl Rasmussen, a farmer near Kenmare, seeing a forty-pound lynx in the path of his grain binder, attempted to drive over it. Just as the animal was about to leap at Rasmussen's throat its hind legs caught in the axle of the binder and were cut off. The lynx fell on the apron of the machine, where it was killed.

Five persons were injured, one probably mortally, when the automobile in which they were riding near Russell turned over when a front tire blew out. The injured are Miss Ida Mathwig of Fall Creek, Wis., Miss Mable Volbreth, Miss Margaret Kaeding, Miss Martha Feller and Rindhardt Kaeding, driver, all of Kramer.

Residents of Crosby were furnished considerable excitement when children playing around a gasoline tank near the Great Northern station procured matches and set fire to the drippings from the tank. Hard work by the fire department prevented what threatened to be a destructive explosion.

Evidence laid before M. A. Hildreth, United States district attorney, by Miss Anka Krogh of Valley City normal school student of Belfield, resulted in the arrest of the girl's father, Julius Krogh, by Stark county officials. Offenses over a period of two years are covered by the state. At the hearing Krogh was bound over to the district court.

The best collection of public documents on all phases of Indian life which can be found in the country is on the shelves of the historical society at Bismarck, according to Dr. Melvin R. Gilmore, curator of the historical museum. The work pertains to all activities of the redmen in fur trading, agriculture, missions and all other trades and professions.

With sixteen specific charges of irregularities, fraud and corruption against the Adams county board of commissioners were aired before I. P. Baker, referee, appointed by Governor Hanna. State's Attorney Crane brought the action against the county commissioners, who are William Colgrove, Paul Smith and John Reiger.

North Dakota now stands second in the United States in the number of rural consolidated schools, and in proportion to population heads the list, according to the fifth annual state report on rural, graded and consolidated schools. There are 401 consolidated schools in the state, 151 being open country and 250 town consolidated schools. All counties except one are represented. These figures represent an increase of 237 schools in five years or an average increase of 57 per cent as against an increase of less than 6 per cent when there was no state aid.

Postoffice inspectors are investigating the robbery of the Pillsbury post office. The yeags blew the safe and escaped with $200. So quiet was the work done that no one knew anything of the robbery until the postmaster arrived at the office.

William Fishman, clothing store proprietor of Grand Forks, sold a shirt for $1.25. When the patron left via the back door after going to the rear to change shirts, Fishman discovered the cash drawer's contents, amounting to $125, had gone too.

While intoxicated, Walter Utzinger entered unbidden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melborne of Fargo and seizing the latter began dragging her about when her husband interfered and called the police. At the hearing the assailant was bound over to the district court for trial.

Through the establishment of a tow mill in Dunn, Center farmers of the district will realize returns on their fax straw which heretofore have been denied them. The company will pay $2 a ton for the straw and it is expected that 2,000 tons will be marketed this season.

When it comes to a question of serving time in jail or working, jail is preferable, thinks Walter Zarn of Fargo, who was "sent up" for 150 days. Zarn was found guilty of bootlegging, but Judge Hanson suspended sentence on condition the defendant go to work. He didn't go to work.

As a result of the benefit performance given by the ladies' auxiliary to Company H, North Dakota National Guard, at Jamestown, the amount of $900 was cleared. The benefit was given in the opera house and other amusement places in the city closed during the entertainment.

Police and members of the sheriff's department at Jamestown hold a warrant charging J. D. Hurn, traveling representative for the Fergus Falls Woolen mills with jumping a board bill at the Hotel Brunswick amounting to $65. The warrant was sworn to by J. J. Fielder, proprietor of the hotel.

Carelessness in the operation of a gasoline stove caused the death of Mrs. T. Bjornson of Hamilton. After lighting, Mrs. Bjornson left without regulating the flow of oil, and upon returning the blaze was reaching the ceiling. In attempting to put out the fire her clothing became ignited and she was burned to death.

In a running fight in which two bandits opened fire on two officers from the top of a box car, Special Officer Robert Hewitt of Sykton was shot in the thigh and his deputy, A. Crites, had a bullet graze his neck. The bandits had attempted to hold up several transients who were engaged in a game of poker in a box car.

Charles E. Winchell of North Adams, Mass., member of a hunting party headed by Governor Hanna at the Sam Clark ranch, twenty miles north of Dawson, is in a Fargo hospital recovering from an injury received when he fired his first shot.

Winchell lost the thumb and forefinger of his left hand in a premature explosion of the shell.

Attacked by an I. W. W., whom he was assigning to a cell in the county jail at New Rockford, together with five other members of the organization, Sheriff George F. Fahrner shot the prisoner in the foot. The man swung on Fahrner with a chair and threatened to repeat when the official drew a gun. The sheriff's action prevented a threatened jail delivery.

Eighteen I. W. W.'s were before Police Justice James at Kenmare for a hearing on charges of disorderly conduct against a part of the crowd. The trouble was an internal affair in which a large number of those who congregated about Kenmare got into a mixup among themselves and the officials were called to quell the disturbance.

Suit brought by D. H. McArthur, Democratic candidate for governor, has been filed in the supreme court, asking the removal of Fred McCann, chairman; J. Nelson Kelly, treasurer, and Halvor Halvorson, secretary of the Democratic state central committee, on the grounds the officers cannot hold their positions because they are not members of the committee.

Just four days after he was released from the Minnesota state penitentiary, where he served a term of three years, Joe Syer, was again placed behind the bars, this time in the Grand Forks county jail, to serve thirty days for assault and battery. Mrs. George Prentice charged that Syer entered her home uninvited and in the fracas that followed choked and beat her.

Youngest Hero on Record.

Frank Alvin Rudolph, five years old, of Great Falls, Mont., is perhaps the youngest officially named hero on record. He has just been awarded a bronze medal by the Ralston Purina Hero Commission for rescuing his sister from drowning.

The baby hero was four years old at the time. His sister, then aged five, fell into the Missouri river. Frank unhesitatingly waded into swirling rapids that would have made many adults think twice before acting and, by apparently superhuman efforts, pulled the little girl ashore.