Efforts are being made to amend. We all hope for better days, and prospects indicate that our hopes will be surely fulfilled.

Free from Cyclones. The reports from different sections of the country have come to us this spring reciting terrible disasters from storms and cyclones, and still we are spared.

Right of Statehood. The central idea of Cautfield, and the one that towers above all others, is that the supreme power and right of statehood is inherent in the territory from which and of which the state is to evolve.
