

AT THE GRAND

How a modest girl with a captivating smile lured a Manhattan Insurance Company into a work-shop of lovelorn wretches forms the basis for the next Constance Talmadge picture which will be seen at the Grand theatre, commencing Thursday.

When Nobility Becomes Commercial

"A virtuous Vamp," is the title of this attraction, which is based on Clyde Fitch's play, "The Bachelor." John Emerson and Anita Loos, the screen's foremost satirists, are responsible for the adaptation and eastern critics have showered high praise on their effort.

As Nellie Jones, Miss Talmadge takes the part of a girl who found it convenient to cast aside her aristocratic name of Gwendolyn Diana Beau fort Armitage, in order to gain a place in the insurance office of James Crowninshield, a bachelor who hated to mix social affairs with business.

Nellie is a steady stenographer until Gilda, a Broadway shimmy dancer, makes application for a $50000 policy on her shoulders. Then it becomes necessary for the winsome typist to escort the staid Mr. Crowninshield to a jazz parlor for an investigation of this matter.

It is then that Crowninshield decides a sop being a bachelor, and this makes the beginning of Nellie's vampirist attempts to win the only man who refuses to be captivated by her "innocent" wiles.

Also Sunshine comedy "Footlight Maids."

AT THE UNIQUE

William Desmond, the star with a smile in every punch, blarneys and fights his way through five thrilling reels in "The Blue Bandanna," his latest production, which will be shown at the Unique theatre Friday and Saturday.

"The Blue Bandanna" is an original story by Eugene B. Lewis, made under the direction of Joseph J. Franz for Robertson-Cole release.

This is a story of the vest as Jerry Jerome (Desmond), a young New York millionaire, found it. When the doctor told Jerry his hemoglobin was forty points shy, which accounted for several cylinders in his brain motor missing, Jerry hiked for the west in order to get away from the excitement of Wall street and feed on the mental pap of the wild and woolly.

But Jerry ran into more excitement in Wyoming in a few weeks than the bulls and bears of "the street" had ever stirred up. The stage driver told him "they ain't no excitement in the west no more," but Jerry hadn't been there twenty-four hours when the bandits got busy.

Jerry got busy too, and with the enthusiasm of a kid started out to emulate Nick Carter and run the bandits to earth. When he found one of the bandits was the father of the girl he had fallen in love with, and was an ex-convict besides, it complicated matters all around.

Jean Acker wins new favor in the role of Ruth Yoncy. Others in an excellent cast are Russell Simpson, Frank Lanning and Richard La Reno. Also comedy "Mutt and Jeff."

TELLS OF FIGHT WITH CANNIBALS

Rice Party Has Encounter With Giant White Savages in South America.

NOT AFRAID OF FIREARMS

Professor Rice Says That in All His Experience in Tropical Jungles He Never Saw Such Ferocious Looking Savages.

New York.—The exploring party headed by Dr. Alexander Hamilton Rice, which clashed last February near the banks of the Orinoco with giant cannibals, returned here from Para.

With Doctor Rice came Mrs. Rice, formerly Mrs. George D. Widener of Philadelphia, who accompanied her husband on some of his South American explorations; Chester H. Ober, geographer of the expedition; A. W. Swanson, J. E. Mason and Dr. G. E. Byers.

It was while exploring an unnamed tributary of the Orinoco river that the party was attacked. The discharge of firearms failed to scare off the savages, who were described as large and fierce, and the explorers only escaped by firing into them, killing either two or three. The party then turned back.

Not Previously Seen Since 1763. "The cannibals were almost white in color," Professor White said. "In all my years in the tropical jungles I have never seen such ferocious looking savages. Nearly all were armed with bows and arrows and carried spears and blowguns. They were more than six feet tall and I recognized them as cannibals of the Guarani tribe, a mountain legion considered the most ferocious of all the savages in either Venezuela, Colombia, or Brazil."

The professor declared he believed it was the first time these cannibals were met by white men since 1763, when a Spanish expedition discovered them.

Record Trip for White Woman. Mrs. Rice was not with her husband on the occasion of the attack on the party. However, she traveled with the party as far as Esmeralda, Brazil, penetrating further into the Amazon wilderness than any other white woman, according to the explorer.

The Rio Negro and other outlets of the Amazon were explored and charted, as well as the Casiquiare canal and the Upper Orinoco, Doctor Rice said. A number of specimens were brought back for the Peabody museum at Harvard.

QUEEN'S CHAIR IN JUNGLE

Africans Say Spirit of Old Chief Guards Supposed Gift of Victoria.

London.—The massive chair made of copper, which natives believe was given by the late Queen Victoria of England to an Ashanti chieftain and used by him as his throne, has been discovered in the midst of a jungle far from human habitation in the Gold Coast colony, West Africa. According to native legend, it was placed over the grave of the chieftain who had occupied it when alive.

In their superstition, they believe he still sits upon his old throne in spirit at certain times and, for this reason, they have never tried to move the chair, which they declare, has now rooted itself in the ground, says a dispatch to the Daily Graphic.

A Gold coast surveyor first stumbled across this curiosity. A search party returned to the spot and found the jungle so dense that the natives had to hack a path with cutlasses through the undergrowth.

In spite of inquiry, no confirmation of the native story as to the history of the chair has been obtainable and how it came to be in the jungle remains a mystery.

City Doubled Taxes on Profiteering Landlord

A 100 per cent increase in the assessed valuation of his property was the penalty imposed by the Detroit city council on Jacob Shevitz, owner of a nine-family apartment house, who was accused of increasing their rents from $42 to $90 per month.

Dream That Will Not Come True.

Roupeverte, W. Va.—Miss Emma Huff almost became the wife of Bert Treadway, but the indications now are that she will never marry him. The license had been procured and the couple were on the way to a minister's when officers placed Treadway under arrest on the charge of murdering Charles Scott. Treadway has confessed and accepted a life term in the state penitentiary.

HIS NAME WAS BIBLE

So Judge Thought He Could Take Chance on Him.

Almost Lost Confidence in Human Nature When Paroled Prisoner Showed Up.

Tulsa, Okla.—Because his last name sounded all right, Judge Maxey of this city released Lewis Bible on his own recognizance when he was arraigned on the charge of passing a bad check.

"Your name," said the Judge, "sounds all right. I'm betting that you will come back on the day set for your trial."

The day came, and the hour—9 o'clock in the forenoon—and no Bible put in an appearance. The witnesses were there, both for the state and the defense. They had not seen Bible since the day he was released.

"This is one time you have made a mistake," observed the county attorney to Judge Maxey. The judge shook his head.

"His name is all right," he contended, "and he looked all right to me. But I may have been mistaken."

At 9:30 the witnesses were discharged and the case set over to another day. Judge Maxey ordered that the sheriff be sent to him; he would have Lewis Bible apprehended.

Ten o'clock came and a man on crutches hobbled into the court room. He was Lewis Bible, with one leg done up in splints and bandages.

"I got here as soon as I could, Judge," he said.

Then he explained that after his release he went to Cometa and went to work. His leg was broken the first day, and he had been in bed ever since. A friend in Cometa volunteered to take him to court to answer the charge against him, but his automobile balked and he did not reach the court house in time. Later it developed that Bible had not passed a bad check.

"You have restored my confidence in human nature and my ability to read it," said Judge Maxey as he discharged Lewis Bible.

The British Kingdom.

Great Britain includes England, Scotland and Wales. It is called Great Britain in distinction from Brittany (Bretagne, Lesser Britain). In the union with Scotland in 1707, Great Britain became the official name of the British kingdom, and so continued until the union with Ireland in 1801. Since then the form has been Great Britain and Ireland.

A Voice From Sioux City, Iowa, says

PE-RU-NA

Worth Its Weight In Gold

You cannot mistake the words of Mr. W. W. Northrup, of 908 Fourth Street, Sioux City, Iowa. He is enthusiastic about his present health and the merits of PE-RU-NA and wants everyone to know it. Here is a recent letter from him:

"PE-RU-NA is worth its weight in gold and then some. I used to think it only a woman's remedy but have changed my mind. I had a cough, especially in the morning. After using a bottle of PE-RU-NA was much better. I would cough up clouds of phlegm and mucus, my eyes itched and bothered me. Judging from the symptoms given in your almanac it was catarrh. My stomach is in much better condition since using your medicine."

"Use this testimonial, if you wish. Don't hesitate to advertise the merits of PE-RU-NA." (Signed) W. W. NORTHRUP.

There are thousands just like Mr. Northrup, skeptical at first but convinced by a trial of PE-RU-NA. DON'T BE AN UNBELIEVER. If your trouble is of a catarrhal nature, try PE-RU-NA, then tell your friends. It is fine after an attack of grip or Spanish Flu.

Mrs. Romelia Chapman Dies

Death came to Mrs. Romelia Chapman, aged 81 years, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Dungan, in this city, on Friday afternoon, May 21st. Mrs. Chapman had sustained a serious injury by a fall at the home of her brother, Mose Osborn, in Can-do, some time ago, and has gradually been growing weaker ever since. At her advanced age she was not able to rally from the effects of her injury, and has been confined to her bed ever since it occurred. Towards the latter part of her illness she suffered very keenly, and death came really as a welcome relief.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. Geo. B. Denison, were held Sunday afternoon from the Congregational church and the remains laid to rest in the Oddfellows cemetery. Besides her brother, Mose Osborn, and daughter Mrs. J. W. Dungan, who were, with their families, present at the funeral, her grandson, Rollo Chapman, was here from Devils Lake; also another daughter, Mrs. P. Olmstead, formerly of this city, whose home is now in Minnesota.—Cando Herald.

"There's a Special Minnesota Paint for Every Paintable Surface—Inside or Out"

When You Paint—Paint Right.

About 75% of the cost of a painting job goes to labor. The remaining 25 per cent represents the investment in paint. If this one-quarter is invested judiciously in good paints it will bring years of satisfaction. If invested in poor paints you may regret having had the work done—because you can't slip off a coat of paint like a misfit shoe if it proves unsatisfactory. And it will cost more to remove it than the original cost of the application.
