A. E. Conrad, Editor of Latest Ramsey Enterprise

The Ramsey County Y. M. C. A. News, is the title of the latest publication to emanate from Devils Lake. Last week the first issue, published by the Ramsey County Y. M. C. A. with A. E. Conrad as editor, made its appearance. The paper, which literally takes on the appearance of a newspaper, contained a bountiful supply of general information and other matter of interest to the public.

It is proposed, according to Editor Conrad who is also county secretary of the Y's here, to secure a general circulation thruout the district, reaching every home where civic interest centers in the building up of the young men of the community. Five hundred copies were issued of the first number. Application for entry in the mails as second class matter has been filed with the local postoffice. Publication will be bi-monthly.

Officials of the county organization whose names appear at the head of the editorial columns of The News, are J. A. Haig, chairman; A. R. Smythe, vice president; M. H. Graham, recording secretary; H. S. Pond, treasurer and C. D. Mills, making up the executive committee.

Subscriptions for The News may be addressed to A. E. Conrad, Devils Lake. Fifty cents is the rate per year.

Elmer Engbretson Weds Ethel Smith

In an unostentatious manner, simplicity marking every turn of the way that promises to bring happiness to two of Devils Lake's most popular young folks, Miss Ethel Smith, Saturday, became the bride of Elmer Engbretson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Garfield Walker with only Blanding Fisher and Rollo F. Hunt for attendants.

Following pronouncement of the rites which made Miss Smith, Mrs. Elmer Engbretson, the couple, conveyed in Mr. Hunt's motor left for Lakota where a wedding dinner was already arranged for at the Lakota hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Engbretson are now on a brief honeymoon trip thru the east.

Mr. Engbretson has for years been proprietor of the Devils Lake Drug company store, while Miss Smith, daughter of Mrs. Flora Smith of this city, and a sister of Mrs. E. C. Gray of the Colonial gardens, has been a belle of the younger social set of Devils Lake.

Altho no announcement was made, it is presumed Mr. and Mrs. Engbretson will take up their residence on their return in apartments in the Baird Block.
