Wheezings of Wheezer

By Schneez-er

"Muchrox has a worried look these days."
 "Business, I suppose."
 "No; about a week ago he saw an Indian only two blocks from his house."

We are glad the price of clothing is coming down. It was getting so we could scarcely afford to put a button in the contribution plate on Sunday.

 Wheezings.
 Many a girl who seems distant is only a stone's throw away, if it be a precious stone.

It Seems To Us That —
 There was a man in our town and he was most unwise. He introduced his sweetheart to a lot of other guys. Well! What about it?

If there is one person we hate more than the chap who is always borrowing, it is the chap who never lends.

What is so rare as a day in June?
 —Warbled the poet.
 Well, for example:
 A man who knows everything there is to know about women.
 Or a woman who believes everything her husband tells her.
 Or a chorus girl who thinks of expense when someone else is paying the bill.
 Or a stenographer who is as much interested in English grammar as she is in French heels.
 Or a Church deacon who wouldn't like to slip off to New York without his wife.
 Or a church deacon's wife who would be perfectly willing for him to do it.

LIFE'S CHANGING AMIBITIONS.
 At four—To wear pants.
 At eight—To miss Sunday school.
 At twelve—To be president.
 At eighteen—To have monogrammed cigarettes.
 At twenty—To take a show girl out to supper.
 At twenty-five—To have the price of a supper.
 At thirty-five—To eat supper.
 At forty-five—To digest supper.

After a wife has had the last word she's just dying to know what her husband is thinking.

The pretty women get all the praise, the clever women get all the husbands.

A divorced woman is more mysterious than a divorced man. She has to be.

When lawyers come in at the door, love flies out the window.

Reno used to be the name of a town; now it's a condition.
 If it weren't for Reno, a great many people would never know that Nevada was in the United States.

A scientist has kept the heart of a chicken beating one year after the chicken's death—a regular, not a Broadway chicken. The latter, it is said, have no hearts.

If all the people who think well of themselves, should meet and hold a convention, what a crowd there would be.

Optimist: Bartender who keeps up his dues in the bartenders' union.

The Home-brewer's Best Motto.
 Jug not that ye be not jugged.

When you walk down the aisle to the altar the music is back of you, but as soon as you are married you have to turn about and face it.

If a woman went and bought two yards of cloth, she could make several skirts, but we don't know how many.

During The Great Drought.
 The saloons are not selling any more, but some of them are selling just as much.
 Two-step hooch is the sort where you step in and have a drink and then Broadway's slogan: "Dump it in the step out and get pinched."
 sink, boys, the dicks are upon us.
 In a year or two it will be practical to build houses without cellars.
 The nineteenth hole is now the most difficult shot on the links.

Me-o-my,
 how you'll take to a pipe—and P.A.!

Before you're a day older you want to let the idea slip under your hat that this is the open season to start something with a joy's jimmy pipe—and some Prince Albert—and get your share of the greatest smoke-sport-on-earth!

P. A.'s flavor and fragrance and coolness and its freedom from bite and parch (cut out by our exclusive patented process) are a revelation to the man who never could get acquainted with a pipe!

Because, a pipe packed with Prince Albert—kind-tobacco—satisfies a man as he was never satisfied before—and keeps him satisfied! Why—

P. A. has made a pipe a thing of joy to four men where one was smoked before! And, you'll say so as soon as you start to cash-in on this smoke-hunch!

Prince Albert is mild in taste and has a rich, hardy, and full flavored taste. It is made in the finest crystal glass humidor with apogee mechanism top.
