

An Advantage To Your Business

¶We invite you to become identified with this Bank.

¶Your financial matters require the careful, consistent attention which this Bank's officers give to its customers.

¶Your business will be managed conservatively and in strict confidence.

¶We invite your account.

MERCHANTS BANK OF PEMBINA
PEMBINA, NORTH DAKOTA.
Capital and Surplus $40,000

Pembina Markets

Wheat, Fancy Dark Northern, $1.35
Dark Northern, $1.34, One Northern, 1.32, Amber Durham, 1.13, Flax, $2.36
Oats 24, Barley 42. Rye $0.30.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1922.

How about base ball?

Miss Lamb spent last week's vacation at her home in Minneapolis.

Chas. Atkinson was a Drayton visitor Saturday on real estate business.

Miss Christina Oliver visited with her sister, Sara, last week, who is teaching at Glasston.

Rev. Edwin Trigg visited with Rev. and Mrs. Norris of St. Thomas Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Meisch of Argyle, who has been visiting the past week with her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Ryan, returned to her home on Saturday.

Herbert Russell is working as accountant for the Pembina Light and Power Company, in the position formerly occupied by Percy Huggill.

Mrs. Howard Eastman was a Grafton visitor on Saturday. Mr. Eastman accompanied her as far as Drayton and spent the day transacting business.

Everybody is going to the M. W. A. ball in the City Hall, Pembina, next Monday evening, April 17th. Good music and a good time.

Misses Annie and Jean Murray and Elsie McConachie came over from Baudette, Minn., on Saturday to spend the week's holidays. They went to Drayton Sunday to visit friends.

Make your date for next Friday evening, April 21st, and be sure and take in the Band Boys' ball, in the City Hall, Pembina. All are cordially invited.

Seeding is pretty general, the last of the ice in the Red river went out April 9th, with the river lower than is usual at this time. The robins, crows and geese proclaim that summer is on the way, although it has been cloudy and cold this week.

Mrs. Quackenbush was hostess to the Friday Afternoon Club last week. The time was happily spent playing bridge. A dainty supper was served at six o'clock. The hostess was assisted by her sister, Miss Richmond. Mrs. Meisch of Argyle was an out of town guest.

The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse, which was shown last Thursday afternoon and evening, was a splendid picture and Manager Copeland is to be congratulated upon obtaining the many fine film productions shown here in Pembina. The house was not as large as was expected nor the picture warranted, owing to the rainy, muddy evening.

At the regular meeting of Pembina Chapter O. E. S. last Wednesday evening, it was decided to purchase an electric star for the chapter room. After the routine of business a social hour was spent. Refreshments were served by Mrs. R. A. King and Mrs. E. J. Ryan. The gift of $50, presented to Pembina Chapter by the Grand Lodge A. F. and A. M., in appreciation of the effort made by the members of this Chapter in the entertainment offered the visiting Masons here at the meeting last June, will be used in purchasing the star, which will be a splendid addition to the equipment to Pembina Chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Huggill are visiting relatives in Humboldt.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Winters of Northcote died on Friday of last week.

Base ball dance at Carlisle, Wednesday evening, April 19th. Pappy music by Interstate orchestra.

Mrs. Sparling and Mrs. Genze visited at the home of Mrs. A. B. Purdy and Mrs. W. P. Storms over last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Varey of Humboldt, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home last week. They are both hale and hearty.

Henry Cashman of Northcote had the misfortune to break his leg last Sunday. Dr. Shaleen of Hallock was called and took him to the hospital in Hallock.

Miss Houtari, our seventh and eighth grade teacher, went to Grand Forks to spend the vacation last week. She had the misfortune to have an attack of tonsillitis while there and was confined indoors.

Mr. Ray Brown and Miss Beatrice Clow were married by Judge James Turner at his home in St. Vincent on Sunday, April 2nd. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Len Clow of Orleans. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home on the farm a few miles south of St. Vincent.

G. F. Strack and F. Kamp with their families arrived from Bellflowers, Mo., last Thursday to begin operations on the Fort farm which they purchased last fall. Both of these gentlemen are practical farmers and businessmen, and will be extended a welcome by the people of Pembina.

Miss Evelyn Russell of St. Vincent is a successful teacher in the Crystal schools. The Crystal Call has the following to say of her ability: "Miss Russell has been our primary teacher for five years, we sincerely feel that Miss Russell is the 'best' among the best of primary teachers. She is a valuable asset to our school."

With the ground covered with five inches of snow on March 31st, and while still snowing a heavy clap of thunder and a bolt of lightning was a phenomenon which occurred at Argyle. The lightning struck the barn of Joe Stancyk, eight miles east of that city, and killed three horses. It took a circuitous course, through the barn, house and granary, widely separated buildings.

A new restaurant will be opened in the Hotel Pembina on Saturday, April 15th, under the proprietorship of D. V. Crowell, formerly of Devils Lake. Mr. Crowell is an experienced restaurant man and promises the "public excellent" service. His wife, Mrs. Bertha Peterson, formerly of Pembina, will assist him in the new enterprise. Short orders will be served at all hours.

Mr. Heneman received word on Wednesday of the death of Mrs. Heneman's sister, Mrs. H. E. Lawrence, at her home in Highmore, S. D., where she had lived for the past eighteen years. Death was due to a complete collapse from the effects of the flu. Mrs. Heneman who has been with her sister the past two weeks has the sympathy of many friends here in her loss.

Grace church—Holy communion will be celebrated at 9 a. m. Celebrant, Rev. Jas. E. Kimberley of St. Vincent. It is to be hoped that every member of the parish will make a special effort to be present and thus fulfill the injunction laid down in our prayer book "that every parishioner shall communicate at least three times in the year, of which Easter shall be one. Wishing you a happy Easter. JdeB ANDERSON, Pastor.

Eugene Harris, who had been confined to his bed with flu, is able to be out again.

Miss Beatrice Lindsay who is teaching at Crookston is at home for Easter vacation.

Mrs. Wake, Janet Harris and Martha Brennan, who are teaching at Hallock, are at home for the holidays.

Mayor Casselman of Emerson was a visitor in town on Wednesday in the interest of electric lights for the city of Emerson.

Miss Sollibrokke, county nurse, and Miss Carother, Red Cross nurse, are visiting our schools this week.

Miss Viola Youmans entertained her Junior League Class at her home Wednesday evening. Games were played and refreshments served.

Grandma Harris, who was stricken with partial paralysis two weeks ago, is very low at this writing with little hopes of her recovery.

Duncan Cameron has severed his connections with the Drayton pool hall and bowling alley and has accepted a position as catcher for the Valley City base ball team for the coming season.

There will be a grand ball in the Town Hall, Joliette, next Tuesday evening, April 18th. Music by the Johnson Orchestra of Cavalier. Supper will be served in the hall. Regular admission. All welcome.

The play "What Happened to Jones" was presented to a full house on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the M. E. church. The parts were well taken and the play was a laugh from start to finish, with not a dry part in it.

Died.

Harry Walter Kemp died at his home south of town on Wednesday, April 12th, 1922, after an illness of some years duration, although not until the latter part of the winter had he been confined to his bed.

Harry Kemp was a splendid type of young manhood, kind and thoughtful of others and handicapped though he was, kept up the activities of a farmer, with the fortitude of which only martyrs are made. He was born in Pembina 37 years ago. He leaves besides his wife, one brother, Wallace Kemp of Hamilton and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kemp of Praford. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their sorrow. The funeral will be conducted from the home on Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

Local Wants.

Quarter section of good land to rent on half crop. Owner will furnish seed and pay half threshing and twine. Near Joliette. Answer care of Pioneer Express, Pembina, N. D.

WANTED—Auto and Tractor repairing. All repairing guaranteed. I will furnish my own tools. My price, 40c per hour, with board. No job too big, no job too small, and can go anywhere.—Geo. Johnston, Joliette, N. D. 44-47

FOR SALE—Pure bred single comb Rhode Island Red hatching eggs. $1.00 for 15; $5.50 for 100. JOHN DUFF, St. Vincent, Minn. 43-46

LOST—One black colt, 8 years old, finder please notify me. W. S. Kemp, Hamilton, N. D.

Wanted to Buy—60 bushels of seed oats. Write or call GEORGE HUTCHINS, Hamilton, N. D. 44*

For Sale—I have a quantity of seed oats, wheat and barley for sale. Good sample and color. Also some good horses for sale. GEO. H. MORIS, Pembina, N. D. 41†

Horses and Hay for Sale. A registered black Percheron stallion, No. 76375, weight about 2,000 pounds, and also twenty-five head of good work horses weighing from 1,400 to 1,700 pounds, and 50 tons of alfalfa hay. Will trade the stallion and horses for cattle. FRED SHANNON, Joliette, N. D. 36†

I Want Cream. I have made arrangements with the Duluth Creamery Company to buy cream for them at this place. Bring in your cream can and see what we can do for you. I pay cash and you can take your own can back home with you. JOHN COPELAND, Pembina, N. D. 36†

A good family residence in good location is for sale at a bargain. Cheaper than you can afford to rent. Apply to G. G. THOMPSON, Pembina. 20†

Clean Rags Wanted. We want any amount of clean rags free from buttons or metal. No pieces smaller than 12x12 in. Pay 7c per lb. cash. 37† Pembina Light and Power Co.

Take good Care of your Eyes, Ears, Nose and Throat.

"Prevention is better than Cure" and it is a whole lot cheaper, too. We have the "washes" and "sprays" you need to keep your eyes, ears, nose and throat in first-class shape right here in our drug store for you.

Come in now and get them so you will have them to use when necessary.

RAY C. STINSON, Druggist
THE REXALL STORE
Pembina, North Dakota.

Buy Your Jewelry

FROM
M. H. MILLER, THE PEMBINA JEWELER

Jewelry for Mother, Father, Son, Daughter, the Home.

Our business is the selling of Good Jewelry, Silverware, Cut Glass, etc.

Everything that ought to be found in a first-class Jewelry Store can be found in here. You will find our selections complete, our quality the best, and our prices as low as first-class goods can be sold for.

Thirty-two years of continuous business at the same stand without a dissatisfied customer speaks for the quality of goods we handle.

Examine These!

Kentucky Drill
International Cultivator
Hoover Potato Planter
International Cultivator

Order early. The stock is limited.

E. D. BOOKER,
Pembina, N. Dak.

R U Going

To the dance given by the Pembina City Band in the City Hall, Pembina
Friday Eve'ng, April 21

EASTER SPECIALS

FOR SATURDAY

Corn, per can.....	10c
Peas, per can.....	15c
Cocoa, per lb.....	10c
Large pkg. Corn Flakes.....	15c
Large pkg. Post Toasties.....	15c
Matches, per pkg.....	33c
Corn Starch, 3 pkgs for.....	25c
Sardines, per can.....	4c
Wintergreens, per lb.....	15c
Jelly Beans, per lb.....	15c
Carmels, per lb.....	18c
Cowley Strawberry Fudge, per lb....	18c
Cranberries, per lb.....	18c
Banannas, per dozen.....	25c
Grape Fruit, fresh and juicy, per dozen	$1.
Strawberries, per box.....	30c

Head Lettuces, Celery, Radish and Green Onions

JAMES B. PARKER