

DEMOCRATS NOMINATE GOV. COX - PALMER QUILTS IN 38TH BALLOT WHEN M'ADOO FORCES GO OVER

Forty-Four Ballots To Get All Factions In Line

IS POPULAR MAN

Race Settles Down To Long Battle For Election

San Francisco, Cal., July 6.—James M. Cox, governor of Ohio, was nominated for president of the United States in the Democratic national convention at 1:40 this morning. The nomination came at the conclusion of a forty-four ballot struggle in which he had steadily beaten down the forces of William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, and President Wilson's son-in-law.

Attorney General Palmer had withdrawn at the completion of the thirty-sixth vote, and the strength of William G. McAdoo had steadily dwindled in the succeeding ballots.

Governor Cox was within seven and one half votes of a majority on the forty-second ballot, and passed the majority on the forty-third ballot.

The convention then adjourned until noon when it will ballot on a vice president nominee. Cox had got 702 on the forty-fourth ballot, and it was made practically unanimous.

At 8:40 o'clock Chairman Robinson called the convention to order for its night session and the beginning of the thirty-seventh ballot.

On the thirty-seventh ballot, the first of the night session, Arizona nominated a full ticket. The state chairman announcing that "Arizona believes the ticket should be McAdoo and Cox" cast four for McAdoo and two for the Ohio governor.

Annette Adams, of California, recently appointed an assistant attorney general of the United States, got one vote from California.

New York stuck with Cox as Indiana had stuck with McAdoo. The report that Indiana proposed to switch back to Cox if McAdoo failed to show a start persisted. Palmer took one from McAdoo in North Dakota and then the familiar "Cox, 48," which had burst out from the Ohio space 38 times before roared out for the 37th time while the convention let out a storm of applause.

Fireworks Enliven Session. In Pennsylvania Palmer took one of McAdoo's only two and made his string 74 in his native state.

Some belated Fourth of July fireworks went off just outside the convention hall during the ballot with loud and prolonged reports. It was noticed about among the jokesters that "somebody's boom was being busted."

Accompanying one of the loud reports, Tennessee's 24 jumped out of the Palmer column and back to John W. Davis, of West Virginia. It was a jar to the rising Palmer vote.

Palmer's three in Wisconsin went one to Cox and two to McAdoo. Alaska's six were cast for James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, after being divided for many ballots between McAdoo, Palmer and Cox.

The convention turned to the thirty-eighth ballot.

Palmer Releases Delegates. Attorney General Palmer at the close of the thirty-eighth ballot released his delegates and left the Democratic national convention free to move out of its deadlock and nominate a presidential candidate.

At the end of the second ballot after the recess, when the Palmer vote had touched two hundred and eleven and it was apparent that it could be driven no higher, former Representative Carlin of Virginia, Mr. Palmer's manager, took the platform and announced the withdrawal of the attorney general from the race.

There was a roar of "Hurrah for Palmer!" as the lines broke and the convention went into a 20-minute recess.

During the recess there was circulated about the floor copies of a telegram from Judge Moore, Cox's manager in Daniel C. Roper of New York, accredited with being one of the McAdoo managers, charging that "a crowd of government employees and treasury officials are for their own personal ends and in defiance of Mr. McAdoo's expressed wishes, attempting to bring about the election of James M. Cox."

At 10:11 o'clock Chairman Robinson relented and decided the convention ought to go back to work. It went into the thirty-ninth ballot with a new enthusiasm. It was like a fresh start toward home after a long and vexatious delay at the roadside.

The faithful Pennsylvanians decided to vote once more for the attorney general on the ballot and then split.

The shifts and changes of the ballot were important. Alabama, first crack out of the box, broke 16 to Davis, taking all of Palmers and one of McAdoo's for it.

Georgia's 28 went solid for McAdoo as forecast and the McAdoo demonstrators got a great noise out of it.

The Finish. Thirty-fourth Ballot: McAdoo, 420 1/2; Cox, 378 1/2; Palmer, 184; Davis, 64; Cummings, 3; Owen, 37; Glass, 7 1/2; Clark, 2 1/2. Thirty-fifth ballot: Cox, 367 1/2; Palmer, 222; Davis, 89; Cummings, 1; Owen, 38 1/2; Glass, 5; Clark, 2; McAdoo, 409. Thirty-sixth ballot: McAdoo, 399; Cox, 377; Palmer, 241 1/2; Davis, 28; Cummings, 3; Owen, 26; Glass, 4; Clark, 2. Thirty-seventh ballot: McAdoo, 405 1/2; Cox, 386; Palmer, 202 1/2; Cummings, 3; Owen, 33; Davis, 50 1/2; Glass, 1; Clark, 2; Adams, 1; Bonniwell, 1; Lewis, 6. Thirty-eighth ballot: McAdoo, 405 1/2; Cox, 383 1/2; Palmer, 211; Davis, 50; Cummings, 4; Owen, 33; Glass, 1; Clark, 3. Thirty-ninth ballot: McAdoo, 440; Cox, 468 1/2; Palmer, 74; Davis, 71 1/2; Cummings, 2; Owen, 32; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. 40th ballot—McAdoo, 487; Cox, 490; Palmer, 19; Davis, 76; Cummings, 2; Owen, 33; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. Forty-first ballot—McAdoo, 458; Cox, 497 1/2; Palmer, 15; Davis, 55 1/2; Cummings, 2; Owen, 26; Glass, 24; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. Forty-second ballot—McAdoo, 427; Cox, 540 1/2; Palmer, 8; Davis, 49 1/2; Cummings, 3; Owen, 34; Clark, 2; Colby, 1; Glass, 24. Forty-third ballot: McAdoo, 410; Cox, 570; Palmer, 7; Davis, 57 1-3.

were packed with government employees holding out for the nomination of McAdoo, Moore's telegram stated that "the action of the payroll brigade is creating a national scandal to the ruin of the Democratic party."

Managers Caavass.

While the caucusing was going on, the floor of the convention hall took on the auspices of a country fair ground with a lot of electioneering going on. Here and there was a speaker on a chair making a stump speech for his favorite candidate with an admiring crowd about him. One speaker would try to draw the other fellows forward after the manner of a ballyhoo man on a midway. Some of the delegates called for order and a start of the balloting.

Chairman Robinson, sitting at ease in his big chair with his hands folded over his stomach, taking the first relaxation of a week smiled and replied: "What's your hurry. Let's wait a moment."

At 10:11 o'clock Chairman Robinson relented and decided the convention ought to go back to work. It went into the thirty-ninth ballot with a new enthusiasm. It was like a fresh start toward home after a long and vexatious delay at the roadside.

The faithful Pennsylvanians decided to vote once more for the attorney general on the ballot and then split.

The shifts and changes of the ballot were important. Alabama, first crack out of the box, broke 16 to Davis, taking all of Palmers and one of McAdoo's for it.

Georgia's 28 went solid for McAdoo as forecast and the McAdoo demonstrators got a great noise out of it.

The Finish. Thirty-fourth Ballot: McAdoo, 420 1/2; Cox, 378 1/2; Palmer, 184; Davis, 64; Cummings, 3; Owen, 37; Glass, 7 1/2; Clark, 2 1/2. Thirty-fifth ballot: Cox, 367 1/2; Palmer, 222; Davis, 89; Cummings, 1; Owen, 38 1/2; Glass, 5; Clark, 2; McAdoo, 409. Thirty-sixth ballot: McAdoo, 399; Cox, 377; Palmer, 241 1/2; Davis, 28; Cummings, 3; Owen, 26; Glass, 4; Clark, 2. Thirty-seventh ballot: McAdoo, 405 1/2; Cox, 386; Palmer, 202 1/2; Cummings, 3; Owen, 33; Davis, 50 1/2; Glass, 1; Clark, 2; Adams, 1; Bonniwell, 1; Lewis, 6. Thirty-eighth ballot: McAdoo, 405 1/2; Cox, 383 1/2; Palmer, 211; Davis, 50; Cummings, 4; Owen, 33; Glass, 1; Clark, 3. Thirty-ninth ballot: McAdoo, 440; Cox, 468 1/2; Palmer, 74; Davis, 71 1/2; Cummings, 2; Owen, 32; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. 40th ballot—McAdoo, 487; Cox, 490; Palmer, 19; Davis, 76; Cummings, 2; Owen, 33; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. Forty-first ballot—McAdoo, 458; Cox, 497 1/2; Palmer, 15; Davis, 55 1/2; Cummings, 2; Owen, 26; Glass, 24; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. Forty-second ballot—McAdoo, 427; Cox, 540 1/2; Palmer, 8; Davis, 49 1/2; Cummings, 3; Owen, 34; Clark, 2; Colby, 1; Glass, 24. Forty-third ballot: McAdoo, 410; Cox, 570; Palmer, 7; Davis, 57 1-3.

On the thirty-seventh ballot, the first of the night session, Arizona nominated a full ticket. The state chairman announcing that "Arizona believes the ticket should be McAdoo and Cox" cast four for McAdoo and two for the Ohio governor.

Annette Adams, of California, recently appointed an assistant attorney general of the United States, got one vote from California.

New York stuck with Cox as Indiana had stuck with McAdoo. The report that Indiana proposed to switch back to Cox if McAdoo failed to show a start persisted. Palmer took one from McAdoo in North Dakota and then the familiar "Cox, 48," which had burst out from the Ohio space 38 times before roared out for the 37th time while the convention let out a storm of applause.

Fireworks Enliven Session. In Pennsylvania Palmer took one of McAdoo's only two and made his string 74 in his native state.

Some belated Fourth of July fireworks went off just outside the convention hall during the ballot with loud and prolonged reports. It was noticed about among the jokesters that "somebody's boom was being busted."

Accompanying one of the loud reports, Tennessee's 24 jumped out of the Palmer column and back to John W. Davis, of West Virginia. It was a jar to the rising Palmer vote.

Palmer's three in Wisconsin went one to Cox and two to McAdoo. Alaska's six were cast for James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, after being divided for many ballots between McAdoo, Palmer and Cox.

The convention turned to the thirty-eighth ballot.

Palmer Releases Delegates. Attorney General Palmer at the close of the thirty-eighth ballot released his delegates and left the Democratic national convention free to move out of its deadlock and nominate a presidential candidate.

At the end of the second ballot after the recess, when the Palmer vote had touched two hundred and eleven and it was apparent that it could be driven no higher, former Representative Carlin of Virginia, Mr. Palmer's manager, took the platform and announced the withdrawal of the attorney general from the race.

There was a roar of "Hurrah for Palmer!" as the lines broke and the convention went into a 20-minute recess.

During the recess there was circulated about the floor copies of a telegram from Judge Moore, Cox's manager in Daniel C. Roper of New York, accredited with being one of the McAdoo managers, charging that "a crowd of government employees and treasury officials are for their own personal ends and in defiance of Mr. McAdoo's expressed wishes, attempting to bring about the election of James M. Cox."

At 10:11 o'clock Chairman Robinson relented and decided the convention ought to go back to work. It went into the thirty-ninth ballot with a new enthusiasm. It was like a fresh start toward home after a long and vexatious delay at the roadside.

The faithful Pennsylvanians decided to vote once more for the attorney general on the ballot and then split.

The shifts and changes of the ballot were important. Alabama, first crack out of the box, broke 16 to Davis, taking all of Palmers and one of McAdoo's for it.

Georgia's 28 went solid for McAdoo as forecast and the McAdoo demonstrators got a great noise out of it.

The Finish. Thirty-fourth Ballot: McAdoo, 420 1/2; Cox, 378 1/2; Palmer, 184; Davis, 64; Cummings, 3; Owen, 37; Glass, 7 1/2; Clark, 2 1/2. Thirty-fifth ballot: Cox, 367 1/2; Palmer, 222; Davis, 89; Cummings, 1; Owen, 38 1/2; Glass, 5; Clark, 2; McAdoo, 409. Thirty-sixth ballot: McAdoo, 399; Cox, 377; Palmer, 241 1/2; Davis, 28; Cummings, 3; Owen, 26; Glass, 4; Clark, 2. Thirty-seventh ballot: McAdoo, 405 1/2; Cox, 386; Palmer, 202 1/2; Cummings, 3; Owen, 33; Davis, 50 1/2; Glass, 1; Clark, 2; Adams, 1; Bonniwell, 1; Lewis, 6. Thirty-eighth ballot: McAdoo, 405 1/2; Cox, 383 1/2; Palmer, 211; Davis, 50; Cummings, 4; Owen, 33; Glass, 1; Clark, 3. Thirty-ninth ballot: McAdoo, 440; Cox, 468 1/2; Palmer, 74; Davis, 71 1/2; Cummings, 2; Owen, 32; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. 40th ballot—McAdoo, 487; Cox, 490; Palmer, 19; Davis, 76; Cummings, 2; Owen, 33; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. Forty-first ballot—McAdoo, 458; Cox, 497 1/2; Palmer, 15; Davis, 55 1/2; Cummings, 2; Owen, 26; Glass, 24; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. Forty-second ballot—McAdoo, 427; Cox, 540 1/2; Palmer, 8; Davis, 49 1/2; Cummings, 3; Owen, 34; Clark, 2; Colby, 1; Glass, 24. Forty-third ballot: McAdoo, 410; Cox, 570; Palmer, 7; Davis, 57 1-3.

WEATHER FORECAST

North Dakota: Occasional local showers probable until after middle of week, with temperature averaging above normal; probably fair latter portion.

E. M. CRARY IS HOST TO FORCES

The entire operating force of the Devils Lake World including the editorial and business staff, mechanical force and circulation departments, were entertained last Wednesday by E. M. Crary, former editor-publisher of the World, at an elaborate banquet at the Colonial hotel. The occasion was in honor of Mr. Crary's retirement from the newspaper field in Ramsey county, being succeeded in ownership by William Miller. Mrs. Crary assisted Mr. Crary in entertainment, officiating as hostess.

A token of appreciation of the friendly relations which existed for years between employer and employee, a Masonic insignia ring was presented to Mr. Crary by his former assistants. Fred S. Austin, advertising manager under Mr. Crary, made the presentation on behalf of the workers, responded to by the latter, who commended the entire force to Mr. Miller, who was present.

At 10:11 o'clock Chairman Robinson relented and decided the convention ought to go back to work. It went into the thirty-ninth ballot with a new enthusiasm. It was like a fresh start toward home after a long and vexatious delay at the roadside.

The faithful Pennsylvanians decided to vote once more for the attorney general on the ballot and then split.

The shifts and changes of the ballot were important. Alabama, first crack out of the box, broke 16 to Davis, taking all of Palmers and one of McAdoo's for it.

Georgia's 28 went solid for McAdoo as forecast and the McAdoo demonstrators got a great noise out of it.

The Finish. Thirty-fourth Ballot: McAdoo, 420 1/2; Cox, 378 1/2; Palmer, 184; Davis, 64; Cummings, 3; Owen, 37; Glass, 7 1/2; Clark, 2 1/2. Thirty-fifth ballot: Cox, 367 1/2; Palmer, 222; Davis, 89; Cummings, 1; Owen, 38 1/2; Glass, 5; Clark, 2; McAdoo, 409. Thirty-sixth ballot: McAdoo, 399; Cox, 377; Palmer, 241 1/2; Davis, 28; Cummings, 3; Owen, 26; Glass, 4; Clark, 2. Thirty-seventh ballot: McAdoo, 405 1/2; Cox, 386; Palmer, 202 1/2; Cummings, 3; Owen, 33; Davis, 50 1/2; Glass, 1; Clark, 2; Adams, 1; Bonniwell, 1; Lewis, 6. Thirty-eighth ballot: McAdoo, 405 1/2; Cox, 383 1/2; Palmer, 211; Davis, 50; Cummings, 4; Owen, 33; Glass, 1; Clark, 3. Thirty-ninth ballot: McAdoo, 440; Cox, 468 1/2; Palmer, 74; Davis, 71 1/2; Cummings, 2; Owen, 32; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. 40th ballot—McAdoo, 487; Cox, 490; Palmer, 19; Davis, 76; Cummings, 2; Owen, 33; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. Forty-first ballot—McAdoo, 458; Cox, 497 1/2; Palmer, 15; Davis, 55 1/2; Cummings, 2; Owen, 26; Glass, 24; Clark, 2; Colby, 1. Forty-second ballot—McAdoo, 427; Cox, 540 1/2; Palmer, 8; Davis, 49 1/2; Cummings, 3; Owen, 34; Clark, 2; Colby, 1; Glass, 24. Forty-third ballot: McAdoo, 410; Cox, 570; Palmer, 7; Davis, 57 1-3.

BASE BALL WON AND LOST THE SCORE

The home ball club in five games since Saturday, has won five games for the home fans and lost two.

The Scores. Saturday—D. Lake 7, Warwick 2. Sunday—D. Lake 4, Rugby 5. Monday (a.m.) D. L. 3, Rugby 1. Monday (p.m.) D. L. 7, Rugby 7. Tuesday—D. Lake 12, Lakota 2. Lakota failed to show in the game last night. Johnson, pitching, was, however, good for the first two innings with only one run scored off him but in the third, four runs came off the home plate. Again in the seventh, seven more runs scored. Lakota made its only runs in the fourth when things looked bad for Lally pitching for Devils Lake and two runs scored.

The Score: Inings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 — R H E. D. Lake 0 1 4 0 0 7 x—12 14 1. Lakota 0 0 0 2 0 0 — 2 4 4. Batteries: Devils Lake, Lally and Ho-meister. Lakota: Johnson and Billings. Umpires: Simms and Puhl.

On the first of September, 1915, he was elected superintendent of the North Dakota School for the Deaf by the board of control.

On June 24, 1896, Mr. Read was united in marriage to Miss M. Katherine Stevenson, who has also done excellent work as a teacher of the deaf in Iowa, Kansas and Illinois.

Mr. Read is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Margaret Katherine Read, who was a member of the graduating class of 1920 at the University of North Dakota. His mother who lives in Jacksonville, Illinois; and three brothers.

Mr. Read was a prominent member of the Masonic lodge and an elder of the Presbyterian church.

Chicago, Ill., July Republican chiefs gathered here to formulate plans for the coming presidential contest were undisturbed at the prospect of a contender from the home state of their candidate, Governor Cox, democratic nominee.

On the arrival of Chairman Will H. Hays today, work was immediately begun to map out the campaign. A series of conferences is being arranged.

On the thirty-seventh ballot, the first of the night session, Arizona nominated a full ticket. The state chairman announcing that "Arizona believes the ticket should be McAdoo and Cox" cast four for McAdoo and two for the Ohio governor.

Annette Adams, of California, recently appointed an assistant attorney general of the United States, got one vote from California.

New York stuck with Cox as Indiana had stuck with McAdoo. The report that Indiana proposed to switch back to Cox if McAdoo failed to show a start persisted. Palmer took one from McAdoo in North Dakota and then the familiar "Cox, 48," which had burst out from the Ohio space 38 times before roared out for the 37th time while the convention let out a storm of applause.

Fireworks Enliven Session. In Pennsylvania Palmer took one of McAdoo's only two and made his string 74 in his native state.

Some belated Fourth of July fireworks went off just outside the convention hall during the ballot with loud and prolonged reports. It was noticed about among the jokesters that "somebody's boom was being busted."

Accompanying one of the loud reports, Tennessee's 24 jumped out of the Palmer column and back to John W. Davis, of West Virginia. It was a jar to the rising Palmer vote.

Palmer's three in Wisconsin went one to Cox and two to McAdoo. Alaska's six were cast for James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, after being divided for many ballots between McAdoo, Palmer and Cox.

The convention turned to the thirty-eighth ballot.

Palmer Releases Delegates. Attorney General Palmer at the close of the thirty-eighth ballot released his delegates and left the Democratic national convention free to move out of its deadlock and nominate a presidential candidate.

At the end of the second ballot after the recess, when the Palmer vote had touched two hundred and eleven and it was apparent that it could be driven no higher, former Representative Carlin of Virginia, Mr. Palmer's manager, took the platform and announced the withdrawal of the attorney general from the race.

There was a roar of "Hurrah for Palmer!" as the lines broke and the convention went into a 20-minute recess.

FRANK J. READ WHO DIED HERE SUN., MOURNED

Was Superintendent of School For Deaf Since 1915

BURIAL IN KANSAS

Prominent In Lodge and Church Circles In Devils Lake

Frank J. Read, since 1915, superintendent of the North Dakota School for the Deaf here, who died at Mercy hospital Sunday following an illness lasting two weeks, will be buried at Olathe, Kansas. Mr. Read's body was shipped last night to the place of burial. Mrs. Read accompanying it. Funeral services were conducted at the school home of the deceased late yesterday afternoon. Hundreds of friends like his family, Mrs. Read and daughter, Miss Katherine M. Stevenson, mourn the loss of Mr. Read to the community.

Mr. Read was known thruout the state and northwest generally for his connection and prominent part played in educational work in his chosen branch.

Life In Brief. Mr. Read was born in Jacksonville, Illinois, August 12, 1866. His father was a pioneer teacher of the deaf, being connected with the Illinois school at Jacksonville for 38 years, during which time he was also editor of the school paper and minister to the deaf.

Mr. Read received his education in the Jacksonville public schools, later entering Illinois college and graduating with the degree of B. A. and M. A. in 1888. He was a member of the Phi Alpha, of which the first governor of North Dakota was one of the seven founders.

Becoming interested in educational work for the deaf, Mr. Read accepted a position in 1889 as a teacher in the Illinois School for the Deaf, which position he held until August 12, 1912, when he accepted the superintendency of the Oklahoma School for the Deaf.

On the first of September, 1915, he was elected superintendent of the North Dakota School for the Deaf by the board of control.

On June 24, 1896, Mr. Read was united in marriage to Miss M. Katherine Stevenson, who has also done excellent work as a teacher of the deaf in Iowa, Kansas and Illinois.

Mr. Read is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Margaret Katherine Read, who was a member of the graduating class of 1920 at the University of North Dakota. His mother who lives in Jacksonville, Illinois; and three brothers.

Mr. Read was a prominent member of the Masonic lodge and an elder of the Presbyterian church.

Chicago, Ill., July Republican chiefs gathered here to formulate plans for the coming presidential contest were undisturbed at the prospect of a contender from the home state of their candidate, Governor Cox, democratic nominee.

On the arrival of Chairman Will H. Hays today, work was immediately begun to map out the campaign. A series of conferences is being arranged.

On the thirty-seventh ballot, the first of the night session, Arizona nominated a full ticket. The state chairman announcing that "Arizona believes the ticket should be McAdoo and Cox" cast four for McAdoo and two for the Ohio governor.

Annette Adams, of California, recently appointed an assistant attorney general of the United States, got one vote from California.

New York stuck with Cox as Indiana had stuck with McAdoo. The report that Indiana proposed to switch back to Cox if McAdoo failed to show a start persisted. Palmer took one from McAdoo in North Dakota and then the familiar "Cox, 48," which had burst out from the Ohio space 38 times before roared out for the 37th time while the convention let out a storm of applause.

Fireworks Enliven Session. In Pennsylvania Palmer took one of McAdoo's only two and made his string 74 in his native state.

Some belated Fourth of July fireworks went off just outside the convention hall during the ballot with loud and prolonged reports. It was noticed about among the jokesters that "somebody's boom was being busted."

Accompanying one of the loud reports, Tennessee's 24 jumped out of the Palmer column and back to John W. Davis, of West Virginia. It was a jar to the rising Palmer vote.

Palmer's three in Wisconsin went one to Cox and two to McAdoo. Alaska's six were cast for James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, after being divided for many ballots between McAdoo, Palmer and Cox.

The convention turned to the thirty-eighth ballot.

Palmer Releases Delegates. Attorney General Palmer at the close of the thirty-eighth ballot released his delegates and left the Democratic national convention free to move out of its deadlock and nominate a presidential candidate.

At the end of the second ballot after the recess, when the Palmer vote had touched two hundred and eleven and it was apparent that it could be driven no higher, former Representative Carlin of Virginia, Mr. Palmer's manager, took the platform and announced the withdrawal of the attorney general from the race.

There was a roar of "Hurrah for Palmer!" as the lines broke and the convention went into a 20-minute recess.

During the recess there was circulated about the floor copies of a telegram from Judge Moore, Cox's manager in Daniel C. Roper of New York, accredited with being one of the McAdoo managers, charging that "a crowd of government employees and treasury officials are for their own personal ends and in defiance of Mr. McAdoo's expressed wishes, attempting to bring about the election of James M. Cox."

At 10:11 o'clock Chairman Robinson relented and decided the convention ought to go back to work. It went into the thirty-ninth ballot with a new enthusiasm. It was like a fresh start toward home after a long and vexatious delay at the roadside.

The faithful Pennsylvanians decided to vote once more for the attorney general on the ballot and then split.

MARKET DAY AUGUST FOURTH

Market Day in Devils Lake, August 4th, promises to be one of the greatest public events of the season. Business men are combining with leading farmers from all parts of the county to make the occasion one that will go down in the annals of Devils Lake as "the one big time for farmer, laborer, business man and professional get together."

Bronco busting, a cowboy relay race, a tug of war, foot races, and dancing on the city's new pavements if completed and if not, on the sidewalks, are all included in the plans being rapidly worked out.

MEXICAN REVOLTS STILL CONTINUING

Mexico City, Mexico, July 7.—Government troops have repulsed a new attack made by rebels under command of Osuna, a war department says. Osuna was wounded and was expected to be captured within twenty-four hours, the statement said.

Jesus Guajardo, who killed the rebel Zapata, is the newest revolt leader at Bermejillo, Chihuahua.

San Francisco, July 7.—Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was nominated for vice president by the Democratic national convention, and became the running mate of Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, the Democratic choice for the presidential nomination.

The first cries of "Cox and Roosevelt" rang through the convention hall and were mixed with the shouts of the vote of acclamation by which he was nominated without a ballot.

Mr. Roosevelt was placed in nomination, by Timothy Lansberry, a former representative from Ohio, who sat as a Cox delegate in the District of Columbia delegation. Seconds sprang from all parts of the convention hall, and although Roosevelt was not formally nominated until well after the business of nomination was taken up, there was never any doubt about it; and never at any time was there any opposition. The seconding of his nomination by Governor Smith of New York, from the Tammy delegation, clinched it.

Franklin D. Roosevelt Gets Second Place On Democratic National Ticket

San Francisco, July 7.—Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was nominated for vice president by the Democratic national convention, and became the running mate of Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, the Democratic choice for the presidential nomination.

The first cries of "Cox and Roosevelt" rang through the convention hall and were mixed with the shouts of the vote of acclamation by which he was nominated without a ballot.

Mr. Roosevelt was placed in nomination, by Timothy Lansberry, a former representative from Ohio, who sat as a Cox delegate in the District of Columbia delegation. Seconds sprang from all parts of the convention hall, and although Roosevelt was not formally nominated until well after the business of nomination was taken up, there was never any doubt about it; and never at any time was there any opposition. The seconding of his nomination by Governor Smith of New York, from the Tammy delegation, clinched it.

EDWARD F. FLYNN NAMED CANDIDATE FOR GREAT HONOR

May Become President Of The International Law Association

MEETS JULY 12-15

Will Represent N. Dak. Bar Association In New Jersey

Edward F. Flynn, prominent in the legal profession here, will represent North Dakota at the International convention of the Commercial Law League to be held at Asbury Park, New Jersey, July 12-15. Mr. Flynn will leave here tomorrow to attend.