Conversation, However, Reads a Whole Lot More Like a Scene in Real Life.

"And so your father refuses to consent to our union?"

"He does, Rodolphus."

"The sad youth swallowed a sob. "Is there nothing left for us, then, but an elopement?" said he.

MERELY A THEORY.

Landlady—Dear me! What a peculiar odor! It smells like a piece of burning rubber.

Sarcenatic Boarder—Perhaps. The cook has dropped a piece of the steak on the stove.

Admitted. "Women already do a lot of governing," said Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont.

In an Illinois town a workman having been informed that a sixth baby had arrived at his home, exclaimed: "Sufficient," and his neighbors, referring to his having given that name—Sufficient—to the new arrival, credited him with originality.

NEW AND TERRIBLE WEAPON OF WARFARE

Krupps, the famous German gun-makers, have just invented a remarkable weapon known as the bomb-gun. This is a large, very brittle bomb containing 160 pounds of explosives.

HEALING BY MUSIC

Dyspeptic Eats to Tune of "Old Oaken Bucket."

Another Sufferer in Hospital Relieved of Pain by Strain "Last Rose of Summer" in Musical Tests on Sick.

Philadelphia.—The newest science, which is also one of the oldest, is the science of healing by music.

Nurses who aided in making observations unite in testifying to the beneficial effect of certain musical airs upon the temperature and pulsations of patients and the evil and depressing influence of other tunes.

They found that "I Know My Redeemer Liveth" brought patients out of trances of anaesthesia with none of the nausea and feverish symptoms that usually attend an awakening.

They found that fever was abated and restlessness reduced by "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton;" that "Dixie" calmed a patient who had delirium, and that "Juanita" and "The Last Rose of Summer" sent pain-racked invalids into soothing healing sleep.

The following is a partial list of well known hymns and musical selections reported to have been found helpful to sick and well persons alike: "The Old Oaken Bucket," "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton," "Listen to the Mocking Bird," "Dixie," "Juanita," "The Last Rose of Summer," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Folks at Home," "My Maryland," "Tennessee Doodle," "Auld Lang Syne," "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," "Rock of Ages," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "Shall We Gather at the River," "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth."

The following were found to be humorous: "Dead March" from "Saul," "Home Sweet Home," "Do They Think of Me at Home?" "Old Cabin Home," "Old Black Joe," "Star Spangled Banner," "Abide With Me," "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?" "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone?" "Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken," "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me," and "Stand Up for Jesus."

The hymn, "The Hour of Trial," was found to be one of the most depressing in the list.

SQUIRRELS HURT THE CROPS

Maine Farmers Turn Upon Little Pets of Law and Want "Peaky Things" Exterminated.

Lewiston, Me.—The State of Maine is overrun with gray squirrels, according to reports received at the office of the Commissioners of Inland Fisheries and Game.

Two years ago a state law was passed making it illegal to hunt and kill gray squirrels. As a result the squirrels have multiplied rapidly and have become tame and destructive.

Until the special law was passed gray squirrels were classed as "game animals" and each fall were hunted by the gunners. The farmers who two years ago petitioned the legislature to pass a law to protect the "little pests" now have their hands up and declare they want every one of the "peaky things" killed off.

In some instances the farmers have defied the law and with loaded guns have watched their cornfields from early day until late at night.

The Commissioners of Inland Fisheries and Game have promised to do everything in their power to have the law repealed at the next session of the legislature.

SHARK IS SOLD AS SALMON

Colored With Aniline Dyes It Serves as Excellent Substitute—Authorities Aroused.

New York.—Health authorities in the east, and more particularly in New York, are on the watch lest sharks, "dressed" with aniline dyes and sold as smoked salmon, be imported from the Pacific coast, where it has been discovered in city markets.

The manufacturer of the "salmon" was traced to Seattle. How long the practise of doctoring up cheap whitefish with the brown coloring stuff and how long the market has been supplied with this delicacy is a problem which San Francisco is now grappling with.

The unearthing of the fraud was not more startling than the manner of discovery was curious. How would you like to be the chef of the department of health, charged with the duty of seeing that your fellow-citizens had pure food to eat, and find yourself munching shark's flesh when you thought you were eating the best of salmon?

That is what happened to Assistant City Chemist Fred West in Frisco. West was eating his noonday luncheon the other day in the upstairs laboratory of the department. Biting into a tasty-looking salmon sandwich, prepared by his wife at home, the chemist met disappointment. West began to investigate. The "salmon" turned out to be a cheap whitefish colored. He secured some more at home and a fresh supply from a local market, where the first had been purchased.

Analysis showed that brown aniline dyes had been used to give the fish a spurious color, the product smoked and then shipped from the north as salmon.

METHOD OF TICKLING TURTLE

Boston Man Will Use Newspaper Editorials to Prove He Was Not Cruel to Animals.

Boston.—Maximilian Fischer, proprietor of a grill in Federal street, probably exhibited a 100-pound turtle in the window of his restaurant two months ago. Max was immediately haled into court and was fined $25 for cruelty to animals in keeping one Florida turtle on his back.

Max protested vehemently that the only way to keep a turtle in safety and know where he is when you want him is to keep him on his back. He maintained that the turtle wasn't hurt in person or dignity and didn't care a snap whether he was on his head or his heels. Max's plea was in vain. He appealed the $25 fine.

Now the Florida Times in a lengthy editorial says that Max was perfectly humane in placing the turtle on his back and that the animal itself was rather pleased over such treatment than hurt.

Fischer has sent for a copy of the Times, and will submit the editorial when his case comes up on appeal as "Exhibit B." "Exhibit A" has gone the way of all good turtles.

Paris.—As 29 work girls came out of a dressmaker's shop in the Rue Boileau at midday an arm encircled the waist of one of them.

Philadelphia.—Speaking at a meeting of the American Philosophical society, Prof. Ernest Fox Nichols president of Dartmouth college, took for his subject "Modern Physics."

He advanced the theory that because matter has never been freed from electricity, the atom may be an electrical structure and nothing more. In other words, matter and electricity in the last analysis may be the same.

ANATOMY OF WOMAN AWRY

Miss Moses, a Nurse, Has Every Internal Organ on Side Opposite to Usual Location.

Philadelphia.—The mixed anatomy of Alexander Jordan, whose heart, spleen, liver and stomach are reversed, according to the standard set in the construction, is paralleled in the case of Miss Anna A. Moses, a trained nurse of Osterburg, Bedford county, Pa.

Miss Moses not only possesses all of the transpositions boasted by Jordan, but was treated for appendicitis six years ago by applications on the left side of her abdomen.

She presents a complete case of " situs inversus," every organ of her body being on the side opposite to where it is usually found.

Miss Moses writes with her right hand, but says in learning to do so in childhood, before her mixed anatomy was known, she seemed to be conquering a protesting tendency to lefthandedness which would be the effect of an inherited righthandedness from both of her parents.

She discovered that her heart was on the right side, or rather the wrong side, while studying to be a trained nurse, in 1898, but did not suspect that the reversal was complete, and, as she suffered not even the slightest illness, was not examined by a physician until 1904.

Then she began to feel pains in the lower part of her abdomen on the left side, and visited Dr. Mervyn R. Taylor, at 1706 Race street. Miss Moses laughed gaily when the physician became perplexed in sounding her heart with his stethoscope. An examination convinced Dr. Taylor that all of her organs were reversed.

FIND LOVE AT FIRST TOUCH

Sightless Teacher and Pupil's Romance to Result in Wedding—Character Attracted.

New York.—The same hands that guided his own over raised letters in a Brooklyn library will soon be the hand of William Gooshaw's wife, it was said the other day apropos of the romance of two sightless lovers.

Miss Beryl Clarke, with big brown eyes that don't in the least betray blindness, admits the truth of the statement, and that it was love from the first meeting. Miss Clarke is in charge of the school for the blind at the Pacific branch of the Brooklyn circulating library, and she will wed William N. Gooshaw Thanksgiving day.

While the pupil pored over books with raised letters the teacher sat at his elbow, and Dan Cupid succeeded in clasping the hands of the two. "I was attracted to Mr. Gooshaw," she said, "by his personality, his character and intellect. These are far more important than looks."

CHICAGO HAD A BIG SCARE

For Two Hours Driverless Horses Dragged Load of Nitro-Glycerine Through Streets.

Chicago.—For two hours the other night an express wagon with dynamite and nitro-glycerine rumbled driverless through the West side streets and boulevards, being finally halted by Van Buren and Jefferson streets. William Waite, the driver, was in the For. Wayne freight station shortly after six o'clock.

ESSIMIST RAISES A WAIL

Incidentally Gives a Hard Jolt to Time-Honored Conception of New England Thanksgiving.

"Oh, yes; the New Englanders make a great time of Thanksgiving," said the insurance man as the subject was under discussion. "Yes, they are great on Thanksgiving."

"All the relatives gather for a big dinner, don't they?" was asked. "Yes, My Uncle Ben, up in Vermont, gathered thirty of us at his house last Thanksgiving."

"What a visit you must have had!" "Oh, yes." "And the banquet. I can picture it." "Can you?" "There was turkey, geese, duck, chicken, roast pig and spareribs. There was mince pie, pumpkin pie and elder. There was a big cottage pudding and cranberry sauce. Ah, it must have been a royal feast."

"Yes, it was," dryly replied the insurance man. "My Uncle Ben killed off four old roosters, his wife made four or five apple pies, and stewed up a peck of prunes, and we sat down to the feast."

"But—but it was Thanksgiving." "Sure, Mike. If it hadn't been we wouldn't have got the prunes."

"Add—and that was all?" "All except that after dinner my Uncle Ben took up a collection for the heathen, and we clipped in 50 cents apiece. My Uncle Ben was the heathen, you know. Oh, yes—New England Thanksgiving, I've been there."

CITY TO CLEANSE CHILDREN

Another Duty is Assumed by London County Council—To Wash Pupils' Dirty Faces.

London.—The London county council is preparing to increase the multitude of motherly duties already assumed. To this end it is making arrangements for the municipal washing of all children who go to school with dirty faces and necks. As it can not undertake all this laundering process itself, its members are arranging terms with most of the London borough councils to clean the children and send them back to school purified and, in case of such necessity, in clothes that have been baked or boiled.

The borough of Kensington, as a result, is preparing to spend several thousands of pounds on more public baths. In Chamberwell, however, the new idea has been in practise for some time and the council of that borough has just sent in a bill to the London county council for laundering and brushing up 3,906 little Chamberwellans.

THE POLITE CHICKEN

Discouraging. "George," said her husband's wife, "I don't believe you have smoked one of those cigars I gave you on your birthday."

"That's right, my dear," replied his wife's husband. "I'm going to keep them until our Willie wants to learn to smoke."

YOUR STOMACH FEELS FINE.

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sourness, Gas and All Stomach Misery Ended in Five Minutes.

This harmless preparation will promptly digest anything you eat and overcome a sick, sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn that is a sign of indigestion. Get from any drug store here in town a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain regulator for out-of-order stomachs, and besides it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder. Remember, if your stomach feels out of order and uncomfortable now, you can get relief in five minutes by taking a little Diapiesin.

Putting in the Time. A gentleman was engaging a general man and telling him what he wanted him to do. "You will have to clean the windows and the boots and the knives and go messages, chop wood, cut short grass, mind the horse and pony, look after the garden and keep the house supplied with vegetables and do any odd job that is required and if suitable you will get ten shillings a week."

"Is there any clay in the garden?" asked the man. "What makes you ask that?" asked the gentleman. "I was thinking I could make bricks in my spare time," said the man.

Thousands of country people know that in time of sudden mishap or accident Hamlin's Wizard Oil is the best substitute for the family doctor. That is why it is so often found upon the shelf.

THEIR FATE.

Mrs. Crow—William, have you ever stopped to think what will become of us when we are old?

Mr. Crow—Oh! I suppose we'll wind up as quail on toast at some table d'hote restaurant.

In Perplexity. "Michael Doan, an' is it yourself?" "Yes; sure it is."

"Well, ye know that bletherin' spalpeen, Widdy Castigan's second husband?" "That I do."

"He bet me a bob to a pint I couldn't swally an egg without breakin' the shell or it."

"An' ye did it?" "I did."

"Then phwat's allin' ye?" "It's doon there," laying his hand on the lower part of his waistcoat. "If I jump about I'll break it and cut me stomach wid the shell, an' if I kape quiet it'll hatch and I'll have a Shanghai rooster scratchin' me inside."

Mrs. Bunderby—Oh, no, indeed; he's a sycamore.

Severe Punishment. Belle—And did you make her eat her own words?

Beulah—Eat 'em? I made her Fletcherize 'em.

To Put it Mildly. "They say he has a swelled head."

"I must admit that he seems to appreciate himself very much."

Any way Eve never had occasion to marry Adam by asking two or three times a day if she was the only woman he ever loved.

It's no use praying to be delivered from temptation unless you want to be divorced from sin.

RED CROSS SEAL IN HISTORY

First Used During the American Civil War—Now an Aid in Fighting Tuberculosis.

Red Cross Christmas seals date back in their origin to "charity stamps," first used for the soldiers' relief funds in Boston in 1862, during the Civil war. After the war, this method of raising money was discontinued in this country for a generation, although it found vogue in Portugal, Switzerland, Australia, France, Spain, Denmark, Norway, Russia, Sweden and other European countries.

There are now several hundred different types of charity stamps used in all parts of the world.

Stamps or seals were first used to get money for the anti-tuberculosis crusade in Norway and Sweden in 1904. After being used in these countries for three years, as a direct result of the interest of Jacob Ellis in this movement, the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis association, headed by Miss Emily P. Bissell, and the Red Cross society of Delaware combined in issuing a tuberculosis stamp. So successful was this campaign that nearly $3,000 was realized, and the next year, in 1908, the American Red Cross was induced to issue a national Red Cross tuberculosis stamp. From this sale, $135,000 was realized, that amount being almost doubled in 1909.

This year, for the first time, the sale is organized on a comprehensive basis, taking in all parts of the United States. A million for tuberculosis work is confidently expected.
