

COUNTY NEWS.

From Hamilton, Bathgate, Drayton, Neche, Rockwell Place, Joliette, Beaulieu, Cavileer, Bowersmont, Midland and St. Thomas.

HAMILTON. (The following was intended for last week, but reached us one day too late.)

Mr. Brown has moved into the new hotel on Third street, and will be ready for business in a few days.

M. Sarver left last week for his former home, Durand, Ill. On his return he will be accompanied by Mrs. Sarver and his family, who will make their home in Hamilton.

Mrs. Cox, formerly of the Winchester Hotel, has taken charge of the dining department of the Hamilton Hotel, and as Mrs. Cox is well known as one of the best caterers in the North West, the already first-class reputation of the house will be sustained.

Harry Joy, who has been slightly indisposed, and took a short vacation to recuperate, is on duty again. In his absence Mr. Dumble of Pembina had charge of the business. Mr. Hagerman is fortunate in having two such popular and capable young men to attend to his business interests.

The wheat market may be considered fairly open for the season, as much as 1,500 bushels being taken in one day last week. So far ninety per cent of the grain has been graded No. 1 hard. On Wednesday the price was eighty-two cents. Mr. Sheldon commenced buying at the new elevator on Monday and A. McLean will be in the market in a few days for Trull & Co., so the farmers may expect to get all there is in their wheat.

Again the grim messenger has entered one of our households and summoned away the brightest. On Friday last Cecil, son of Dr. and Mrs. Bearisto, died after a long illness. Little Cecil was a more than usually bright and attractive child, a general favorite in the town and well known to the sympathy of all who know them. The funeral took place on Saturday to the Cavileer cemetery.

All lines of business show marked improvement during the past few days, no doubt owing to the fact of the wheat is beginning to move, and the merchants and others have unbounded faith in our prospects and are laying in large stocks. T. E. Yerxa is now buying fall and winter goods and intends his Hamilton establishment to be the foremost in its line in the county. Mr. Sarver is also cast buying largely for his rapidly increasing trade.

On Wednesday last several St. Paul Merchants, accompanied by L. E. Booker of St. Vincent, took possession of the bankrupt establishment of G. F. Winter & Co., and installed Mr. Charlton as receiver. On Saturday a representative of a Chicago house came around to see about an open account of $8,000 and finding the most of the goods still unpacked called in the aid of a couple of lawyers and the Deputy Sheriff and removed the goods to the depot. During Sunday the parties in possession were not idle and calling to their assistance Lawyer Kneeshaw and Sheriff Brown, moved the goods back again. On Monday evening another Chicago gentleman appeared on the scene accompanied by McKittick of Bathgate and the Deputy Sheriff to give the goods another move. What the final outcome of the whole business will be it is impossible to say but one thing is certain that there is a "cuddled puss" in the fence about the size of Jumbo and every honest trader and all who desire the commercial well being of the town should regret the events of the past few days.

BATHGATE. James & Ross have a man on the road with the Racine Farming mill. John R. Dixon's sign reads "Farmer's Home." Success to Mr. Dixon. Many people in our town have already put banking around their houses.

R. D. Hoskins has imported one of the finest bird dogs in the county. Sectors, Willson & Co., have a car load of stores piled up around their store, of almost every size and kind.

For a few days last week, H. W. Swinton was quite ill, but we are happy to say he is able to be around again. David Ferguson spent most of last week at his farm, while Dan McDougald had charge of the lumber business.

The new time table on Manitoba road took effect Sunday. The passenger train now arrives from the south at 6:55 p. m.

Wm. Foster made a flying trip to Grand Forks last week. We sampled some of the apples he brought back with him.

Mr. Taylor is at work on the Seventh street bridge. It is hoped that the bridge will be completed by this time next week.

Mr. John Mott has returned from his eastern trip. He has purchased one of the largest and best selected stocks of goods ever sent north of Fargo.

R. C. Young of Waltham, has opened a confectionery establishment in Bathgate, near the corner of Garfield and Seventh street. Mr. James Jamison has charge.

The building on block 31 in Bathgate is being pushed towards completion. The rapidity in which this building has been erected, will be a lasting monument to the fame of its contractor.

Mr. John Johnston of St. Paul, of the firm of Johnston & Swinton of this place came up on Sunday night and made arrangements for C. L. Parker to buy wheat for R. Barden of St. Paul. This will give Bathgate a first class wheat market.

Still the noble Tongue river continues to flow through Bathgate. At this season of the year, one can see at most any hour in the day water tanks being filled with Tongue river water for use in the threshing engines. All the engineers say that the water from this river is the best they can find for their engines. There is a pump on Garfield street bridge and another on Arthur street bridge where the tanks are filled.

The notorious Jim Hill and his friends made Bathgate the starting point for their hunting expedition last Thursday. Some of the boys can beat the railroad men shooting chickens.

We are informed that J. W. Works sold out his livery business to the mill road boss. Mr. Hill thinks passenger rates are too high on this line. He doesn't believe in monopolies. Since the Jim Hill expedition, J. W. Works has sold one of his teams at a good figure.

Farmers say they were never busier than this fall. They say they never saw finer weather for handling their grain. They are plowing, stacking, threshing and hauling into market just as fast as they can. A general good feeling prevails. Most of the farmers who were behind last fall, seem to think that they can straighten most everything up this fall and have something left. If good weather continues for a few weeks longer, the harvested grain will all be secured. And although some of our farmers had wheat frozen, yet it is the general expression of all classes of people, that Pembina county is in a better condition this fall than it ever was before.

This is progress. Some of the eastern skeptics should witness the sight that may be seen in this county any day this fall, and they would then realize the possibilities of this great country.

The president and secretary of the Pembina County Agricultural and Industrial Association, have decided that no further efforts will be made to hold a fair this fall. This decision was reached at their meeting on Friday night after canvassing the ground pretty thoroughly. The fair will not be held this fall; first because on account of the lateness of the season; and the fences and sheds can not be built in time. Stock must be issued and disposed of to raise the necessary funds. The secretary is unable to do all of the work alone, and it would be impossible to raise money for premiums with out some source of income. It would be impossible to charge an entrance fee with out some place to enter. The articles of incorporation are forwarded to Secretary of Territory and certificate of incorporation will be in hands of secretary soon. Stock will be issued and disposed of, fences and sheds will be built in due time for exhibition next fall. All things considered this is probably the best that could be done, at the present time.

CAVILEER. Rev. E. F. Movins returned last week from Fargo, accompanied by Bishop Hiltner. Supt. Jackson paid our school a visit last week. He also visited those in our neighborhood.

Another thresher passed through last week for the Mountain. Messrs. Sadler & Reid are the proprietors.

A. McBean is touching off the Pioneer to perfection. He is now giving it a coat of paint and has just finished painting the barn.

Mr. Henry Rickbell has been somewhat under the weather the past week. He is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

F. R. Yerxa took a run over from Hamilton last Monday, accompanied by Mr. Freeman of the North Star Bout and Shoe house.

Dr. Bearisto's child was buried in Cavileer cemetery last Friday. Quite a number of sympathizing friends followed the remains to the cemetery.

Mr. A. McBean's little son narrowly escaped a serious accident last week. He was leading the pony when it reared up and knocked the little fellow down and jumped on top of him. Strange to say he only received a few slight bruises.

The township supervisors met in Benson Hall last Tuesday to levy the township tax. Present—M. Heller, chairman, Jas. Manson and W. Jackson, clerk. The township assessment is $130,000, and the tax levied was two mills, bridge fund; three mills, road fund; and two mills, other expenses.

A meeting was held in Benson Hall last Monday night for the purpose of considering the effect of the proposed change in the school law. G. A. Douglas was chosen chairman, and A. Vassie acted a secretary. It was decided to circulate a petition requesting the county commissioners to reject the law at the October session, as it was considered detrimental and injurious to the county at large. A petition can be seen at the postoffice.

DRAYTON. Mr. Donald Wallace spent a few days in Pembina this week visiting friends.

Local news is scarce this week. Farmers are all too busy threshing and plowing to make any excitement in town.

The feed mill at the elevator has been placed in running order, and they are ready now to receive and grind any kind of grain for feed, with neatness and dispatch.

The steamer Selkirk left early Sunday morning with three barges loaded with wheat. If she gets through in good shape with her cargo, the elevator company will buy wheat again in limited quantities.

Tuesday morning brought a grand exit of citizens for Grand Forks, St. Paul and other cities, some going to conference, some on business and some for pleasure. We wish all a pleasant journey and safe return.

Considerable dissatisfaction was expressed last Saturday evening, because of the non-arrival of the Pioneer-Express. But we have since learned that the irregularity was not on the part of the publisher, who mailed the paper in good time.

Perhaps one of the happiest business men in town is our new butcher, Mr. Henry Mason, who opened up here only a few months ago. He and his brother find little time to loaf in butchering fine fat beefs and supplying the community with a much needed article.

NECHE. Say nothing but saw wood.—McCiintock. The frequency of the sit is getting too utterly much.—F. Wright. You will know it by the monogram.—N. O'Brien. I was grading a little too high.—W. G. Nickol. I wish he hadn't tumbled.—Dan Shay. It will cost $500 and a big hole in the ground to bank that store.—Jud LaMoure. If my house was nearer I'd do a bloomin' trade.—Tim O'Brien. I have a suburban residence for sale.—T. E. Wood. I have more to do than I can attend to.—P. Jennings. I don't fancy Nichols' moving up town.—Quackenbush. I wish somebody else had to drive the team.—Tom Stewart. Hiron City beats Waltham.—W. C. Feldman. It's no more use for my little ladder.—Jos. LaPorte. That's Doctor Churchill.—Al. Sufel.

If I didn't have Bill to carry in the wood I don't know what I would do.—Milt Moorhead. We have the boss barn of the town.—Brown Bros. I invite you all to my house warming.—Frank Thoms. I wish I had a better office.—Nesbitt. I hope they'll make it fifty.—Jack Robertson.

ST. THOMAS. The Steen House is closed, and the proprietor is now engaged in business at Grand Forks. Mr. Maxfield, the efficient grain dealer, is receiving from 2,000 to 3,000 bushels of wheat per day. Robt. Shephard of the Garfield House has opened under favorable auspices, and is doing a flourishing business. Dr. Hodson leaves next Thursday for the east; and it is reported that he will return crowned with nuptial honors.

The chimney of the elevator has been repaired, and the curling smoke ascending heavenward, announces to the farmers we are ready and willing. The Baptists are talking of completing their chapel before winter weather sets in. Rev. S. G. Appleby, who was called and ordained as their permanent pastor a few weeks ago, has entered most assiduously upon his duties. Thus far his evening congregations have been large and attentive.

Mr. L. E. Storms, who has been absent for a few weeks on a trip to his old home in the east, returned on Thursday evening accompanied by his fair young bride the ceremony having been performed at the residence of Mr. Dada, Fulton, N. Y. on September 19th, by which his daughter, Miss Hattie Dade, and our worthy townsman Mr. L. E. Storms were united in wedlock. On their homeward trip they were accompanied by Mrs. D. Bothwell, wife of Mr. Storms' partner. It is unnecessary to say that the ladies are exceedingly welcome, and it is to be hoped they will be pleased with their new homes in the west.

MIDLAND. The crops have been average this year, the drouth being a little too severe for the grain to completely recover. John Muford is getting up a new dwelling with a cellar this time. He also made his mark on a fine grey goose with his rifle last Monday.

There has been a good deal of breaking done here this last season. And the most of it is now backset, the farmers have put up a large amount of hay in good shape. There has been some improvement in the way of buildings this year. F. D. Orde has a new granary and uses a hay fork for unloading hay so he can lift it off in short order. Mr. D. Buck has a new house on his claim, and last Friday night some of the young people gathered together and gave it a warming with a nice dance for a few hours in a sociable way.

We have had some play as well as work as we think that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." So the boys have organized a base ball club, called the Midland Stars and for the time it has been organized they have had a good time. They have played four matches, losing one. The Bowersmont club was the last played with and the Midland Stars carried the day.

There seems to be no one that will take it upon himself to report what is going on in this part of our county. As we are back from the Red River a few miles and have no post office nearer than Bowersmont, I suppose that it is the reason that you do not hear more from this township. This district is as thickly settled as most of places are in and around here, and we have good land.

BOWESMONT. Messrs. Taylor and Murphree's machines are making it very warm for the No. 1 hard around here. Rev. R. J. Creswell organized a Presbyterian church here last Sunday evening with fifteen members to begin with and Geo. Patterson, Geo. Reid and Geo. Murray as a committee. These mistakes in the mail bag business are getting monotonous. Too often it happens that our mail is sent up the Tongue river route, and does not get back for two or three days. Some one is certainly to blame.

JOLIETTE. Talk about big threshing. Murphy Bros., with their steam thresher, put 1,120 bushels of wheat through on Friday last for Robert McAuley in five hours. There are half a dozen men to vouch for this. On the same day five bushels were run through in 37 seconds.

BEAULIEU. W. Gibson, of McKittick & Gibson, Bathgate, was up on legal business for his firm last week. The township board have levied a rate of nine mills on the assessed valuation of the township for township purposes. Francis Brady has arrived from Alfred, Ont., and bought the farm of Louis Hifault. He brought a team and a good outfit with him. A bridge is to be built across the Tongue river, near Young's place, and the people of that part will be able to get to town and back more conveniently. Nick Yost got his engine in the river at Bathgate and the threshing will be a little late this fall. Beaulieu will supply a large quantity of grain to the trade this winter. Yerxa's store is to be finished and raised higher off the ground. Wm. Yerxa is getting in a large supply of goods for the fall trade, and is doing a lively business. Quite a few comfortable farm houses are going up, Mr. Goff having built a commodious residence that has not an equal in the township. The work was supervised by Mr. J. May.

ROCKWELL PLACE. There is some talk of a postoffice being established at the store of A. F. Rockwell. This is much needed. Sportsmen should visit the mountains for game; Myriads of ducks and other water fowl abound in the lakes. The farmers of the mountain need a grist mill. We wonder that some one interested in milling does not see money in establishing that industry in this well settled district. Surveyors are at work upon range 59, township 162. Their movements are watched with interest by the numerous squatters upon the land. Many disputes have been settled for a time. Men who avoided their neighbors owing to a feeling that they had not room to "swing" upon the land they have respectfully staked out, now swing into each other's company and feel more like borrowing and lending than heretofore.
