COUNTY NEWS.

Pittsburg.

Grain is rushing into our burg this week. J. D. Macdonell went to Glasston Wednesday.

Mrs. L. A. Whittemore of Drayton, spent Sunday in our city.

We haven't seen as yet any of our brave Pittsburg people start for the Klondike.

Miss Morrison returned to Drayton Tuesday, accompanied by Miss Sturgeon.

Quite a number of our farmers are now drawing their wood and lumber from the Roseau.

A. Stewart and B. H'slop of Manvel, were here last week visiting with Mr. R. Stewart.

James Bellamy came up from the University last week to see his father who was quite ill, but is some better at this writing.

Pittsburg school opened Monday, Miss Webb being reengaged. We are pleased to welcome Miss Webb among us again.

Mr. and Miss H. Quigley of Glasston, were visiting with the Macdonell's last week. Miss Quigley has recently returned from Chicago.

A sleigh load of people spent a pleasant evening Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Campbell.

J. R. Johnson drove out to his farm south of here Monday evening to see a sick horse. J. R. just got back in time next morning to get five loads of wheat.

A number of friends from Drayton and vicinity, also a few from our town spent a pleasant afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mordy. Among those present we noticed Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. James Buchanan. Miss Bullis charmed her listeners with vocal and instrumental music, Mesdames Macdonell and Edwards gave some Scotch songs. The genial host and hostess are royal entertainers.

McArthur.
A. Brouillet is over visiting old friends at Emerson this week.

William Bell was visiting at his sister's, Mrs. H. Youmans, last Monday.

George Brown of Bathgate was visiting friends in town on Sunday.

We are sorry to have to report Rory Moore a little under the weather this week.

Mr. Walters of Larimore and Miss Teniels of Minto were the guests of A. C. Russell this week.

Arthur D. Tait is down from Winnipeg visiting his old home. Arthur has the Klondike fever bad.

The Epworth League gave one of their monthly socials on Monday evening. There was a supper and grand program and all was free.

The township election was the quietest for years in this town. The fact is there were not half of the legal voters out. This is not as it should be, every voter should come out to see how the township business is handled.

The W. C. T. U. of Joliette, will give a social for the benefit of the Fargo home on Friday evening, March 14th. Everybody turn out and give a helping hand to a good cause. Admission to all 10 cents.

Joliette.
Come to the W. C. T. U. social on Friday night.

Teacher J. A. McKay was seen on the streets Sunday.

Joliette will soon be one of the manufacturing towns.

Our Epworth League is having very interesting meetings.

Chas. Wrixon has his hands full—full of what? Oh! that's a secret.

Did you hear about our storekeeper riding the goat? Well, he did just the same.

A. D. Storms has just imported a fine silver-placed Wyandotte cock. Mr. Storms is no mean judge of fowl.

The home of Mr. Sparring was the scene of a delightful social on Monday evening. About sixty persons were present.

John Taylor is getting his new house rapidly in shape. Our city will soon have the addition of a highly esteemed family.

Frank Kit was seen in our streets a few days ago, just returned from Duluth to run Archie Bussell's farm for the spring.

MOVEMENT.

Miss Mae Halcrow returned from visiting friends at Pembina, Monday.

Misses Victoria Irwin and Jennie Brown spent Saturday and Sunday in Bathgate with the latter's parents.

Richard Roche of Hamline University, Minn., is spending a few days with his brother at this place.

The Kinetoscope entertainment, last Saturday evening was fairly well attended. O. W. Thomson furnished music between scenes.

The "Old Folks Concert," Wednesday evening, was one of the best entertainments of the season. The performers were all dressed in costumes of "ye olden tyme," and sang "the good old songs our fathers sang." There was quite a large crowd in attendance, and every one had a most enjoyable time.

Hamilton.
It's "his honor" D. Page now. Take off your hats.

Dunc McArthur will skate at Hyde Park on the 9th.

Miss M. Lindsay of Wilmington, Ont. is visiting with Mrs. Thos. Brown Sr.

Miss Embury, sister of W. H. Hassing, arrived in town last week and will keep house for her brother.

Grand ball at Hamilton hotel, March 17th, Quigley's Orchestra, $1.50 per couple. A grand time expected.

There was a large turnout to the election Tuesday. The caucus ticket was elected with the exception of the assessor. A list of officers elected will be found in another column.

Carlisle.
Geo. Webb lost a valuable three-year-old colt last week.

Miss Maggie Moore has gone to Bathgate to attend school.

Miss Bessie Webb is visiting friends near Bathgate this week.

Miss Estella Huffman of Bathgate is visiting her friends Mrs. C. W. Empey and Mrs. Robt. Lindsay of this place.

Miss Maggie Webb left Saturday for Pittsburg where she will teach school in her former district the coming season.
