The pictures selected as the best, will be sent to the publicity department of the Great Northern railroad to be used in pamphlets and advertising matter putting Ramsey county before the thousands of new-home seekers.

Ignatz Youngworth Gets In Trouble

Ignatz Youngworth, charged with assault on the person of a young girl found by Police Chief Timboe in Youngworth's hut, was bound over to district court for final trial at a preliminary hearing last week. Youngworth says he is 40 years old. The girl in the case is declared to be only 14. He has a varied police record, according to State's Attorney Rollo F. Hunt, prosecuting the case. Judge Duell in justice court, in remanding Youngworth to jail, fixed his bond at $1,000.

She's Wearing
Her Overalls

It was at the fair yesterday where we sighted the oddity of the day—a woman going about her work and pleasures in overalls. Mrs. T. J. Dyer of Kansas City, Missouri, controlling a cane rack privilege along with her hubby, is wearing the attire of a man—just a plain overall suit. No dear reader its not for style or to create attention "its common sense"—Mrs. Dyer says so.

Commissioners In Protracted Meeting

The board of county commissioners resumed sessions yesterday as the official board of tax equalization which is expected to occupy its attention for several additional days.

During the past week the board has sat as the county commission, the board of equalization and election can-

BASE BALL
WON AND LOST
THE SCORE

Base ball fans in Devils Lake and hundreds of fans from all parts of the district have been treated to a series of winnings by the local club during the past week. The game Monday night on the Soo diamond was the first loss of five games and that by the close score of 7 to 6, Valley City's club copping the winning end of the swatfest.

The games played since last Thursday show:
July 8, Warwick 4; D. Lake 9
July 9, Towner 2; D. Lake 17
July 10, Towner 1; D. Lake 9
July 11, N. E., 4; D. Lake 12
July 12, Valley City 7; D. Lake 6
July 13, Valley C. 4; D. Lake 2.

Passing board.
Only routine function has been noted thus far in the proceedings with the exception of the making of preparations to audit bills for payment before the final session closes.

Cobb Company To Build Additions

The R. E. Cobb company, owners and operators of the largest and most modern butter and ice cream manufacturing plant in the northwest, will add another story to its building before another year passes. This was the statement of Secretary Wells of the company, here this week from St. Paul. Plans are already being made for the one story addition to the three now in use—and it is possible two instead of one will be constructed when the addition is put up.

Celebrated Minstrels Are Coming

The minstrel man has been known from almost the beginning of this world's history and was well known by the writers of Biblical affairs. It is this very characteristic of the minstrel which makes it capable of appealing to all classes and when Harvey's Greater Minstrels appear at the Grand Tuesday, July 20th, there will be seen hundreds of people in the theatre who are not habitual theatre goers.

Champion Ice Skater Is Here

Everett McGowan, champion amateur ice skater of the United States and Canada, is in the city as a member of the Valley City base ball club. While here Mr. McGowan is visiting at the home of the C. J. Kellys. Many persons here will recall the picture of the skater who gained a national reputation last year. McGowan was shown on the movie screen at the Grand theatre in full action over an eastern ice course, winning his title.

Mr. McGowan said this morning that he is going after the professionals next winter and is already matched to meet Mathison, present title holder in that class.

Harding Is A Favorite Starkweather Struck By Hail

New York, July 15.—No sooner had the result of the Democratic canvas for a presidential candidate been completed than the betting fraternity in Wall street began their quadrennial sport of posting odds on the candidates.
Probably not one cent of money was actually placed today, but brokers announced tentative odds of two to one, Senator Harding as the favorite.

The region north of here from Starkweather southeasterly to the Rutten Church, suffered slight hail losses Sunday night when the storm which swept over Devils Lake with a deluge of dust hit across the grain fields. Art Powell of the Powell Insurance agency who reported the damage to the World declared many of the farmers were protected by insurance.
