WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER DISCONTINUED.

We regret to say that the Washington News Letter, which we have given to our readers for the past two years, will be discontinued.

Mr. Parker LaMoire, who has done the writing, has accepted a position with the Daily Oklahoman, Oklahoma City, Okla. Mr. LaMoire was one of the best reporters at the State Capitol. He always gave the news of interest to the state, was independent of politics, and kept our readers abreast of the congressional activities, and was different from the many demagogues who write to further their own political ambitions.

The Pioneer Express feels a real loss at the discontinuance of this correspondence and hopes at some future time Mr. LaMoire will see fit to resume the work at Washington.

"ET UP" BY THE INTEREST.

In case the leaders of the Non-partisan League, during their frequent passages of the Collection Plate, should be called upon to explain what has been done with all the money collected in the past, they should hear the story of the negro who opened a bank in a southern town.

One of his patrons came to the window one day and demanded his money.

"What you mean, money?" asked the colored banker.

"Ah put ten dollars in this here bank six months ago," replied the indignant customer.

"Why man, the interest done et that up long ago," replied the banker.

Cream checks are now being received for the "Send Frazier to Washington" fund. The interest probably has "et up" the millions contributed in dues, in Consumers' Stores subscriptions, in stock in league newspapers league banks, in contributions to the Victory fund, to the Lemke fund, to the fund to safeguard the Lemke fund, to the Courier-News sustaining fund, to the Townley defense fund, to the fund to pay off the signers of accommodation notes and save their homes, and to any other collections not included in this list.—Fargo Forum.

Many a man has assigned his troubles to poor business when, in reality they are largely due to too much overhead.—Marion Star.

A defender of the use of a school history text book that teaches socialism says that the youth of the country should be instructed concerning the problems that confront the nation. True, but why should a history be used to teach economics?

Editor Chas. Lee, of the Walhalla Mountaineer, is printing some interesting articles, on the early history of the vicinity in the '80s, written by old timers of that locality. He asks for contributions along that line which would be of interest to the old timers as well as the newcomers.

Plans are being made to put the traveling clinic of the North Dakota Tuberculosis Association in the field as soon after the first of May as the weather will permit. There have been many requests for the clinic from over the state and a busy summer is anticipated. Dr. A. B. McCradie, who has done such good work, will be in charge again this year.

SCHOOL LAW ISSUE.

The school law issue will be a prominent one in the coming election of Manitoba. The law requiring the use of English as the language of instruction in all the public schools of the province, is still considered an issue.

An effort is being made to destroy this law by the French-Canadian electors, who will fight to restore the old provision of allowing French to be taught to all pupils. In the present legislature, notwithstanding its diversity of opinion on other subjects, there was a solid body of support behind the language provision of the school law and its foes did not think it wise to make an open attack upon it. No political group will, at the coming election, put revision or modification of the revision in his platform; to do so would invite defeat.

This being the condition of public opinion, the school law is in no immediate danger, if its friends and supporters keep their eyes open to the working of its enemies.

National Commander MacNider to Attend American Legion Convention in N. D. in June.

Devils Lake, N. D., April 12.—Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, and wounded hero of the world war, will attend the next state convention of the veterans' organization at Devils Lake on June 20, 21 and 22. Convention headquarters today announced that Mr. MacNider had wired his acceptance and that he will be present for the opening day's session.

It will be the first time in the history of the Legion that a national commander has attended a North Dakota state convention of the ex-soldiers. Overjoyed at the prospects of entertaining the Legion's commander, convention headquarters immediately launched plans to the affair the greatest in the history of the state. It is estimated that 500 delegates, representing the 9,000 Legionnaires of the state, will be accredited to the Devils Lake affair.

Winning nine medals and eleven citations for valor on the field of battle, and promoted from Second Lieutenant to Lieutenant Colonel for bravery in action, Mr. MacNider is clearly one of the outstanding figures of the day. At the age of 32, he heads the largest veterans' organization in the history of the world as well as a million investment company at Mason City, Iowa, his home. He is a Rotarian and a Shriner.

Keep the above dates in mind and plan on attending this convention.

Goes Back to Alaska

Fred McGlashan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGlashan of St. Vincent, left Tuesday for Seattle, Wash. from which place he will embark for Alaska.

Fred left home some nineteen years for Alaska, during the rush to the gold fields, and in that time staked and worked out a claim that panned out fairly well. During his prospecting in the first six years, he drifted from one district to another as the striking of rich placer and quartz prospects were reported, and several times was lured into the extreme north with other fortune hunters in quest of the little glittering obstacles, where a man's courage and worth was tried by the bitter cold and hardships, in the vast silence of the great boreal, far away from civilization for months at a time. Only those who have had such experience can realize in meaning. Fred came home a year and a half ago intending to stay, but the north called him and he had to go back. While in Seattle Mr. McGlashan will visit with Eddie Cameron, of the firm of Burke & Cameron Transfer Co. Mr. Cameron is also a St. Vincent boy who ventured out elsewhere some sixteen or eighteen years ago and who has made good and connected his name with a firm that is known from one end of the Pacific coast to the other.

Their daughter, Vera, is teaching in the schools of that city, while their son, Roy, is attending the University.
