

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

The Topic of the Week—Other Points of Interest—Furnished by Pioneer Express Correspondents from Drayton, Neche, Bathgate, Wallhalla, Bowmont, Beaulieu and St. Thomas.

BEAULIEU.

J. B. Schale passed through the town on his way to the mountain last week.

H. Goff is going to build a grist mill here, using the latest rolling processes and all the latest and best improvements in grist milling machinery.

The school district at the foot of the mountain have decided to build a school house and will open school about July 1. The term will be six months.

Miss Carrie Copeland has received notice that her claim will not be troubled and she may now be seen industriously wielding a garden hoe making things look lovely about her mansion.

County Commissioner Aymond was here the first of the week on business connected with the small pox scourge. It is now pretty well stamped out and the people of the infected localities breathe more freely.

The town supervisors met on the 10th at Joseph May's and the officers that were vacant through the failure of those elected to qualify were filled by appointment. At the special election forty-one votes were cast against division and six in favor of division.

The small pox cases in this neighborhood are now under the treatment of Dr. Ken. Dr. McLachlan who has been in charge of the small pox unfortunate hitherto deserves great credit for his painstaking and close attention in stamping out this disease.

ST. THOMAS.

Sunday 17th, Rev. G. H. Hair preached in the school house. A large congregation assembled.

Nelson Mott the machine agent, took a trip to the Pembina Mountains last Thursday, and returned Saturday.

Mrs. Holbrook has returned from her visit to St. Paul, and was gladly welcomed by her many friends.

Miss Clara Campbell of Ada, Minn., is visiting at present with Mrs. Mott, her sister.

Building still continues. Mr. Henry Keller is putting up a machine store. The Baptist church is almost completed and Henry J. Tabor has completed a fine front to his house.

Great preparations are being made for the Fourth. A race course has been prepared and a grand stand erected. The evenings are taken up with preparing for the charge of Indians, and practicing trotting horses.

Dr. Hodson's fame is still spreading, and his careful attention deserves recognition. Last week he performed a surgical operation in which he was assisted by Drs. Evans and Hamilton of Grafton, Mrs. Conrad Hinkel of Cavalier being the subject, for vesico vaginal fistula. Mrs. Hinkel was stopping in the house of Mr. R. Vancamp and was put under the influence of ether at 10.30 a.m. and recovered at 1.30 p.m., when the operation was completed. At last accounts the lady was doing remarkably well.

And LaMoore was here on Sunday evening of last week. He has decided to build another store.

Mr. Hooper has just completed his blacksmith shop and will start operations in a few days.

Some good work is being done on the base ball grounds and we expect to see some good playing on the Fourth.

Crop reports are splendid, both in this vicinity and from points west and south-west.

Pillsbury & Hulbert have a large force of men working on their elevator and that building is fast assuming proportions.

A man whose name we failed to learn, fell from the top of the elevator last Thursday, breaking his back. It is not thought possible he can recover.

Mr. W. E. Gooding was confined to his room through illness last Monday and Tuesday, but is now able to be about again.

Neche, the terminus of the great Minneapolis and Manitoba railroad, the entrepot of the two greatest commonwealths of the Northwest—Dakota and Manitoba—the great shipping point for the country comprised in a radius of fifty miles—will ship this year 1,000,000 bushels of No. 1 hard wheat. Neche, the cheerful, cosy and beautiful, situated on the Pembina river and nestling in a neck of charming woods, a veritable sylvan paradise, has the finest location to be found in the Northwest.

An occasional correspondent writes: A very gratifying event to the lovers of law and order in Neche, is an agreement between the merchants to close their places of business on Sunday. We learn that the success of the effort was almost perfect the first day, and hope that they may persevere until customers will know there is no use coming to the shops on that day. By all means let us have law-abiding customers as well as merchants.

The citizens of Neche have decided to celebrate the glorious Fourth and have put forth all that brains can devise and money procure to make the occasion one of attraction, amusement and splendor. The entertainment will be of the most select and orderly type, and will please all and everybody, the young and old, the rich and poor, the dyspeptic, the weak, the deaf, the dumb, the blind will here find amusement. The occasion will be graced by the presence of the noted orators of the day, including Hon. J. W. Taylor, U. S. consul at Winnipeg, and Hon. N. E. Nelson of Pembina. Speakers of Winnipeg and others have accepted invitations to deliver addresses on this occasion and will expatiate on the glories of the day. The programme will consist of the following: Daybreak salute of 107 guns; at noon a basket picnic, after which the Declaration of Independence will be read. Following this will be speeches and orations. At 1.30 p. m. the field sports will commence, and will comprise the following: Men's race, fifty yard dash; foot race, 100 yards, open to all comers; climbing greased pole, wheelbarrow race, sack race, horse races, one-half mile, open to all horses owned in the county; mule races, base ball match between the Neche "Doomers" and the "St. Vincents," the whole to conclude with fireworks and a grand ball and supper at the pavilion in the evening. The music for the occasion will be discoursed by the famed Winnipeg Field Battery Band, conceded to be the finest in the Northwest. Over $500 have been raised to defray the expenses and pay the prizes in the different athletic games and races. A good time is expected and everybody far and near is invited to attend.

DRAYTON.

The ferry has at last arrived and communication with Minnesota will soon be established.

A new grist mill is talked of, and our enterprising townsman, A. W. McCrea, is said to be revivifying the project in his mind.

Mr. S. Frank Johnson and his brother Arthur, are expected from New York on Friday. The latter will take position in the store of Dayman & Smith.

The carpenters working at Mr. A. Smith's new house, narrowly escaped serious injury by the falling of a scaffold.

L. W. Patmore has been doing some fancy driving through our streets with his highfliers "Peacock" and "Mauder."

Presiding elder Hair conducted quarterly meeting service on Sunday, and preached two very interesting sermons to large congregations in the M. E. church. His visits are always welcome.

From early dawn until late at night our six blacksmiths keep up an almost incessant anvil chorus. The breaking time with the farmers is the harvest time for the blacksmith. All this is an indication of the amount of breaking being done in this neighborhood.

A big crowd is expected in Drayton on the Fourth and a grand good time anticipated. Preparations are being made for fun and fire works, sports and speeches, mirth and music. See posters. The managers of the celebration will spare no pains to provide a day of pleasure for all who may come. In the evening a grand supper will be provided by the young ladies of the neighborhood.

The following is clipped from the Guelph (Ont) Mercury: VISITORS.—The numerous visits of Mr. John D. Wallace to Pilkington, have at last been crowned with abundant success, and he carried home with him to Dakota this week, one of the finest, and we doubt not, happiest of the fair daughters of the model township. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's father, Henry Larter, Esq., on Wednesday last, and was attended by friends from Dakota, Brooklyn and Long Island. Everything passed off "merrily as a marriage bell," and Mrs. Wallace must feel proud in the knowledge that she carries to her new home the warm congratulations and most hearty best wishes of every man, woman and child in Bethany.

Mr. Irish gave a temperance lecture here on Monday evening after which a Good Templars Lodge was formed. The following list of names and thundering titles set forth the institution in proper array. A successful temperance campaign, offensive and defensive, may now be expected: Worthy deputy, R. B. Richardson; worthy chief, Samuel Brown; worthy vice, Miss Mary Wallace; right hand supporter, Helen Graham; left hand supporter, Melissa Smith; past worthy chief, Alex. W. McCrea; worthy secretary, James C. Healy; assistant secretary, Samuel R. Smith; financial secretary, Albert J. Wallace; treasurer, James M. Graham; chaplain, Rev. H. P. Cooper; marshal, Daniel K. Smith; deputy marshal, Miss Mary Graham; inside guard, Thomas McDonald; outside guard, James Devlin.

Miss Armstrong left town on Tuesday for Jackson, Michigan. The hope is expressed that she will come back to stay before long. Miss Edmonds, sister of Mrs. E. A. Healy, arrived on Friday last from Kingston, Ont., and was heartily welcomed. A jolly good load of young folks from town took in the Jubilee concert at Pembina on Monday evening and report a good time. Supt. E. A. Healy has been making a tour of several states, as regent of the North Dakota University in company with Dr. Collins to take notes of college buildings. Mr. Guy Marvin surprised his niece, Miss Kennedy recently with a present of a fine new organ.

WALLHALLA.

Our harness maker, Mr. Foster, is kept busy.

Messrs. Bunling and Switzer are busy building.

The merry ring of the blacksmith's hammer is heard as long as the daylight lasts.

Our school is progressing under the able management of our efficient teacher Miss Ryan.

Parties who have not visited this place for a year will be surprised at its growth.

Messrs. Loring and Mayo are still doing a fine trade. Loads of goods arriving and departing every day.

Mr. John B. Harvey, et Ernest, has purchased Mr. Loungue's place and is building thereon.

It has been rumored that a Catholic church would be built here this summer but we hear nothing of it lately.

Several of our equestrians are going to test the speed of their ponies on the fourth for the championship of the Valley.

Our road supervisor and his assistants are all busy, calling out those who have a poll tax to pay to better the condition of our roads.

Mr. Hugh O'Donnell is prospecting for coal in this vicinity. He says prospects are good but otherwise is reticent.

It is rumored that Mr. Alf Baker, for some time a resident here, but lately of Lake Roseau, is about to join the army of benedicta.

Our town wants a dress maker, tailor, tinner and shoemaker. Any amount of repairing is waiting for the appearance of the two last.

Mrs. Valle has started a laundry and the forlorn bachelor will not have to depend on his own exertions for a clean appearance.

Mrs. Jamieson, our popular milliner, is doing a large and increasing business in her line. She has removed to Central Avenue.

Mrs. Emmerling's houses have all received an outward application of the brush which is pleasant to see. Paint makes a town look lively.

Services are held in Mr. S. O. McGuin's house every alternate Sunday by Rev. Mr. Nelthorpe at 6 o'clock p. m. Next service July 1.

Wallhalla is to celebrate the 4th of July by a picnic, horse-racing, foot-racing, fire works and a grand ball at the Bellevue House, at night.

Mr. White, the contractor whose tender was accepted for our school house, will begin work as soon as the lumber arrives. It will add greatly to the appearance of the town.

"Loungue, S." and "Rain-in-the-face-the-man-that-ate-the-baker's-dog" had a pow wow at Sauntero's last Friday, while under the influence of that which intoxicates but does not invigorate. Red River jig was played by Half-breed Jim.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. John Gingsrud died of small pox at his father in law's residence near St. Joe. Mr. Gingsrud had only been married about six months. The family has the sympathy of all their friends.

Burley and Parrot are receiving their goods and will soon be ready to dispose of the same at a moderate profit. Mr. Thos. Briden, their genial clerk has already made many friends by his urbane and sociable manner.

Some of the handsomest firms and buildings in North Dakota are to be found in this portion of Pembina county, while the natural building sites on the mountain in small groves of poplar with prairie surrounding make a picturesque scene in their emerald dress, beautiful to the eye.

Mr. Wright will soon leave the Wallhalla House for the Bellevue, where he will receive all his former friends and as many more as choose to come. Mr. Wright aims to make his guests comfortable outside and in. Messrs. Peters and Peters have left the Bellevue and are living in their new residence on Central Avenue.

On June 15th Messrs. Burley and Parrot gave a social hop in their new store before putting in the counters. It was well attended by parties from Ernest Boundary City, French Village, Mountain View and Wallhalla. Music was furnished by Mr. Mills Sr., a gentleman from Boston, that city of "caldchah," where he was a known musician; so of course it was good. After dancing until 12.30 p. m. supper was announced by mine host of the Wallhalla House. After the inner wants were satisfied, the dancing was resumed. Every body enjoyed themselves and thank the firm for the night's enjoyment.

BATHGATE.

Early Sunday morning Mr. Keller's machinery platform fell through, the result of an over load of machinery.

One day last week one machine man disposed of eleven wagons, probably the best day's sales of the season.

Mr. Johnson, of the firm of Johnson & Swinton, is in town. He is more than pleased with the town and the prospects for an excellent crop next fall.

Last Thursday afternoon a team belonging to Mr. Yost, from the mountains, took fright at the cars and ran away, scattering their load of shingles and breaking a sulky plow, piling one wagon on top of another and playing smash generally. One horse was slightly injured.

On Monday morning Mr. Foster made complaint against Mr. Johnson, lumber dealer, for throwing machine on the river bank. As the water of the Tongue river is used for drinking all along its course, the public welfare demands that some action be taken to keep its waters pure. The case is creating a good deal of interest.

Everybody celebrate on the Fourth. The citizens of Bathgate propose to have the best race track in this county. The purses to be given at the trotting and running races are very liberal. All lovers of the turf are requested to be present with their horses, and enjoy the fun. The committee has made arrangements for tables and seats for everybody. A committee on reception has been appointed, and will endeavor to make strangers feel at home. J. W. Works will superintend the dance. During the day he will charge ten cents a dance, and in the evening will sell tickets at one dollar each. An invitation is extended to all to celebrate the glorious Fourth with us. A good time guaranteed.

On Tuesday night the 19th just, a tea-meeting was held in the school house. The meeting was well attended. The things served first were for the stomach's sake—some one knew that the way to a man's heart and pocket book is through his stomach. Then came the feast of music and literary productions. Each one did well the part assigned. We are proud to say that Bathgate has some singers as fine as can be found anywhere. We mention the names of Mrs. McKittrick and Mrs. Whittaker. These ladies were recognized as among the most accomplished singers in some of the eastern cities. After the literary proceedings, two young ladies were selected as candidates for a cake to be presented
