

SIoux COUNTY PIONEER
C. CHRISTENSON
Owner, Editor and Publisher

Subscription Price $1.50 a Year

Application made for entry as second class mail matter through the post-office at Ft. Yates, North Dakota.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY

OFFICIAL PAPER SIoux COUNTY

LOCAL NEWS

Rev. Fr. Ambrose will conduct Thanksgiving services at McIntosh.

Rev. Fr. Vincent was indisposed with an attack of stomach trouble the first of the week.

J. A. Stiles left Tuesday on a business trip to Bismarek and St. Paul. He expects to return the last of the week.

Engineer White of the Agency school went to the Farm school Wednesday to help the engineer there to do some plumbing.

Dave Babbitt now has the job of night fireman at the hospital, and N. S. Sykes is handling the mail route.

Auditor Colville returned Sunday from a business trip to Bismarek and Fargo. He came by the way Linton.

Dr. Duncan and family expect to go to Chicago about the first of December on a months leave of absence.

Mrs. Katie Schatz, culinary artist at the Ostrum restaurant, returned Saturday from a ten days visit with relatives at Strasburg.

New subscriptions to the Pioneer are coming in at a rapid rate. If your name is not on the list be sure to subscribe at your earliest opportunity.

G. E. French and G. A. Brewster of Cannonball, were in the city Wednesday on business. Mr. French is figuring seriously on moving over here and open a garage if a suitable location can be found.

The Pioneer would like to get the news from the different towns and postoffices in the county. If you want to advertise your community send in the local happenings. They make interesting reading, and the outside world will know that your locality is on the map.

J. Burton of the firm Burton & Greengard, the leading Mandan clothiers, have arranged with one of the New York fur and hide concerns to buy furs and all kinds of hides for the western part of North Dakota. Mr. Burton will be in Cannonball and Ft. Yates about the 20th of November, and will pay the highest cash price. Hold all your furs and hides until you see him. Definite date will be announced later.

JAMES MINSHALL AUCTIONEER
Ranch Sales a specialty
Satisfaction Guaranteed
Ten Years Experience
McLaughlin, South Dakota

Sioux County Abstract Co.
—Is Now Ready—
To make abstracts on property in the new county of Sioux. Any business entrusted to our care will have careful attention. Bond of $5,000.00 has been filed with the County Auditor of Sioux county.
For the present address all mail to Mandan, N. D.
ED. SCHULENBERG President
B. M. SCHULENBERG Sec'y. & Treas.

John Gates was delivering coal to J. A. Stiles the first of the week.

Dr. Duncan spent Thanksgiving with his wife and son at the Farm school.

Wm. Ostrum went over to the Bader auction sale across the river Tuesdays to bid in some hay.

A. Colville went across the river Wednesdays to attend the auction sale at Carl Althof's farm east of Winona.

Attorney Johnson goes to Moberge Monday to take some depositions in a case in which he represents the defendants.

Clarence Siaka lost a valuable horse Monday evening. The animal became entangled in a rope and strangled to death in the barn.

N. E. Shobe and Wm. Clark were over from Solen with a couple of traveling men Friday evening. They made the trip with Mr. Clark's Ford.

Rev. Dr. A. McG. Beede will conduct services in Ft. Yates at the usual hour and place Sunday, December 6th. Everybody cordially invited.

Owing to the fact that it is impossible to cross the river with teams Ft. Yates is losing considerable business that usually comes here this time of the year.

Oscar Baumann has secured the job of overhauling the government telephone line, and will start out next week. He will inspect all the poles and insulators, and make necessary repairs where required.

Francis Zahn is over from Solen this week on some business at the Agency. He states that the Farmer's elevator at Solen is loaded to its full capacity, and the farmers are still bringing in a large amount of grain.

J. F. Hill, boss farmer of Little Eagle, leaves next week with his family for a months visit at his old home at Pollock, Missouri. He will keep posted on the reservation happenings through the Pioneer which he is having forwarded.

No confirmation of the reported resignation of Supervisor Kneale of the Standing Rock Agency has been received at the local office so far, and it is not known when the resignation becomes effective or who his successor will be.

Mrs. T. J. Reedy who has spent the summer with her daughter in Seattle, returned to North Dakota recently and is visiting at the home of her son, Dr. Reedy at Regan. It is expected that she will visit Ft. Yates before returning west again.

T. J. Reedy, farmer in charge of the Agency district, has been busy the past two or three weeks surveying and platting the area of the recent fire. While working he contracted a severe cold and has been indisposed the past few days, but is still able to look after his duties.

Mrs. Nellie McGinn of Timmer was a guest at the Carignan home over Sunday while on her way to Dale to visit a son who is down with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. Louis Endres piloted her across the river in a row boat Monday morning.

The little daughter Phoebe, of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Amoo of Swastika, playing with a celluloid comb held it over the lamp and it caught fire and her hand was severely burned. It might have proven more serious for the little one if timely assistance had not been right at hand. Morristown World

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE SALE BY ADVERTISEMENT

Notice is hereby given, that that certain mortgage, executed and delivered by Carl John Carlson, a single man, mortgagor, to the First National Bank of McIntosh, South Dakota, a corporation, mortgagee, dated the 30th day of January, 1914, and filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds of the county of Morton, and State of North Dakota on 2nd day of February, 1914 at 9:28 o'clock a. m., and recorded in book 38 of mortgages at page 32, will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises in such mortgage, and hereinafter described, at the front door of the Court House in the County of Sioux, and State of North Dakota, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., on the 26th day of December, 1914 to satisfy the amount due upon such mortgage on the day of sale.

The premises described in such mortgage and which will be sold to satisfy the same are described as follows, to-wit: Southeast quarter (SE 1/4) of Section Nine (9) in Township One Hundred Twenty-Nine (129) North of Range Eighty-Six (86) West of the Fifth Principal Meridian, in Sioux County, North Dakota. There will be due on such mortgage at the date of sale the sum of $111.00.

First National Bank of McIntosh, S. D. Mortgagee.

E. A. Ripley, Attorney for mortgagee.

Subscribe for the Pioneer.

J. M. Rheinhardt who farms south of Ft. Yates, was a Thanksgiving visitor here yesterday.

There was a dance at the Levi Henderson place east of Winona Tuesday evening that was largely attended according to reports.

Dave Babbitt attended the dance held at Wapakala yesterday evening. He went by the way of Farm school and brought a load of young people from there in his car.

A. Coville returned home yesterday morning from across the river where he spent the first of the week on business for the First National Bank.

Dr. Bennett of McLaughlin will have charge of the work in Dr. Duncan's district next month while the latter is away in Chicago on a leave of absence from the government service.

H. Powers at one time an issue clerk at the Indian agency, has accepted a position as book keeper with the Sioux Lumber Company at this place. McLaughlin Messenger.

The Pioneer would be glad to publish the news of the Winona neighborhood. Will not some one report the happenings there? Send in copy so it reaches here about Wednesday.

Dr. Camp, one of the leading physicians and surgeons of Northern Minnesota, died last week at his home at Brainerd, aged 59 years. During the early days of Ft. Yates Dr. Camp was government physician here, but left in 1883.

J. H. Caldwell, issue clerk at the Agency, went to the Farm school Wednesday evening to spend Thanksgiving with his family who lives there. Prior is coming to Ft. Yates, Mr. Caldwell was a teacher at the Farm school.

The Hokanson-Turner Company store is lit up bright again after having been dark for a number of evenings owing to the gas light plant being out of repair. A new generator was installed this week and the system is in fine working order once more.

Wm. Killscrow living southeast of town a short distance, died Thursday night of tuberculosis and other complications, aged about 50 years. He was about town the day of his death. The remains were taken to Ft. Yates Friday for burial. He left a wife and several children. A daughter died at Yates during the late fair of the same disease. McLaughlin Messenger.

Do YOU Know About OUR Prices ?
We are anxious to have you find out about them
They will interest you when you're in need of printing

Red Ball Rubber OVERSHOE LINE

We call attention to our line of "Ball Band" Overshoes. A large assortment in both high or low tops. We can fit you with any size in the shape that meets your want for winter wear : : :

Our Cowboy Boot Overshoe

We also carry a special low top overshoe designed to be worn over cowboy boots. Come in and look them over before you buy a pair elsewhere.

All kinds of groceries and canned goods. Also cured and smoked ham and bacon. Fresh meats always on hand

Hokanson - Turner Company

Ft. Yates, North Dakota

EDWARD S. JOHNSON
LAWYER
Fort Yates, No. Dak.

BERG J. TURNER
Yates Pool Hall
BERG & TURNER, Prop'rs.
SOFT AND CARBONATED DRINKS
CANDIES, CIGARS TOBACCO
First Class Pool Tables Always at Your Service

Meal Tickets Issued Open Daytime Only
The Yates Restaurant
A. U. OSTRUM, Prop.
BOARD BY THE DAY OR WEEK
Ft. Yates, No. Dak.

The Fiske Studio
Portraiture, View Work and Amateur finishing.
Indian Portraits, Views and Postcards. Oldest Established Studio West of Missouri River.

School Election Dec. 3
School elections will be held in all the school districts in Sioux county, North Dakota, on Thursday, December 3, 1914. Polling places have been designated, and election officers named as follows:
In Lincoln district No. 1, at the Charles Hoover residence. Judges, Charles Hoover and R. W. McClements. Clerks, Ennis Ackerman and John Watson.
Hanna district No. 2, at the C. O. Hupe residence. Judges, Giles Brown and Samuel Irons. Clerks, S. A. Walter and Thos. G. Dando.
Cannonball district No. 3, at the Leach store, Solen. Judges, C. R. Wilcox and Otto Schimansky. Clerks, N. Shobe and Louis Harm.
Fort Yates district No. 4, at the court house. Judges, Magnus Berg and A. U. Ostrum. Clerks, G. W. Hokanson and Jos. Mentz.
The polls will be opened at 2 o'clock p. m., and closed at 5 o'clock p. m.
The following school officers will be elected in each district:
One director to serve until the first annual school election hereafter.
One director to serve until the second annual school election hereafter.
One director to serve until the third annual school election hereafter.
One school treasurer to serve until the annual school election in 1916.
---L. W. Colebank;
Superintendent of Schools, Sioux County, North Dakota.
Now is the time to subscribe for The Pioneer, the only paper that gives you the news of Sioux county. $1.50 for one year.