

FROM EXCHANGES

STARKWEATHER

(From The Starkweather Times)

Mrs. Nels Johnson returned Monday morning from Rochester, Minn., where she had been receiving medical treatment at the Mayo hospital at that place.

Through no fault of the Times, we neglected to make any mention of the arrival of a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Smith on Saturday, October 2.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Erickstad left by automobile for Minneapolis Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Erickstad may decide to spend the winter in California or Florida.

Rev. Victor A. Major came in last Thursday from Pembina and has assumed his duties as pastor of the local church. Rev. Major was formerly the pastor of the Methodist church at Pembina and was sent here by the annual Methodist conference held recently at New Rockford. Mrs. Major and children are expected to follow shortly.

Fred Anderson, whose family recently moved to Minneapolis to make their future home, returned here Monday morning to look after his farming interests and to cast his vote at the election Tuesday.

The pupils of the St. Joe school gave an appropriate Halloween program and basket social last week. The proceeds from the sale go towards buying a Victrola for the school. At the same time the matter of the reorganization of the St. Joe literary society was discussed.

Dr. W. J. Brownlee has recently been appointed the school dentist for the public schools of Buhl, Minn., to which place he removed some time ago.

John Rockey left Monday afternoon for his home at Gardner, Pa., to spend the winter.

George Mikkeljohn left Wednesday afternoon for his home at Monrovia, California, after a few weeks spent here looking after his interests.

Sivert Thompson, candidate for State's Attorney, and Romanus Downey, candidate for Register of Deeds, were here Thursday from Devils Lake looking after their political fences.

Mrs. C. Gudmundson and Mrs. R. R. Morgan entertained the Community Ladies Aid Thursday at the Morgan home.

Otto E. Hagen, of Devils Lake, candidate for Register of Deeds, was a visitor in town Tuesday in the interest of his candidacy.

Mrs. Levi Briggs left Thursday afternoon for Box Elder, Montana, where she will join Mr. Briggs and spend the winter at that place.

Dr. W. C. Fawcett and Fred Magnus drove to Alameda, Saskatchewan, Thursday for a short visit with our former townsman, P. F. Meharry.

Tuesday evening the local members of the Masonic Lodge met and perfected a study club, to be known as the Starkweather Masonic club. The purpose of the organization is the study of Masonry. It is planned to hold weekly meetings during the winter for the study of the work.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sallie Hanson on Wednesday, October 13.

Representative Martin Olsen and Sheriff Ed. Elliott were business visitors in town Friday morning.

Dan Freed, who has been employed in the City restaurant for some time, left Saturday for his home in Michigan.

Willis Olsen left Monday for Mud-baden Springs, Minn., where he will undergo treatment for rheumatism, from which he has been a sufferer the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hoy went to Erie, this state, Thursday, where they will spend a couple of weeks visiting at the home of a daughter. They will return here about the first of the month for a short stay before going south to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hemminger came in last week from Bagley, Minnesota, and are visiting here with Mr. Hemminger's mother. They expect to make their future home in this community. Mr. Hemminger is now taking care of the local school building during the absence of Willis Olsen.

CHURCHES FERRY

(From The Churches Ferry Sun)

Rev. W. A. Dunnett arrived Saturday, October 23, and held regular services on Sunday at Maza and Churches Ferry.

Ralph Zeller of Viborg, S. D., a brother of Mrs. L. E. Dougherty, arrived last week and has accepted a position with the E. A. Kildahl Dray Line.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith and the latter's mother, Mrs. Minnie Thompson, autoed from Rolette and were Sunday visitors at the W. A. Hansmann home. Mrs. Thompson will remain here for some time.

R. M. Godman, rural carrier on Route No. 2, moved to town this week and will occupy the Nelson residence recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. John Enderson.

Mrs. Geo. Lunde of Dooley, Montana, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kautson.

Rev. and Mrs. Tourtelotte left last Thursday by auto for their new home at Wheatland.

Mrs. E. F. Meier returned last week from a visit at her home at Berwick, North Dakota.

Benson County Teachers' Institute was held last week at Minnewaukan. The Misses Ida Overland, Helen Morris and Alta Godman, teachers in Norman township, attended.

Mrs. Long of Cathay, North Dakota, returned home the first of the week after spending a few days with her sister Mrs. E. F. Meier.

N. P. Christianson returned from Grand Forks, Tuesday, October 26, where he went with Mrs. Christianson who underwent an operation at the hospital Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Stansbury accompanied their niece, Miss Lieberg, as far as Devils Lake, Wednesday returning Thursday. Miss Lieberg left for the west.

Henry Barensher returned last week from New Albin, Iowa, where he was called to the deathbed of his sister. His brother, John, of Hardisty, Alberta, who also went to Iowa, stopped off here for a few days on his return home. He left for Hardisty on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Enger have rented the Studens residence that has been occupied by the C. B. Hesser family.

Mrs. Jacob Brehm, who was called to New Albin, Iowa, on account of the serious illness and death of her sister, returned home last week Thursday.

H. M. Hanson who recently purchased the T. E. Engelhorn residence, moved to town last week.

C. B. Hesser has resigned his position as Great Northern Station agent and expects to leave with his family for Live Oak, Fla., about November 1st. E. F. Meier, who for the past year has held the position as cashier and operator, has accepted the position left vacant by Mr. Hesser and has already taken charge.

The Julius Gilberg family of Starkweather were Sunday visitors at the P. N. Gilberg home.

Mrs. Jessie Kirkeide came up Wednesday from Grand Forks to visit friends and relatives here.

Tollef Erickson who has been looking after his farming interests west of here, left for his home at Rochester, Wednesday.

Julius Kerndt, who has been farming near Perth the past season, was in town last week on business. He has quit farming and has moved his family to Devils Lake.

Confirmation services were held at Antiochia church last Sunday and a class of two consisting of Christine Kirkeide and Ruda Blegen were confirmed.

Sivert W. Thompson was in town Tuesday looking after his fences. He is a young attorney of Devils Lake who aspires to the office of State's Attorney. He is strictly a home product — born and reared on a farm in Ramsey county. He is capable and a splendid young man and has many strong supporters in all parts of the county.

G. A. Risvold left last week Thursday for his home at Humboldt, Ia., called there on account of the illness of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Studley arrived from Fredonia, N. Y., last week Thursday for a short visit with old neighbors and friends. They are on their way to Long Beach, Cal., to spend the winter.

Rev. and Mrs. O. E. Tourtelotte were guests of honor at a large social gathering at the M. E. church basement on Wednesday evening.

The C. E. Harding family spent Sunday with relatives at Starkweather.

Miss Kathleen Brannan of Cando visited at the Phil Mought home a few days last week.

Mrs. Chas. Engelhorn returned Saturday from a few days visit with her sister at Southam, N. D.

Miss Ruth Leiberg arrived from Indiana Wednesday and is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Stansbury.

Mr. and Mrs. John Enderson left Wednesday for Long Beach, where they have purchased property and will live in the future.

Rev. Dunnett of Kenmare, N. D., who has been appointed to the M. E. church of this place, arrived Tuesday by auto.

The W. J. Phillips family left last Friday for their former home at Chinook, Montana.

Arthur Sponaugle of Calvin, N. D., and children were week end visitors at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. H. R. Murray.

Irvine Enger returned from the cities on Wednesday.

Mrs. Bern Anderson left last week for Jordan Springs to take treatment for rheumatism.

Bernt Anderson returned Tuesday from a trip to Canada.

EDMORE

(From The Edmore Herald-News)

Mrs. Elmer Frederickson of Devils Lake is visiting with relatives.

George Berg returned Tuesday from an extended visit with relatives in Minneapolis. He was accompanied by Mrs. Berg's father who will visit for a time here.

Adin Lowe, a brother of Mrs. Chester Sampson, went to Lakota yesterday, where he will work on the Observer. Six of the brothers in this family are printers.

Harry Allee, Goodwin Viger, Haakon Hetland and Selmer Tollefson have enlisted in the U. S. navy and left Wednesday for the Mare Island camp near San Francisco to begin their two-year enlistment.

Ed. Anderson spent the latter part of the week at the county seat, where he attended to business matters.

Miss Olga Flesche and Miss Crummy spent Sunday at their homes in Saries and Calvin, respectively.

Marie Lovgren went to Derrick Saturday afternoon, where she visited over Sunday at the parental home.

George Moore left Tuesday morning for Kelliher, Minnesota, where he goes to spend the winter in the lumber camp. He was in before he left and ordered the Herald sent to him.

Saturday afternoon a number of the little friends of Bernice Anderson gathered at her home in honor of her birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing the popular children's games, followed by nice luncheon. The "little ladies" who attended the affair pronounced little Bernice a royal entertainer.

K. P. Knutson and wife left Friday morning for St. Paul where they will spend a short time while Mrs. Knutson is taking medical treatment. The family have disposed of their holdings here and on their return the entire family will leave for the state of Washington to reside permanently.

Dr. R. A. Ogilvie visited over Sunday with his family at Grand Forks.

Ray Cunningham and wife of Brockert visited at the Goulding home Sunday.

A. W. Crary, wife and children, of Fargo, and J. H. Crary, of Crary, were guests at the C. E. Currier home Monday evening.

Guy Allee and Louie Fern autoed to Devils Lake Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Anderson attended the funeral of Elmer Sjurseth at Lakota Thursday. Mrs. Anderson is a cousin of the deceased.

A splendid supper was served at Braund's store Saturday by the Lutheran Ladies Aid. Hot hamburger sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee was the menu that satisfied the appetite of the patrons.

The local Masonic lodge have issued invitations for their annual banquet to be held Friday evening.

The American Legion dance was a repetition of the one given last spring from the standpoint of a successful social function. A nice crowd was present and all greatly appreciated the music and arrangements that the members of the local post had made for their entertainment.

Guy Allee and wife returned Friday from Walsh county points where they spent the greater part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hackett of Saries and Stone Hilman and family of Cavalier, spent the week end at the L. M. Spangelo home. This was a reunion of old time friends.

Miss Lillian Jefferson returned Friday from Grand Forks where she attended to business matters.

Miss Pauline Petsch of St. Paul returned to her home after spending the past two weeks at the Pete Boehmer home.

Miss Dorothy Stevens went to Lawton Saturday to visit at the home of her sister Mrs. Louis Olsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Allee and Mrs. Lou Allee spent a couple of days the last of the week in Devils Lake.

Ed Olson was unfortunate enough last week to get a piece of emery in his eye, while working with some repairing at the Motor Inn. He had to have the services of Dr. Cox to remove it from his eye.

Mrs. Wm. McGillis is at present a patient in the hospital at Devils Lake where she is taking medical treatment.

Mrs. Louie Olsen and son Raymond of Lawton were visitors in the city Thursday.

Mrs. Elmer Frederickson of Devils Lake spent the week end at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hans Branten.

The Edmore girls club met at the Braund home Wednesday evening, entertained by Misses Ruth Woldy and Violet Heddon. Conversation and needlework was the evening's pastime, after which a delicious lunch was served.

E. E. Miller returned the latter part of the week from the Twin Cities where he has been with his little daughter to consult specialists in regard to eye trouble.

HAMPDEN

(From The Hampden News)

Carl Sivertson, formerly of this village, arrived in town Tuesday from an extended trip through the west and is spending a few days here with friends.

Mrs. Geo. Marron of Fergus Falls, Minn., who has been the guest of relatives here for the past two weeks, left for her home Friday morning.

Mrs. E. M. Coffey and the T. H. O'Brien children left Saturday morning for Cherokee, Iowa, where they will make their home.

Mrs. F. L. Barreau left Friday morning for Constock, Minn., for a few days' visit with her son, Clark Barreau, and wife.

D. H. Damschen left for Pelican Rapids, Minn., Saturday for a few days' visit with his family, returning home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nelson and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mackey and son Raymond and Miss Lottie Haugen, Anna Forslund and Christine Thompson were entertained at the A. J. Weaver home Sunday.

T. S. Anderson moved the large dwelling house from the Snyder farm onto the lots west of the O. O. Knudson residence, which adds much to the appearance of the street. The barn he moved onto his home farm near the village.

Miss Malena Mortenson was a passenger to Grand Forks Tuesday for a few days' visit with friends.

Geo. Wichorek and C. E. Bender of Munich were callers in the village Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. A. B. Brandt and Mrs. Dora Bordson motored to Devils Lake last Thursday, spending the day with friends.

Miss Frances Wheat arrived in the village Friday and has accepted a position as bookkeeper for the Hampden Implement company.

Mrs. F. L. Barreau, Misses May Barreau and Ethel Bordson and Messrs. J. W. and J. B. McMillan motored to Devils Lake last Thursday.

J. R. Williams spent the week end with relatives at Lawton.

E. H. Howes returned Wednesday from an extended business trip to Detroit, Minnesota, and points in Wisconsin and Michigan.

Mrs. H. L. Mackey entertained about thirty-five ladies Tuesday afternoon at an O'Connor Club tea. Mr. A. E. Toomey was over from Devils Lake and gave a short talk, explaining the ballot and the different referred laws. At the close of the meeting a delightful luncheon was served, and the guests all report a very profitable and entertaining afternoon.

G. L. Campbell, John McDougall and K. B. Williams motored to Milton Friday evening.

Carl Boatman autoed to Devils Lake on business last Thursday.

Isaac Ackre and Magnus Peterson left by auto on a business trip to Stanley, N. D., last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Ytterbo motored to the Lake last Thursday, spending the day with friends.

P. J. Antony of Munich was a business caller in the village Saturday.

C. E. Burgess of Devils Lake was a business caller in the village Saturday.

E. R. Swarthout who has been spending a few weeks here looking after his farming interests, left for his home at Tucson, Arizona, Tuesday morning.

Mrs. A. Moberg who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Damschen for a few days, returned to her home at Vergas, Minn., Tuesday. Mrs. Damschen and children accompanied her for an extended visit at Vergas and other Minnesota points.

Mrs. Guest Schonauer of Foremost, Alta., who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Schonauer for the past two weeks, left for her home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Haugen and Miss Beatrice Lindsey motored to Starkweather Sunday, where they were the guests of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Schonauer, son Lawrence and Mrs. Lewis Davis motored to Grand Forks Monday for a few days visit with friends.

LAWTON

(From the Lawton Republican)

Miss Ella Brubjell spent the week-end with the C. H. Creasy family.

Mrs. Wm. Powers and two children went to Kelso, North Dakota Monday, to visit with her parents.

Miss Belle Crummy and Miss Leona Coder, teachers at Edmore, spent the week-end visiting Peg Scott.

Chas. P. Thomson and Max Chaglik of Minto were business visitors in town Thursday.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill of this township died Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeman left Lawton for their new home in Grand Forks Monday, followed by best wishes of many friends.

Miss Albina Ziska and Mr. Joseph

Koubat of Whitman were married at Devils Lake, Thursday, October 28. Particulars next week.

Miss Alma Kjelleberg after spending two months visiting her sister, Mrs. Garthe, left Monday morning for her home at Hanley Falls, Minnesota.

Mrs. Garthe entertained at a surprise party for her raister, Miss Alma Kjelleberg last Wednesday evening. About twenty-five couples were present. Music and games were played and a delicious lunch was served. All report a good time.

O. P. Olsen of Triumph township, suffered the breakage of two lower ribs on his right side Wednesday of last week, while plowing, the result of being thrown against the lever of a gang plow upon which he was riding.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Kosobud, at their home in Shepherd township on Sunday, October 24, a girl.

Freji Bros. are putting in all private lighting plant, thinking to save a considerable number of Killiwatts by so doing.

Died—At the city hospital, St. Paul, Minn., on Monday, October 26, at the age of 24 years, Fredericka Marie Mueller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. Schroeder, of Triumph township. The body was brought home for burial and funeral held Wednesday at Devils Lake, interment being made in the G. A. R. cemetery. Further particulars.

Jacob Honkola of Brockert transacted business in Lawton Tuesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arvo, of Brockert, Monday, Oct. 18, a daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hellek Helleson, at their home at Edmore, Wednesday, Oct. 13, a son.

Otto E. Hagen, candidate for Register of Deeds, was a pleasant caller at this office on his tour this week.

On Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss O. G. Zahradka, of Lawton, and Mr. R. J. Shirek of Lanika, Judge Hall of Lakota officiating.

Attorney Hjalmer Swenson and James Trueblood of Brockert were business visitors in Lawton Wednesday morning.

James Booth, P. Connelly, and L. K. Vobayda visited Rock Lake Saturday evening and returned Sunday, after bagging 26 ducks.

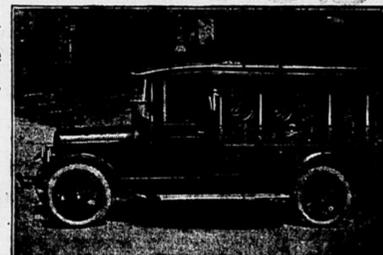

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lexvold, Zumbrota, Minn., arrived Wednesday to visit at the John Hastad home in Triumph township.

A farewell party was tendered for Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Zeman in the opera house Friday on the eve of their departure for Grand Forks, where they go to make their new home.

YOUR Comfort and conveniences are always looked after with careful attention to detail.

E. W. Gilbertson
—Phone 1—

Changed Hands

The Chicago Cafe

FOURTH STREET

The Chicago Cafe has changed ownership and is now being refitted and redecored to make it one of the most up-to-date cafes in this section of the state. We invite the patronage of former customers and new ones to try our service.

We will serve excellent meals at all hours.

Day And Night Service
We Never Close

Nash Mar and Jak Kee, Proprietors

CANCER

We Treat Successfully All Cureable Cancers and Tumors of the Breast, Face, Eye, Nose, Lip, Mouth and Tongue, Skin, Hands and Legs, and All Other Accessible Parts

WITHOUT the Use of the KNIFE or PAINFUL PLASTERS

The Aged and Feeble Find Special Comfort and Safety in Our Treatment

If you have Cancer or Tumor, or any other suspicious sore or growth, you are invited to come to Dr. Williams Sanatorium for treatment. You will receive Faithful, Skillful, Effective treatment for your disease at our hands. Write us today for our fully illustrated Sanatorium Book on Cancer. It is Free.

Dr. Williams Sanatorium,

3023 University Ave. S. E., MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

The oldest Sanatorium in the Northwest for the exclusive treatment of Cancer and Tumors. Conducted by a physician of standing. Established 1910