W. C. T. U.
The ladies of the W. C. T. U. wish to thank the citizens of Pembina through the columns of the PIONEER EXPRESS for the generous contributions which enabled them to send such bountiful boxes of all things needful for the comforts of the Florence Crittenden Home at Fargo. The following letter speaks for itself as to how thankfully they were read.
Mrs. G. W. Ryan,
Pembina.
My Dear Mrs. Ryan:—
Your letter received This afternoon I went to the depot and sent the boxes to the Home and then went out as per your request, and supervised the opening and checking off of the list sent. They gathered around us, and one poor girl, who is a deserted girl wife—soon to be a mother—whispered to me, that she longed for some of the things to help out her wardrobe that she had for the expected one. Oh, how I longed for the right to give her such things as would be needful to her, but you know I am not on the board this year; I felt that I could only say to her, that the matron would see that she had what was necessary, and that she would give to all of the girls what was right to each one. Oh, how I wish it were possible for the ones who, with loving hearts and willing hands, pack these boxes, could see the girls a they stand eagerly looking for things that will make them more comfortable. One poor girl who had no shoes, gladly received the ones sent, and with eyes as stars said; "They will do all winter." Always, at such times, I try to lead the girls to feel that the kind, loving hearts who sent these things were led by God, and how much it ought to help themselves. This Christ-love that makes us mindful of others. It is more blessed to give than to receive, but I wish you could witness the receiving.

In our matrons, Miss Fannie Huston and Miss Alice Cummings, we have some brave Christian women, who are doing charitable work, if ever anyone does.
The temporal part of caring for their bodies is a small part of the work, unless through the physical we can reach the spiritual, and transform them into new creatures in Christ. May much of Christ's blessings come to you in this gift of love. Please read 1st Thess. 1, 2 and 3.
With many thanks from the matrons and the girls, I am ever yours, in His name and for His sake,
Mrs. JENNIE A. BENEDECT,
